RHEUMATISM Leaves You Forever

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours.

Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if a full pint bottle of Allenru, the sure conquerer of rheumatism, does not show the way to stop the agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenru has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitiable and where the patient was helpless.

Mr. James H. Allen, the discoverer of Allenru, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenru decisively conquers this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed druggists to guarantee it as above in every instance. TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed with Sulphur It Darkens So Naturally Nobody Can Tell.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive. Tuesday, May 27—Recital. Pupils of Miss Wallace. Presbyterian church parlors, 8 p. m.

Tuesday, May 27—Social Circle meets.

Recital Saturday—

It will be of interest to the friends of Miss Wallace and her pupils, to learn that a group of her pupils will give a recital, Saturday, May 24th, at three o'clock in the Presbyterian church parlors.

All friends interested are cordially invited to be present.

There will also be given on next Tuesday a recital by a group of the younger pupils in the Presbyterian parlors at 8 o'clock p. m.

Friends are invited to hear these children in their program.

Fiftieth Anniversary—

Tuesday, May 20, was one of the red letter days in the lives of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Watkins of 440 Beach street, the occasion being their fiftieth wedding anniversary and which was celebrated by a gathering at their home of about forty of their friends and near neighbors to offer them their congratulations on this golden day.

The rooms had been made very gay with flowers and red hearts and the bride of fifty years wore a lovely lace shawl, and a dainty lace drape ornamented with beads upon her hair, that she had worn fifty years ago.

A covered dish dinner had been planned by those arranging the delightful surprise, and the repast was a most elaborate one, served at about four-thirty, the delicious courses ending with cakes, ice cream and coffee.

The remaining hours were spent in the reminiscent visit of old and dear friends. Many lovely gifts and a shower of post cards will remind the happy couple of this day and their many friends who brought good wishes.

The neighbors, the Guild, relatives and friends were among those who offered congratulations. The names as they will be kept in Mr. and Mrs. Watkins' book of remembrance follow: Rev. P. K. Hammond, Mrs. Dorothy Hedberg, Miss Agnes Hedberg, Mrs. Emma Loosley, the Mesdames Clara M. Neil, A. M. Beaver, Pollard, Morrison, C. M. Miles, Wright, F. H. Walker, H. L. Moore, Nellie Randles, J. F. Miles, J. F. Jensen, W. F. Peppers, Mary C. Hale, May B. Herndon, Chas. Winne, Jennie Brookmiller, J. M. Wagner, Wm. Bartges, Sanford, McFayden, Miss Donovan, Mrs. Crow, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Gilmore, Mr. Irving Finley, Mr. W. W. Robison, Mrs. Floyd Putman; and from Medford, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Watkins, their son, Mr. Jean Watkins, Miss Ila Walker, Mr. Martin McDonough and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Noth.

A happy touch was given by the picture of the party being taken with the bride and groom and relatives in the center, and their friends grouped about them.

Teacup Club, Friday Evening—The Teacup Club will entertain their husbands Friday evening in the Methodist church parlors. Members are privileged to invite another guest, if the husband cannot attend.

A most delightful program has been prepared and all are anticipating a very enjoyable evening. It is expected that there will be a large number of members and their guests present.

Officers Elected—At the meeting of the College Women's Club recently, the following officers for the coming club year were elected: President Mrs. R. B. Hammond; Vice President, Mrs. Ralph Billings; Secretary, Mrs. Myron Root; Treasurer, Mrs. L. E. Mentzer.

The program was of especial interest, Mrs. M. E. Root giving a splendid resume of Oregon history, paying a glowing tribute to the pioneers. Mrs. Canode read the prize poem, "The Circuit Rider" and also "The Beautiful Willamette."

choir of the M. E. Church drove out to the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis in Valley View.

The choir met at the church and there the large truck of Mr. H. O. Anderson was awaiting them. Three extra cars also were filled with the joyous crowd to the number of thirty-five at least, who repaired to the Davis ranch for the practice contemplated and a merry evening which was also a part of the general plan.

Songs and stories brightened the way, and the astonishment of the host and hostess upon being taken by storm afforded a good bit of fun.

