YOU are always welcome to walk right into our office and get all the real estate advice you like without cost.

When a property owner wishes to sell his real estate he wants quick action as a rule. The best way to get results is for him to list his property with a reputable and energetic Realtor, exclusively.

With an exclusive contract, we, knowing that we are protected in our efforts to sell the property, will devote every possible energy toward making the sale. We will spend money advertising the property, which we would not do if other brokers had the property for sale. The chances for a satisfactory and prompt sale are obviously much greater under the exclusive contract. Ashland Realty Company.

FOR SALE—Eden electric washing machine, white sewing machine, canary bird and cage. Inquire Ashland Realty Company. 215-3 entertained at a most attractive progressive party, honoring the mothers of the members and special guests.

Mrs. J. W. McCoy was hostess for the earlier hours of the afternoon. The rooms were fragrant and beautiful in white roses artistically arranged.

Guessing old, or baby pictures of guests and members of the Chapter and the entertaining accounts of weddings and honeymoon by a number of the guests (the Mesdames Mary Dunn, J. P. Dodge, A. H. Russell and Watkins) proved a most delightful feature of the afternoon.

Mrs. J. M. Wagner's beautiful home was the scene for the later hours of this altogether charming affair.

The P. E. O. colors were shown at tables, and about the rooms, in the cheery brightness of Scotch broom and poppies and graceful sprays of bridal wreath. Place cards, and favors carried out the same colors; the latter being old fashioned buttonholes of yellow pansies and white daisies against a background of lace paper.

The delicious refreshments, too, were in the Chapter colors. The Misses Edith Dodge and Isabelle Silver served.

The Chapter's guest list honored in this charming fashion included the Mesdames A. Andrews, M. A. Barron, Eugenia Atkinson, Watkins, Mills, Ellen Wagner, L. N. Case, J. P. Dodge, Mary Dunn, A. H. Russell, Elizabeth Van Sant, Josephine Poley, J. S. Parsons, Win. Day, Angle Engle, L. D. Applegate, Hodges, Loosely, L. N. Woods, de, H. E. McGee and Wing.

Taylor's Entertained—
Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor and daughter, Mrs. Oliver Le Blanc were dinner guests at noon Sunday at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sanders of Nevada street.

After the delicious repast, and delightful visit which followed, they were again honored guests at a six o'clock dinner at the cozy home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert R. Smith on Oak street. The evening, after the delightful dinner, was spent in the reminiscent visit of old friends.

They have spent the past week in a round of visits and in being entertained by old friends. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor are old residents of Ashland and are very well known.

Reception for Pastor—
There will be a public reception for Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Mergler and family in the Presbyterian church parlors at 8:30 Wednesday evening.

Rev. Mergler has recently assumed the pastorate of the Presbyterian church of the city and the reception is planned to enable, not only the congregation, but all others who may be able to attend, an opportunity to meet Mr. Mergler.

PIE!

How to make the lightest and flakiest of Pie Crusts will be demonstrated at the

Free Cooking School

2:30 P. M. Wednesday

The second session of the Free Cooking School, to be held at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday, will be devoted to a demonstration of Pastry Making. Women of Ashland and community will be especially interested to see the actual preparation and baking of Cream Puffs and Pies in which the pure vegetable cooking oil, Mazola, is used for shortening. How the lightest cakes and the flakiest, most delicious pie crusts are easily made by the use of Mazola—you can taste and prove the results for yourself.

The lecturer will answer all questions about making cakes and pies. As the first sessions of the school, those attending are expected to bring pencils and pads for taking notes on the new methods and new recipes.

FREE—A beautiful illustrated 64-page cook book will be given each woman attending the school.
