DRINK WATER TO HELP WASH OUT KIDNEY POISON

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You, Begin Taking Salts.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which helps to remove the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 25 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of good water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they are no longer a source of irritation thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; can not injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, which everyone should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this; also keep up the water drinking and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year. Daily Fashion Hint

AN INDIVIDUAL MODE

Tan voile, closely dotted in Lanvin green, fashions this individual frock which serves many purposes of informal wear. The blouse crosses at the side, and the skirt, with double tiers, is draped at the left side to fall in points below the hem. Plain tan voile is used for the vest, collar (which is lace edged), and sleeve extensions. Medium size requires 5 3/4 yards 40-inch figured and 1 yard 36-inch plain material.

NEWS LETTER

DUBLIN, May 22.—Dublin has gone dancing mad. Night after night the cafes and hotels are filled with joyous, happy throngs of dancers.

The terror which has held Irish pleasure seekers in check for a great many years has gone, and Young Dublin is making up for lost time by enjoying itself to its heart's content. No longer does the gunman and the minelayer disturb the enjoyment of the Dubliner.

The manager of one of the biggest hotels has announced that his hotel is booked solidly for the next six weeks for dancing parties. "Not even in pre-war days," he said, "was there anything like this. Young Irishmen, at least, are enjoying the new-found freedom of their country."

And as with dancing, so it is with every other sport. Football games are drawing bigger crowds than ever. Horse racing is especially enjoying the boom. Never in all Ireland's history, according to Senator Perkinson, the well-known Irish trainer, has there been such a fine crop of thoroughbred two-year-olds. From England, where the quality of young race horses has not improved buyers are flocking to Ireland and offering huge sums for the pick of the Irish stud farms.

This year promises to be the gayest in Ireland's history unless the trouble over the boundary between the Free State and Ulster reaches a disastrous stage. The revival of Ireland's pleasure seeking instincts has turned the minds of the people from politics. Even in Cork, which used to live on political gossip, one very rarely hears politics discussed.

Miss Mary MacSwiney sees in this change the degeneracy of the Irish race. She blames President Cosgrave for it. In speeches she has been making throughout the Free State she has repeatedly declared that all the people think about now is dancing and drinking.

As for the drinking part of her charges, dealers in liquor declare Miss MacSwiney is not accurately informed. They assert that their business was never so slack at any time during the last ten years as it has been in the six months just past.

Sport knows no politics. What ever else the Ulsterman may fight with his Southern brother about, when it comes to sport he is an Irishman, first last and all the time. Recently, in Dublin, when Belfast University beat the National University in the final for the Irish football cup, a Dublin crowd gave the victors a great ovation. To repay the compliment an Ulster committee, including many of the leading Unionists, has been formed to help the Nationalists of the South to make the Tailteann games a success.

Recently Colonel Ruttle, a representative of the British Olympic games committee, tried to convince the Ulstermen that Belfast athletes should compete with the British team at Paris.

"Nothing doing," the Ulster spokesmen told him. "We are Irishmen, and if Ireland is sending a team to Paris we are going with them."

And Ireland is sending a team and Ulstermen will be represented on it.
