Calendar of Week—

Monday, June 2—Auxiliary to Legion. Social meeting.
Monday, June 2—Art Club. Civic Club house. Hostesses, Mesdames Storm, Stephens and Love.

Wednesday, June 4—Auxiliary to Trinity Guild. Parish House.
Wednesday, June 4—Maccabees meet.

Thursday, June 5—Trinity Guild Picnic in Park.
Saturday, June 7—W.R.C. I.O.
O.F. Hall.

Class Entertained—

The last meeting of the Americanization Class, that has been conducted by F. J. Swenning since last February occurred at his home last week, where the class was entertained before disbanding for the summer.

After the lesson was concluded, delicious ice cream and cake were served and the social hour was added as a happy finale to the class work.

Sixteen have been enrolled in this class, but the average has been perhaps a dozen who have continued the work.
Great interest has been taken by pupils and teacher and those who benefitted by the hours spent appreciate the efforts of Mr.
Swenning and those who have helped him very much.

Junior Picnic—

The Junior C. E. of the Presbyterian church had a very delightful time at their picnic on Wednesday evening of this week.
Well filled baskets provided the good things that go to make a successful lunch and happy hearts were the result.

Next Sunday is the last meeting of this live organization before vacation, and it is hoped that every Junior will be present at the meeting at four o'clock at the church.

No doubt many plans will be discussed relative to the vacation work and looking toward the first meeting in September.

Guild Picnic—

Trinity Guild had a very delightful picnic in Lithia Park on Thursday of this week.

It was planned for the noon hour that the afternoon would be free for the social hours anticipated with so much pleasure.

There was a large attendance of the members and their friends who had been invited to share the pleasure of the day with them.
Well filled baskets provided the good things that were evidenced at the festive board and to which everyone present did ample justice.

The afternoon was spent in the happy fashion that belongs with out door affairs; visiting and enjoying to the uttermost the beautiful surroundings that make a picnic in the Park so delightful.
The Guild and their friends enjoyed this social gathering so much that it is planned to have another on next Thursday at noon in the Park.

Birthday Dinner—

A most elaborate birthday dinner was given May 28, at the noon hour by Mrs. M. Brannon, on North Main street, in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Ernest Hicks, whose birthday occurred that day. The family were guests also at the delicious repast at which a lovely birthday cake was a special feature.

Mrs. Hicks' measure of joy was not full however, for upon going to her own home, she found herself the complimented guest at a surprise planned by her friends in honor of the occasion.

Beautiful flowers were brought and many gifts to testify to the love and friendship of friend and neighbor, and the most delicious refreshments were served by the self constituted hostesses.

Those who planned the happy affair were the Mesdames Carter, Brannon and Decker. The afternoon was spent in the delightful visit of old and near friends.

Reception for Miss Chamberlain

Wednesday was an ideal day for the reception given by the Civic Club for Miss Grace H.
Chamberlain, who was the guest of friends for a few days this week, on her return to California. from the State Federation meeting at Oregon City.

A large number of friends gathered at the reception held at the reception house and lingered longer, loath to say farewells.

There were delightful musical numbers during the afternoon.
Miss Imogene Wallace played in her sympathetic and finished fashion a group of pieces; Capric-cio, Scarlatti-Tausig, and Percy Granger's "Irish Tunes."

Later in the afternoon, Mrs. L.
N. Woodside charmed with her beautiful singing, of "Autumn," James Rogers, and "Where Happiness Grows," Barbour, graciously responding to encore by singing at special request the altogether delightful "Clock Song."

"The Clubs visited, and Club meetings in California that she attended, with her impressions of various speakers," was the theme of an informal talk by Miss Chamberlain.

In this talk, which was an illuminating one, the work accomplished and planned by the California Club women, and the emphasis placed upon the spiritual side (the speaking of God's part in the accomplishment of things) was mentioned particularly. Another thing, the stress laid upon being upon the affirmative side, and not thinking negatively, impressed the speaker strongly.

Upon being asked to speak of her impressions and experiences in Honolulu, Miss Chamberlain told of the beauty of trees and flowers, the places visited, people met, the natives, their characteristics, the climate, all related in her clever inimitable and charming way, to thoroughly appreciate the description of which one must have been present and heard first hand.

Mrs. Hammond then asked Mrs.
Pell and Mrs. Perozzi two of the delegates who were present to tell something of the Oregon City meeting.

Mrs. Pell told of the trip, and gave a description of the historic "McLaughlin Home" with a graphic bit of its history, adding reminiscent bits of interesting things that were very much enjoyed by the listeners.

