2115

IDEAL IN ITS SIMPLICITY

This blouse is designed with such appealing simplicity that it will serve many purposes than was originally intended—that of sports. It may be developed in satin or crepe de Chine, as well as in the beautiful and colorful flannels which the French have sent over this season in such great variety. The front of the blouse is laid in plaits, the underarm seams and lapped on the back, forming a blouse effect. The ektie and sleevebands are of contrasting material. Medium size sizes 1 1/2 yard 36-inch material, 1/2 3 yards of ribbon for trimming. Victorial Review Blouse No. 2115, 34 to 46 inches bust. Price, 30 ts.

Calendar of the Week—

Saturday, May 17—Recital, Presbyterian church. Mrs. J. R. Robertson's pupils, 8 p. m. promptly.

Saturday, May 17—W. R. C. meets, I. O. O. F. Hall, afternoon.

Monday, May 19—Ladies' Art Club. Civic Club House. Evening.

Monday, May 19—Daughters of the Nile, Medford, 2 p. m.

Monday, May 19—Auxiliary to Legion. Business.

Tuesday, May 20—French Club. Wednesday, May 21—Missionary Society, Presbyterian church.

Wednesday, May 21—Auxiliary to Trinity Guild. Parish House.

Wednesday, May 21—Upper Valley Community Club. Mrs. Butler Walker, hostess.

Thursday, May 22—Teacup Club, at church parlors.

Upper Valley Community Club—Next Wednesday the May meeting of the Upper Valley Community Club will occur with Mrs. Butler Walker as hostess.

The program is a varied one, the topics considered will be of general interest to the members and the meeting promises to be more than usually important, although all the meetings are very much of moment.

The ladies may bring their fancy work if so desired. All members are urged to plan to attend this meeting.

Recital at Church Parlors—The recital tonight given by the pupils of Mrs. J. R. Robertson promises to be very interesting not alone to those directly concerned but to any who enjoy seeing the progress made by pupils, and there are many, too, of the more advanced ones whose playing will astonish those who have not realized the advancement made.

"Mrs. Robertson will be assisted by Chester Woods, in violin solo, accompanied by Mrs. E. A. Woods.

The concert begins promptly at eight, for many of the pupils are small, and no one will want to miss the initial appearance of some of these little ones.

College Club—There were not many of the Ashland members of the College Club that attended the meeting held last Saturday in Medford at the home of Mrs. L. E. Williams.

There was a most interesting and worthwhile program and Mrs. Robert Hammond is the newly elected president of the organization.

Dr. Shaw Entertains—Dr. Mattie Shaw entertained at two delightful evenings in compliment to Dr. Shaw's mother who has been spending the past week visiting the Drs. Shaw, Mrs. Ellen Shaw, whose home is in Nova Scotia, Canada, motored with her son, Dr. Shaw, Thursday morning to Marshfield.

Other than these pleasant affairs at which near neighbors and friends were entertained in Mrs. Shaw's honor she was the commented guest Wednesday evening of Mrs. Gregory and Mrs. G. H. Yeo.

Dinner Party at the Plaza—The teachers at Hawthorne Hawthorne Annex, and special teachers to the number of fifteen had a most delightful dinner party in the banquet room of the Plaza Tuesday evening of this week.

After a merry social hour the diners resolved themselves into a theatre party and attended the attraction then playing at the Vining.

Those who enjoyed the evening together were the Misses Edythe Stephenson, Buena Temple, Lillian Reed, Sarah Williamson, Mabel Eby, Emma Keltling, Vera Mammel, Ruth Sims, Mabel Anderson, Florence Allen, Leona Marsters, Geraldine Ruth Zipora Blumenthal, Ida Dahl and Mrs. Lizzie Merrill.

Party at Christian Church—A most delightful party occurred in the Christian church parlors last night: a full account of which will appear in the Tuesday's columns. These parties are a feature, once a month, as has been previously stated. Last month the men furnished the program and refreshments and last night the ladies of the church took care of both. None knew what was in store until the program was given.

The committee in charge last night was Mrs. R. L. Burdick, Jr., Mrs. Floyd Putman, Mrs. Edwin Dunn, Mrs. Delpha Bryant, Mrs. J. V. Wright and Miss Elsie Crowson.

Basket Dinner—A number of the members of the Christian church will accompany their pastor to Green Spring school house after the services Sunday morning where they will indulge in a basket dinner.

Rev. Allison will hold services at the school house in the afternoon, all returning in time for evening services in Ashland.

Bellview P. T. A.—The last meeting for the year of the Bellview P. T. A. was held Thursday evening of this week with a very interested audience to enjoy business meeting, exhibit and social hour.

An election was held at which the present officers were re-elected; Mrs. Mary Holmes-Tucker, president; Mrs. J. H. Frohboes, vice president and Mrs. Norma Roeder, secretary and treasurer.

