

Local Personal Notes

A Daily Chronicle of those who come and go, and events of local interest

Knights Templar
Malta Commandery No. 4
Masonic Hall
Stated conclave, Wednesday evening, May 21; also work in Red Cross and Malta Degrees. Light refreshments after work. Sojourning and visiting Fraters courteously invited.
F. H. JOHNSON, E. C.
W. H. DAY, Recorder.
221-2

Former Residents Visit—
Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Potter are guests at the Ben Potter home on Second street. They are former well known residents.

For salt mackerel, herring, cod fish, fish flakes and kippered salmon, try Detricks.

New Operator in Office—
Miss Mildred Beeson has joined the operating force at the telephone office.

Madden sells Federal Tires. 151-1f

Returns for Vacation—
Miss Florence VanDyke will spend her two weeks vacation with her sisters and Miss Esther Kleinhammer at the VanDyke home on Morton street. She will graduate this fall from the Sacred Heart hospital in Medford.

Guaranteed tooth brush 35c, McNair Bros.

Graduate Goes to Oakland—
Miss Helen Merrill left last evening for Oakland, California, where she will enter training at the Fabiola hospital for a two and a half year period. She graduated with this year's senior class at high school but was unable to stay over for graduation exercises. Her going probably removes the first member of the class to active training outside school activities.

SPECIAL attention to AUTO-MOBILE insurance; better terms and lower rates. Yeo, of course. Phone 21 & 274-J. 212-1f

Visited County Seat—
Mr. and Mrs. Farris Stanton and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rose motored to Jacksonville yesterday afternoon on business.

5c Beach-Nut Fruit Tablets, Holmes. 220-3

J-S Picnic Yesterday—
The annual Junior-Senior picnic was an event of the season yesterday when the seniors were taken to Pinehurst, in the Green-spring mountains, for the day. They were entertained royally and fed a true picnic dinner. On the return a number of the cars went to Shale City for a few hours.

Best tomato plants, Holmes Grocery. 220-3
Paulsner's suits last longer, look better and cost LESS. 221-1f

Lincoln Salesman Visits—
In the spring when women's hearts turn to motors and traveling men's taste to light blue togethery, mammoth automobiles in new tints are rolled out and put thru their paces. R. L. Fairfax, a Lincoln salesman from Detroit and Portland, has been in Ashland two days this week with a Lincoln sedan looking over prospects.

Complete line of Ashland Canned Goods at Detricks. 94-1f

Those Who Come and Go—
Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Lee, of Myrtle Point, were among late arrivals at Hotel Columbia last night. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. McCue were among out-of-town guests from Bandon. C. L. Royal was here from Dunsmuir.

You must know we are very busy all the time, or we would not sell and trade as many houses and ranches as we do.
What is the reason?
Every deal has our own personal management. Whatever your problem, whatever your needs, call or write the Ashland Realty Co., and you are assured the kind of service you always have wanted.
221-3t

Let us fill your pail with Swifts Silver Leaf lard. Costs less than shortening. Goes farther and is more nutritious. Detricks. 94-1f

Notice of Stockholders Meeting
Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Hartman Syndicate Incorporated will be held on Thursday, May 22, 1924, at the hour of 3:00 o'clock P. M., at the office of the company, 135 Pioneer Avenue, Ashland, Oregon.
Dated at Ashland, Oregon, this 22nd day of April, 1924.
H. P. NEWCOMBE, President
W. D. BENNETT, Secretary.
197-1mo.

Pioneer Family Represented—
Albert D. Applegate, Fred Applegate and Grant Applegate, members of the pioneer Applegate family from the Umpqua valley, were guests in Ashland last night. They left early this morning for California.

Orres tailors for men and women, upstairs over McGees.

To Roseburg—
Richard Ring left yesterday afternoon for Roseburg to spend two weeks as relief manager of the Western Union office, while the regular manager takes an annual vacation. C. A. Harris, local manager, started to work yesterday afternoon after having had his vacation.

Nobody kicks on Federal Tires. Ask you neighbor. More miles per dollar and less kicks per tire than any tire we know of. Ashland Vulc Works, Phone 90. 203-1f

More Homes Paint—
The Davies home at the corner of 7th and A streets has been painted. Jerry O'Neil has had his home on Morton street redecorated with a new coat of paint.