Mrs. Davis has been for two years a faithful organist at the church and the choir had taken as a slight expression of their appreciation and friendship a lovely jardiniere filled with beautiful red and white flowers. This had been disguised in wrappings to resemble a large pail, so when Rev. S. J. Chaney made the presentation, he commended the article as a very useful utensil on the farm, particularly for those who kept cows. His speech afforded much amusement and considerable mystification to the recipients, until the wrappings were removed.

They practiced, of course, but stunts, stories and songs enlivened the hours until the delicious refreshments of ice cream, cakes and coffee brought by the guests, were served the merry crowd.

Goodnights were spoken, reluctantly, all voting that this had been one of the very happiest evenings in their association.

Daughters of the Nile Meet—

The Daughters of the Nile held a Ceremonial in Medford Monday afternoon at two o'clock. Among the candidates were Mrs. Hal McNair, Mrs. W. W. Whittle, Mrs. Andrew McCallen, Mrs. Henry Enders, Jr., and Mrs. Louis Franco from Ashland.

At six o'clock a most elaborate five course banquet was served at the Hotel Medford for the ladies and their husbands who were invited guests. The decorations were very lovely and the service in keeping. There were a number of clever speeches during the progress of the banquet, Mr. Gates of Medford and Mr. Miller of Grants Pass were among those who responded in pleasing fashion. Covers were laid for one hundred and twenty-two guests.

After the delightful repast the guests repaired to the Fair grounds where those who wished tripped to rhythmic measure until a late hour.

Ladies in attendance from Ashland other than the candidates were the Mesdames George J. Kinz, Frank Dean, Louis Schwein, Ira Bateman, Chester Wolcott, L. Hilty, and Chas. Loomis.

Mrs. Marion Hager Entertains—Mrs. Marion Hager, 472 Scenic Drive, entertained her Sunday school class Saturday afternoon at a very delightful lawn party. Games were played from two until four when the happy youngsters were called to partake of lovely refreshments served by the hostess, who was assisted by her daughters, the Misses Mabel and Eunice Hager.

There were fifteen little girls from the primary department who enjoyed the hospitality of their teacher, Mrs. Hager; Susie Keltz, Naomi Costello, Nella Putman, Ada Hearst, Eugenia Derrick, Margaret Derrick, Clarice Crowson, Nell Alford, Alice Arant, Waiva Arant, Katherine Freeman, Elizabeth Bergan, Marilyn Matlock, Evelyn Derrick and Charlie Derrick.

The little folks went home perfectly delighted with their happy afternoon.

Social Postponed—The W. R. C. Social will not be held on Monday afternoon as usual. It has been postponed until later on account of Memorial Day.

Workers' Conference—There was a Workers' Conference called last night to meet at the Christian church to discuss matters of importance relative to the work of the church.

The district superintendents, superintendents of departments of the Sunday school, teachers and committee on the "Merger Service" were to report at the meeting.

"The Merger Service" committee was Mabel Hager, supt. of primary department; Dr. Maude Hawley, social secretary; Mr. Jas. Putman, superintendent of Sunday school; Mr. J. V. Wright, chairman of church board and Rev. V. K. Allison, pastor of the church.

New Book Stacks for Library—The library has outgrown its shelving and four new book stacks will relieve the congestion. There will be one, four shelves high, in the children's department; two, with four shelves, in the non-fiction department, and one in the office with seven shelves, which will give place for the overflow of books from the present shelving, and assist the librarians very materially in their work.

With the new stacks has come a complete housecleaning and renovation. The walls and ceiling have been retinted a lighter shade, making the rooms very bright and cheery and pictures and statuary have come in for their share of the general freshening.

The general upheaval has entailed a great deal of extra work upon the librarians, but they are rejoicing in the added convenience and freshness of the rooms.

Teachers Entertained—A delightful little affair occurred Tuesday evening in the Rest Room at Junior High when the teachers of the building were entertained there at the close of the day's work.

The dainty refreshments of sherbet and cakes and the merry hour together made a happy ending for the day and will linger long in the memories of those present.

The teachers who plan to be in the schools next year were hostesses on this occasion.

Entertain at Dinner—

The Misses Gertie Haan and Edna Goheen were hostesses at a charming little dinner Sunday in compliment to Mrs. Mary Dunn, whose birthday occurs Thursday, the 22nd of May.

Those who enjoyed the little Fiesta with the young hostesses, were Mrs. Mary Dunn, the honor guest, Mrs. Elizabeth Van Sant and Mrs. Blackwood of Phoenix.