A report from the concessions at the Field Meet showed a nice little sum for each of the organizations assisting; the P. T. A. and the Community Club. The work for the year was reviewed and indicated that much had been accomplished of which the Association was justly proud and also indicated a determination to attempt still greater activity in the next year's work.

Some of the things for which plans are already made are, first, a new stove for the kitchen; second, removable partitions are under consideration, and making the big P. T. A. Christmas entertainment an annual event is also being discussed. These are some of the things that indicate that next year will be full of achievements by the P. T. A. for the community.

Just here it might be mentioned that the P. T. A. and Sewing Club have a fund of sixty dollars on hand toward the sum necessary to send the club to Corvallis.

To this the Upper Valley Community club will add what is needed to complete the amount.

The P. T. A. wish to express their appreciation for the active help and cooperation of the Community club that it has given the P. T. A. during the past winter.

The two organizations have worked hand in hand in these enterprises, and the same spirit of cooperation will no doubt be evidenced in future activities.

The delegates named for the Council meeting being held today at Junction High are Mrs. Kenneth Williams, Mrs. Lamb and Mrs. Edwin Dunn.

The Sewing Club had a most creditable exhibit of articles they had made. Among the many things shown were dresses, towels, curtains, dresser sets, embroidered pillow cases, lingerie all in every detail. It was an exhibit and their leader may well be proud.

After the beautiful handiwork had been inspected, the hostesses Mrs. Huxley, Mrs. Mary Tucker and Mrs. Oscar Johnson served the most delicious lemon cream sherbet, cakes and coffee.

The evening had passed so delightfully that those present had a feeling of regret that these pleasant gatherings would not occur again until fall.

Social Circle Meets—The Social Circle of the Christian church met at the pleasant home of Mrs. O. W. Long for their meeting Wednesday of this week.

Many things of importance were discussed at the business session. Among other things it was decided to have the next meeting on May 27th, which fall on Tuesday, that the meeting may not come on Commencement Day.

It was also decided to make the next meeting a "Dollar" one; each member contributing the sum rather than hold a "foor sale," when the membership are so busy, and so many other things to claim their efforts.

The musical program followed the business session, which was fully appreciated by the delighted listeners.

"At Nightfall" and "A Little Irish Girl" were sung very pleasingly by Mrs. Edwin Dunn, with Mrs. R. L. Burdick at the piano. Mrs. W. E. Sanford played "The Wife's Prayer" and "Remember Me" very feelingly, and his number was followed by a vocal duet sung by Mrs. J. V. Wright and Mrs. Floyd Putman.

"My Wild Irish Rose," accompanied by Mrs. R. L. Burdick, Jr. This was a delightful number.

Fancy work occupied busy fingers while time slipped by so pleasantly until the hostess announced tea, at which most delicious ice cream, cakes and tea were served by Mrs. O. W. Long assisted by Mrs. Philpott.

Those present to enjoy the delightful afternoon were the Mesdames Wm. Rice, Edwin Dunn, R. L. Burdick, James Putman, Floyd Putman, J. B. Cochran, Philpott, W. E. Sanford, Delpha Bryant, J. V. Wright, O. W. Long, Hattie Smith, Frank Shaffer, M. J. Love, O. H. Johnson, F. D.

Swingle, and the Misses Helen Sanford and May Benedict.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Entertain—Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Holmes entertained very delightfully Thursday evening in honor of their daughter, Mrs. R. S. McClure of Bend, who has been here since Sunday last, visiting her parents and friends.

Music was the special feature of the evening; Mr. and Mrs. Weston Henry giving a number of selections. Mrs. Henry sang, playing her own accompaniment, and with the violin played by Mr. Henry.

The guests were delighted at this opportunity of hearing these beautiful numbers, so pleasingly rendered.

Music by the company and visiting occupied the time most pleasantly until a late hour.

The rooms and tables were beautifully decorated in pink and white roses, the colors being carried out in the decorative plans.

Very delicious refreshments of ice cream, dainty angel food, sunshine and chocolate cakes and fruitade were served at the close of the delightful evening.

Those present at this pleasant affair were Messrs. and Mesdames Carson, V. D. Miller, Wirt Wright, Weston Henry, Dr. and Mrs. Crandall, Mesdames H. O. Anderson, Wm. Meyer, Laura Channell, D. H. Jackson and daughter, Mrs. Koyl, Mattie Bryant, C. H. Holmes and son, Robert, and the Misses Mabel Anderson, Hodges, Marjorie Payne and Lucile Gilmore.

There will be a family reunion at the parental home Sunday, prior to Mrs. McClure's departure. Mrs. McClure will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Will Holmes to Grants Pass where she will visit before she leaves for her home in Bend.