Here Yesterday—
Ed. Andrews, popular Medford music conductor, was in Ashland yesterday afternoon on business. The coming concert of Galli Curci is being held under the auspices of Andrews Bros., and Mr. Andrews stated that tickets have been sold as far north as Roseburg and south to Klamath Falls, indicating that a record crowd will attend.

Think prosperity.
Talk prosperity.
Believe in prosperity.
Work and enjoy in a house of your own—Prosperity. You can buy for cash or very easy terms, just like rent; and now is the time. Call and talk it over privately with the Ashland Realty Co. 221-3t

Week-end Travelers—
Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Wheeler were week-end visitors in Holland, Oregon. Miss Bertha Borrell spent a short time in Grants Pass during the week-end.

We deliver the goods—Detricks 94-1f

Among the Travelers—
Mr. and Mrs. John A. Shaw were out-of-town guests from Albany last night. J. Ruth Sherard stopped in Ashland last night en route from Los Angeles to Seattle.

HONESTY is my POLICY. Yeo, of course. 212-1f

To Spend a Month Here—
Mr. and Mrs. Eugene LaForest will be guests at Hotel Ashland for a month, while Mrs. LaForest is trying out Ashland as a health resort. Believing that Lithia water might prove beneficial to her health, Mrs. LaForest, accompanied her husband here from Portland. Mr. LaForest is a retired railroad conductor.

Call Acklin's Taxi at 213 for a trip to the Caves. 221-2

At Home—
Mrs. Cora E. Burns is home to her friends again having spent the past several months in Lemon Cove, California, with her son and family. En route home she visited members of her family in San Francisco and Watsonville.

Cliff Payne makes screen doors.

To Attend Annual Meeting—
H. P. Newcombe, president of the Hartman Syndicate, Inc., G. C. Richardson, chemical engineer and B. Winchester, stock salesman of the same corporation, arrived in Ashland yesterday afternoon to attend the annual stockholder's meeting tomorrow afternoon. The party went to Shale City this morning where Mr. Richardson was particularly interested in exploring the holdings.

McNair Bros., Dependable Drug-gists.

Directs Program—
The usual musical program broadcasted tomorrow night from The Bible Institute of Los Angeles will be directed by Miss Pauline Plummer and Miss Rochel Wood, assisted by two vocal students. Miss Plummer will play a number of selections on the piano and pipe organ and would be pleased to have her friends listen in.

Here Yesterday—
W. M. Duggan, northwest agent for the Northwest Gas Equipment Co., in Portland, called at the Southern Oregon Gas office here yesterday. Returning to Portland, he stopped in Roseburg today.

PRESIDENTIAL POSSIBILITIES

EDITOR'S NOTE—A series of articles, of which this is the first, will appear every other day in the Tidings, giving pertinent information relative to those who are considered presidential possibilities, and any two of whom may receive the republican and democratic nominations for standard bearers.

ALFRED E. SMITH
The story of Alfred E. Smith, who began life as a newsboy and was twice elected Governor of New York with many honors thrust upon him along the way, reads like a tale from fiction's pages. There is no better way to begin it than to quote the late W. Bourke Cockran, silver-tongued giant of countless political conventions, when he nominated "Al" Smith as a candidate for a second term as Governor of New York:

"I nominate here today a man whose career savors more of a page from romance than a mere biographical narrative; a man who, starting in the very humblest conditions, has risen in the comparatively short space of sixteen years to the second highest, as we believe, position in the country; a man who has risen from a peddler's wagon, while yet short of his prime, to the Governor's chair of the greatest state in the union; who, through all that long journey, accomplished in such short space of time, has never lost a friend whom he has gained in his youth, or failed to acquire other friends through all the stages."

Then the speaker went on to sketch the career of the Governor, who was born in the shadow of the Brooklyn Bridge and rose in turn from newsboy to fish vender, assemblyman, speaker, sheriff, president of the Board of Aldermen and chief executive of the State, and declared "Al" Smith was the "only man I ever knew who, in high office could be called by a diminutive appellation of friendship without abasing in some degree the dignity of his office."