Mrs. Perozzi told of the changes in the constitution that permitted the sending of delegates by the P.T.A. also told of the direct membership and gave data relative to dues. Excerpts from Mrs. Winter's address were given, that was especially applicable to the work of this club, and in closing the publicity feature was stressed. The Executive Board were hostesses at this attractive affair and were in the receiving line, Mesdames Emma Oeder, Maxey, McConnell and Winter poured.

Over the tea-cups, the guests visited and enjoyed the social hours with the guest of honor.

Rooms and tables were graced with beautiful flowers, the delicate fragrance of the wild lilac mingling with that of her more sophisticated sisters.

It is understood that when fall comes, Ashland will again claim Miss Chamberlain and Miss Palmer, of whose improved health the many Ashland friends are glad to learn.

D. A. R.—

The D.A.R. participated in the observance of Memorial Day, yesterday by marching with the other organizations to the cemetery for the ceremonies there, and attending the exercises at the Armory.
The Daughters will observe Flag Day fittingly; announcements of which will be made when plans are perfected.

Regular Meeting of Art Club—

The Art Club will hold its regular meeting at the Civic Club house on Monday evening.

It had been planned to have a picnic in Lithia Park but that will be postponed for the present and the session will be as usual Monday evening.

The hostesses for this evening were the Mesdames B. F. Storm, George Stephens and Wm. Love.

It is expected that every member will make a special effort to be there, since it is the last meeting at which Mrs. Kinz, the president, will be present, as she leave-soon for her new home in California.

Happy Reunion—

A happy reunion was celebrated Thursday by a picnic luncheon in Lithia Park, occasioned by the return from their trip to British Columbia, of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard A. Svenson and Miss Emma Earle of Oakland and Mrs.
Frank Howard Payne of Berkeley.

Those participating were Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Svenson, Mrs. F.
H. Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Larkin Grubb, Mrs. Jack Beagle, Mr. and Mrs. Aylesworth and daughter, Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. S. W.
Clute, and Emma Earle.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Svenson of Oakland and Mrs. Frank Howard Payne of Berkeley, Cal., will start south Saturday morning.

Miss Emma Earle will spend her vacation with her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Clute, and return to Oakland in August to resume her studies at the University of California, this being her senior year.

First Picnic of the Season—

The Business Girls' Club had their first picnic of the season last night in Lithia Park.

Well filled hampers accompanied the merry party and the contents proved an attractive and satisfying feature of the landscape.

This is the first of a series of outings that the club have planned for the summer. Some of the affairs will probably assume more elaborate proportions than the picnic dinner in the park but at none could they have a jollier time.

Birthday Party—

The Alpha Club enjoyed a most delightful afternoon Tuesday at their "Birthday Party," which in this instance signified that the hostesses had birthdays occurring about this time.

The time passed very pleasantly, in the usual way: fancy work and visiting, and at the close of the social hours the hostesses served delightful refreshments.

It was a matter of regret that owing to illness one of them could not be present.

Those who entertained at this time were the Mesdames Jordan, Carter, Peterson, Schwein, Ballis and Day.

Married—

The marriage of Miss Millicent Fieffer and Mr. Allan Porter occurred recently at McCloud, where the bride has been teaching successfully for the past two years.

The bride is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Swenning of Church street, and has many friends in Ashland who wish her every happiness. Mr. and Mrs. Porter spent the week-end at the Swenning home, driving up in their car.

Mr. Porter is an operator in the Southern Pacific office at McCloud, and the young people will make their home at that place.
Congratulations and good wishes are theirs for a happy and a prosperous future.

Winner Roast—

On Tuesday evening last, a merry group of people gathered at the Methodist church and disposed themselves to the best advantage for comfort, in the large trunk belonging to Mr. H. O. Anderson, and with song and story enlivened the way to a convenient spot for a bonfire and "Wiener Roast" east of town, on the Highway.

There were perhaps twenty-five in the jolly group. What fun obtained in building the cheery fire and roasting the substantial part of the feast, and the merriment that prevailed while "appetites" sharpened by mountain air were satisfied!

After supper, time passed rapidly in ghostly stories related and amusing experiences told.
Many a glance was cast backward in the gloom while hair raising tales thrilled the listeners.

Those who enjoyed the outing were Mrs. Van Pouson, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Anguin, Mr. and Mrs. Thurlow, Miss Wattenberger, Miss Jean Anderson, Mrs. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Weren, Mr. S. J.
Chaney, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kruggel, Mr. A. C. Crews, Mr. G. H.
Yeo, Miss Ruth Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis, Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. E. O. Smith.

During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Kruggel were presented with a lovely reminder of the friendship of the choir.
