Social Circle—

The Social Circle will meet on Wednesday of this week at the home of Mrs. Edwin Dunn, east of town.

All the membership is to bear this meeting in mind and make every effort to attend. A full account will be given in a later issue.

Children's Programs—

So far as learned all the programs given yesterday in the different churches were very successful.

At the Congregational church in the absence of the pastor, the morning was devoted to these exercises, which had been planned very elaborately and were carried out successfully. The church was very beautifully decorated and made a fit setting for the pretty program.

At the Presbyterian church, the hour for Sunday school was set forward to 10:15 and the Children's Day Program began at that time and closed with a short appropriate address to the children by the pastor.

During the program a graduating class from the "Cradle Roll" into the "Primary" department, in cap and gowns, received their diplomas, all having reached the mature age of three.

Other diplomas were awarded those who passed from the Primary into the Junior and from the Junior into the Intermediate.

Songs and pretty exercises varied the program. The church was most beautifully decorated in pink and white and seemed a most delightful setting for the children, looking like flowers themselves in their white, and dainty colors.

Sunday evening's service closed the regular Sunday evening services here, the church uniting for the summer months in the union services held at the different churches, the pastors taking turns in giving the address of the evening.

Next Sunday night the union meeting is at the Methodist church.

Speedway Club—

The Speedway Club had a most interesting meeting lately. It was held at the pleasant home of Mrs. Ralph Clapp on Ashland street.

This is a club more recently organized, and is the social club of the Royal Neighbors. It has some very enjoyable meetings and this was no exception.

There was a good attendance when one considers the number of social affairs transpiring lately. The evening passed very quickly in the happy visit of congenial people and at its close the most delicious refreshment were served by an attentive hostess.

Those who enjoyed the delightful evening with host and hostess were Mrs. A. A. Madden and Miss Afton Madden; Mrs. Dougherty; Mrs. Hood; Mr. and Mrs. Hodgkinson and Miss Pearl Hodgkinson; Mrs. Beck; Mrs. Sherard; Mrs. Millie Randles and Mrs. Nellie Randles; Margaret McNabb; Mrs. Peabody and Harold Peabody.

The next regular meeting is June the eighteenth with Mrs. Turner as hostess.

Pioneer Club—

There has been recently organized a club of boys ranging in ages from 12 to 17, called the "Pioneer Club" that meets every Friday evening at the Christian church in charge of Rev. V. K. Allison.

This belongs to the Y. M. C. A. work and is a very vital phase of it. There are fifteen boys already members of the new organization.

The badges of bronze, silver and gold are to be purchased by the Sunday school.

It is a club that we expect to hear from very often in the future.

Basket Dinner—

On Sunday after the regular services were over, a number of cars filled with members of the congregation of the Christian church took well filled baskets and drove to Anderson Creek schoolhouse where they enjoyed a splendid dinner.

In the afternoon the pastor, Rev. V. K. Allison, held services at the schoolhouse, with a goodly number in attendance from the neighborhood.

Fa mily Gathering—

One of the pleasant family gatherings held yesterday in the park, represented relatives from Medford, Hilt and Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Leverette and children and Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Stewart and child of Medford; Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Norton of Hilt, formerly of Ashland; and Mr. and Mrs. Halfhill of Ashland, parents of Mrs. Leverette and Mrs. Stewart composed the group that enjoyed a reunion in the beautiful Lilia Park after church services. Mr. Norton is a brother of Mrs. Halfhill.

The picnic dinner was a feature that proved very satisfactory to the participants assembled, embracing as it did all the delicious viands that may be obtained, or prepared in this favored region.

At a late hour the different members wended their separate ways feeling it was good that they had been here and that Ashland's park provided a wonderful setting for reunions.

C. E. Party—

The Christian Endeavor society of the Christian church had a most delightful party last Tuesday.

It was a combination wiener roast and swimming party and was held at Jackson's Hot Springs.

The young people were accompanied by the pastor and his wife Rev. and Mrs. V. K. Allison. Both the swimming feature and the part the wiener roast played were eminently satisfactory and thoroughly enjoyed by the merry crowd of young people.

Miss Mabel Hager is the efficient young president of this recently organized but very wide awake society.

Presbyterian Notes—

In accord with all the other churches of Ashland, the regular prayer service will be held Tuesday evening at 7:30. The study found in the third chapter of John's Gospel.

Wednesday Club—

The Wednesday Club, the social organization of the Presbyterian church will have a business meeting at the church, Wednesday.

Every member of the Wednesday Club is urged to be present and be prepared with suggestions relative to the business in hand, which is to make plans for the annual picnic to occur in June.

The announcement was made Sunday but this notification is also given that all members may plan to be there at the meeting and help by their presence and advice with the matter in hand.

W. C. T. U. Meets—

The W. C. T. U. meets this afternoon at the library to perfect plans they have for the big meeting Wednesday night when the talented speaker Mr. Johnson will appear for the first time before an Ashland audience.

They wish every member to be present. The decoration of the Chautauqua building is to be a part of the work in hand, and they wish flowers in abundance for that. Not alone from the membership, but from all friends, that the platform may be a boner of beauty such as Ashland flowers make possible.

All members are to bear in mind the bringing of flowers even if impossible to be present at the meeting. Call up the president or secretary and let them know they may depend on you for flowers.

Shower for Miss Sabin—

The teachers of Talent schools gave a shower last Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. E. E. Evans in honor of Miss Marion Sabin, who has taught Home Economics the past year.

She was presented with a very beautiful "salad service" for six

—she also received a great deal of advice, which was accepted in the spirit in which it was given.

Miss Sabin left Wednesday evening for her home in Grants Pass.

RECITAL

"The twelfth Annual Recital by the pupils of Elizabeth Will Goodman was given at the Congregational church last Friday evening.

The church was beautifully decorated in honeysuckle and roses. It was filled with parents, relatives and friends who showed the pupils with beautiful bouquets. The entire program was played from memory and the numbers were quite varied, ranging from the light, pleasing ones to opera by Donizetti, Verdi and Weber.

The numbers by Eva Landing and Virginia Crandall, the youngest members of the class were bright and pretty. Krogman duet by Iris and Clara Atterbury was delightful in arpeggio effect and played perfectly.

The numbers by Thelma Good, Maxine Miller and Thelma Cole were true to the Bird's Morning Song, The Whippoorwill and The Cricket and the Bumble Bee.

The March by Eva and Vera Landing showed spirit and