Later on in his eulogy, Mr. Cockran related how when "Al" was elected a member of the Constitutional Convention in 1915, "this peddler boy had the opportunity to match his wits and abilities against Elihu Root, who presided, and George W. Wickesham, late Attorney General of the United States," and before the convention adjourned "both men paid tribute to him as the man best qualified among those they had known to deal with questions affecting the welfare of the state."

"Remarkable and brilliant," is reported to have been Mr. Root's characterization of the former newsboy. Those who sat with him declared he knew the history of New York legislation from A to Z, and his quaint humor was irresistible.
During a recess one day he was relating to a friend the spirit of humility with which he entered upon his first week's service as a member of the lower house of the Legislature.

Job Worried Him
"At first," he said, "I sat with Assemblyman Tommy Cosgrove looking over a pile of bills a foot high. We spent an hour scrutinizing them and then went for a walk along the river.
"Tommy," said I, "we are in the wrong place." "You're right, Al," said Tommy.
"Yes," I said, "we can tell a hake from a haddock by the color of his eye, but we can't tell a bill from a bale of hay." But I stuck and here I am."

Brooklyn Bridge was in course of construction when Governor Smith was born at No. 25 Oliver street, New York City, in 1873. He has lived all his life in the lower East Side, and that perhaps may account for his great popularity with the masses.

He was born in what was then the old Fourth Ward, now the Second Assembly District, and he voted from the house he was born in and near which he lives today.
When he was a tiny tot his father died leaving his mother less than $100, and, following his demise, "Al" went out into the world to help his mother.

Soon folks around Fulton Street Market began to notice a freckle-faced youngster who was the first on the job to catch a dime running errands and always on top in a two-fisted scrap with the Cherry Hill gang.
The boy sold newspapers, worked in the old Fulton Market and peddled fish.

"Papers" Aided Voice
It was the occupation of newsboy that developed the stentorian, piercing voice that has made him famous as a political speaker and debater throughout the state.

When he wasn't peddling fish or papers he attended St. James Parochial School in Cherry Street. In later years he studied law at Manhattan College and Fordham University, but his astounding grasp of civic affairs, legislation and governmental science was acquired mostly in the "college of life."

His first public office was a clerkship in the Commissioner of Jurors' department. He was appointed to the position in 1895, but the previous year he had taken the stump for Timothy J.

SMITH WIGGLESWORTH, THE MAN OF FAITH, COMING TO ASHLAND

One of the greatest preachers of modern days is coming to Ashland, Smith Wigglesworth, of Bradford, England, whose call has taken him to many lands, including Switzerland, Germany, Sweden, Austria, New Zealand, Canada and the United States, will be at the Chautauque building Sunday, May 25th to the 29th, every morning and evening.

He brings a message quite similar to that of Evangelist Price of two years ago, whom many people in this valley have reason to remember with much gratitude. He preaches Christ the Saviour, Christ the Healer, Christ the Baptizer with the Holy Spirit and Christ the soon coming King. His message and work is in demonstration of the teaching and power of the Holy Spirit.
All are invited both the believer and the unbeliever. All who have a desire to get better acquainted with our Lord, come. All who are sick or afflicted, come and worship the Lord and be healed—"Jesus of Nazareth passeth by."

WOMEN FIND DESERT WIND TOO CURIOUS

RENO, May 21.—Two Kansas women, motoring to their home from California, will never forget the unkind curiosity of the desert winds which whirled a fumigation tent from over their heads and left them exposed to the scorching desert sun until the quarantine officer could capture the canvass and wrap them in its vagrant folds.

The women had been placed in a small tent, wrapped only in light blankets, at the Derald ranch station Sunday afternoon, while their clothing was being fumigated.
Suddenly a gusty wind tore the tent loose and flung it a hundred feet away while feminine shrieks startled the desert air. Quarantine Inspector J. M. Ryan captured the flying tent, folded it around the protesting women, and held it in place until assistants could build a stronger shelter.

HILLAH TEMPLE WILL HOLD SPRING CEREMONIAL

Officers, patrol and members of Hillah Temple, Ancient Arabic Order of the Nobles of Mystic Shrine, of Ashland, will depart for Eugene, where on Friday May 24, a spring ceremonial will be conducted. A splendid class is awaiting the ceremonial and will be conducted over new mountains of hot sands and through the deserts occupied by outlaw sheiks. The 30-piece band from Al Kader Temple, Portland, will attend the ceremonial and indications point to one of the most successful Shrine events of the year. The ceremonial will open with a business session at 1:30 p. m., and will be followed by an exhibition drill by the patrol and a concert by Al Kader Band. The first section of the ceremonial will be held at 2:30 and the third section at 3:30. The second section, the crossing of the hot sands, will take place at 8 o'clock.

