Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Elhart were gracious host and hostess at a very attractive dinner party Friday evening at six o'clock.

The rooms and table were beautiful in roses and sweet peas. Salmon pink sweet peas graced the perfectly appointed table at which covers were laid for nine. The nut cups and place cards were in the same delicate shade. Guests did full justice to the delicious viands that were served in the several courses of the delightful repast.

The evening passed quickly in music and the pleasant visit of congenial friends.

Those who enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Elhart were: The Misses Geraldine Ruch, Mabel Black, Annette Weatherford, Phila Hall, Louise Hall, Leona Marsters and Mr. Walter Hughes.

Picnic for Miss Louise Pinnell—

The membership of the Nazarene church had a farewell party for their pastor, Miss Louise Pinnell, who left for her new field of activity Monday.

Miss Pinnell has been the pastor of this church for some time, and not only the membership of her church but all with whom she came in contact, regret her going exceedingly. Not alone as a friend, and in her pastoral work but her gift of song will be missed very much in Ashland.

On Thursday evening of last week the membership of the church and friends met in the park for a farewell social hour together. Well filled baskets were brought and around the bounteous board the time passed most pleasantly in the visit of friends and coworkers.

The good wishes of Miss Pinnell's friends are hers in her new field of endeavor.

Dinner in the Park—

Another delightful gathering in Lithia Park marked Thursday evening, due to the pleasant hospitality of Mrs. Harriet Fielding who entertained as guests her sister, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. B. R. Greer, Miss Eleanor Greer, Miss Elbert Greer and Miss Pearl Wardle.

After disposing of the delicacies provided for the occasion, the time passed swiftly in the happy visit of old friends.

Events at the Christian Church Social Circle—

The Social Circle will hold its meeting today at the Christian church at two-thirty o'clock, rather than Wednesday, on account of Commencement coming on Wednesday.

The hostesses are, the Mesdames J. V. Wright and Delpha Bryant.

Basket Dinner—There will be a Board meeting and a basket dinner for the membership, at the Christian church on Sunday next.

The hour for the Bible school has been changed to 9:45 a. m. to conform with a number of others in the city. The congregation are to bear in mind the changed hour and also the basket dinner next Sunday.

Board Meeting—

At a recent Board meeting of the Mount Ashland Chapter of the D. A. R., plans were made for the D. A. R. to take part in the Memorial services Friday morning. The Chapter members are to be at the Plaza at nine o'clock to march in the parade to the Ashland cemetery to take part in the commemorative services there.

Plans were also discussed relative to the observance of Flag Day and announcement will be made later when those plans are perfected.

It is requested that as many of the D. A. R. as can plan to do so, attend the patriotic exercises in the Armory that follow the program at the cemetery.

Picnic for Juniors—

Wednesday evening at five o'clock the Juniors of the Presbyterian church are to meet at the church from which they will march to the park, armed with well filled baskets and a determination to have a delightful time as well as a picnic supper.

This picnic is in honor of a number of Juniors who are going away for the summer, a farewell party; and all Juniors are to remember to be on time at five o'clock, that they may not miss the pleasant time together.

Neat Sum for P. T. A.—

The Parent Teacher Circle of the High School had a very successful food sale on Saturday last, which netted them the neat amount of $10.20, to add to their treasury.

A number of housewives added delicious dishes to their menu for Sunday dinner, and saved themselves hours of work in its preparation.

Alpha Club Social—

The Alpha Club is having a very delightful social this afternoon at Masonic Hall. A full account of which will be given in a later issue.

The hostesses for the occasion are the Mesdames Jordan, Henry Carter, Peterson, Louis Schwein, Bali, and Wm. Day.

School Swimming Party—

The last day of school at Bellview was signalized in quite a special way and one most pleasing to the children who attend school there.

A swimming party was arranged at Helman's for the day and Mr. Stites representing the P. T. A. of the Bellview school brought the young folks to the place designated. Both rooms attended, with Mrs. Kenneth McWilliams, the principal, in charge.

After the happy time spent in swimming or learning to swim all the attendants adjourned to Shortridge's Confectionery and indulged in ice cream to their heart's content. All voted it a wonderfully pleasant way in which to spend the last hours of the school year together.

Events of the Week—

The calendar of the events of the week at the Presbyterian church promises to be rather a full one.

On Monday evening, the Music Study Club met in the parlors for the last session of the year. Tuesday evening (tonight) a group of Miss Wallace's pupils will give a program.

On Monday evening also the Session held their regular meeting and at Presbytery, plans were made for the installation of the pastor which will occur in June.

The Aid society will meet on Wednesday, this week, on account of Chautauqua, instead of Friday, which is the regular day for meeting. All members bear the change of date in mind, and plan accordingly.

Wednesday evening also, the regular prayer service occurs at the usual time.

On Thursday evening the Quarterly Guild Banquet will be given in the Junior room.

This is to be a covered dish dinner and all members are to bring a covered dish.

The banquet is not to be confined to just the membership for friends are invited. Each member is to bring a friend.

These occasions are always delightful, and a full attendance of the membership is expected.

C. E. Social—

The Business meeting of the Presbyterian C. E. and the social that always follows occurred on Monday evening of last week with a good attendance.

After the business session, the committee in charge had planned a series of games that occupied the young people most happily, until the serving of delicious ice cream and cake brought the pleasant hours to a close.

Every one present report a very delightful time. These socials are a very pleasant part of the social side of the C. E. work.

Piano Recital—

The first of the piano recitals given by Miss Imogene Wallace this spring occurred Saturday afternoon in the Presbyterian church parlors, May 24, at three p. m. Miss Wallace was assisted by Mrs. Fred Neil, soprano.

Among the many things to be noted, in listening to the different performers, was first, the memorizing of the selections played in nearly every case. Rhythm, touch and expression had been stressed by the instructor, and the work of those on the program indicated that such had been the case.

The program was a very interesting one and is given in full. The first number a duet, Sailor's Song and Hornpipe, Koelling, played by Marjorie and Bernice Leer; A Rondo, Alla Turca, Burgmuller, and Waltz, Spindler, by Dorothy Stevens; An Alabama Lullaby, Dutton, by Virginia Whittle; Schubert "Dances" by Bernice Leer; Minuet, Mozart, and Mazurka Krentzlin played by Leona Ahlstrom.

Here, two delightful solos were sung by Mrs. Fred Neil, "Longing, Dear, for You," and "We'll to the Woods and Gather May," with Miss Wallace at the piano. In her pleasing sympathetic voice and were heartily applauded.

"A Sailor Boy's Dream," and Waltz, Op. 70 No. 1, by LeFache, and Chopin, respectively were played by Helen Detrick. "Huerter's "In the Starlight" followed by Miss Ethel Reid. March to Parnassus, Schytte played by Miss Sarah Williamson was the next number. Rosalind Wise gave two numbers: Tarantella Op. 39, McDowell, and Serenade, Herbert.

The closing number was a difficult duet, Calvini, played by the Misses Ethel Reid and Sarah Williamson.

Miss Wallace's second program is given by a group of younger pupils, Tuesday evening (tonight) at 8 o'clock.