Chief of Police Travels—
Chief of Police McNabb was called to Klamath Falls today on business.

Visitors in Jacksonville—
Judge Gowdy and Clint Baughman were called to Jacksonville this morning on business.

Classified ads bring results.

MAY VOLT DISCUSSES HIGHWAY SITUATION

(Continued from page 1.)

from this source, there has been constructed five hundred and seventy miles of bituminous pavement, one hundred and fifty-five miles of concrete pavement, seventeen hundred and ten miles of broken stone and gravel surfacing, and nineteen hundred and fifty-five miles of standard graded roadbed.

At the present time the following highways have reached a point when they may be considered as virtually completed, or contracts are under way which will bring them to that stage, the Pacific Highway, the Columbia River, Old Oregon Trail, West Side, Mount Hood Loop, McMinn-

The unusual class of people in southern Oregon from Grants Pass to Ashland make it possible to get attractions that visit no other town in the state except Portland. We have already had in our amusement season, two famous stars, Pavlova and Padgrewski. Galli Curci will be the last of this season's high class entertainments. The mail order sale already indicates the largest house ever assembled in Medford. Large numbers of tickets have already been ordered from Klamath Falls and the northern California towns and as far north as Roseburg.

Galli Curci's recent success in San Francisco and southern California has been phenomenal. The Sacramento papers report that there were at least two thousand people unable to get seats for her concert in that city.
The elevated seats recently installed in the Medford Armory, makes every seat in that large building a good one. The Paderewski concert proved that the acoustics are well nigh perfect.
Galli Curci will sing one concert May 31st and her program will include several popular songs, such as "Last Rose of Summer," "Home, Sweet Home," etc.

NOTICE
ASHLAND, Ore.
May 20, 1924.
Having been accused by the Chief of Police of trying to run the Police force of Ashland, I desire to state the accusation is false. I will place $10.00 at any place he may name, and the winner present all for some charitable purpose, that he can not prove the charge.
TOM ROBERTS.
222-1

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

Furniture Repair work of all kinds, Phone 252-J, H. L. Porter. 222-6

FOR SALE—First class alfalfa hay in field, inquire at Omega ranch, Pacific highway, Talent. 221-2*

FOR SALE—Weaned Berkshire pigs. Phone 11-F2. 222-3

FOR RENT—5 room unfurnished house with garage. Inquire 35 Granite St. 222-3*

FOUND—On lawn of convalescent home, pair of dark rim glasses, with expensive lens. Call 153. 221-1t

FOR SALE—New Home Sewing Machine, like new; cheap for cash. Cooking utensils, fruit jars, garden and other tools. Call Thursday or Friday, 468 C St., Phone 378-J. 222-2*

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnehouse are renting the new house, corner Granite and Strawberry Lane. You will find them very courteous to you when you look through the house with view to buying.

Everybody Happy? Yea, Boy!
—Chorus of EVERFAST users—

Anybody Downhearted?
Wish we could say "No, not one!" But some we have found who have tried out "something else just as good" to their grief and have said, "They told me it was Everfast."

But You Could Have Known
The name is on the selvage
Do not condemn Everfast unless you have tried Everfast. Then if dissatisfied
BRING IT BACK

They say it takes six weeks to process Everfast Cloths. They may cost a few cents more on this account but they are worth it.

Dollar Day SALE All This Week
Your Chance To Save

DOLLAR SALE

Come and See what a Dollar Will Buy
E. R. ISAAC & CO.
"The Quality Store"

MEN'S WORK SHOES
Wear Like Cord Tires, with the "Ball Band" Mishko Soles
Guaranteed to outwear two leather soles. Price $5.00

The Scout Shoe, all leather $1.95 Smoked Elk Scout Shoe ... $3.00
Elk Sout Shoe $2.75

We personally guarantee every pair to be sold and will replace any pair that does not give satisfactory wear.

The Enders Company
"Where Your Dollar Has More Cents"