ALASKA MERCHANT IS HELD FOR MURDER

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, June 10.—J. L. White, merchant of Olnes, Alaska, was in the federal jail here tonight charged with first degree murder in connection with the fatal shooting Friday of Robert Morris, local section boss of the Alaska railroad, while killing grazing horses at Olnes.

Witness declared that White was shooting the horses when Morris appeared and remonstrated as his Shetland pony was among the horses shot. White turned the gun and fired at Morris killing him instantly, declared witnesses. Morris was buried today. A widow and three small boys survive him.

Real Tire Economy

Here is a tire of extraordinary long mileage, with a tread tough enough to withstand crushed rock and mountain roads, with a traction that defies skidding and with a strength that permits carrying reasonably low inflation to make riding easier and "conserve the car."

It is the big oversize C-T-C hand-built low inflation cords which our customers are buying at NO GREATER COST than asked for ordinary cord tires.

There is also a C-T-C hand-built Balloon tire for extreme low inflation, which fits any standard wheel and rim.

C-T-C Tubes add mileage to almost any casing.

CURE FOR DRUG EVIL LIES IN LIMITATION OF PRODUCTION

CLOSE cooperation of social and official forces marks the latest offensive in the campaign against the narcotic drug evil. Years of unceasing warfare have not sufficed to even check it in the United States. Leaders in the movement are now united in an effort to bring about limitation of poppy growing and opium production. These things may be done only by other nations, particularly Great Britain, Persia and Turkey. So, one angle of the new attack is to arouse public interest here to the knowledge that only in this limitation can real progress be made; without this limitation the drug evil cannot be abolished.

According to figures gathered for the Secretary of the Treasury by a special committee appointed to study the narcotic drug problem, the 2,000,000 drug addicts in this country consume more opium, heroin, morphine and cocaine than all the nations of Europe combined.

Recorded importations of opium for legitimate medical and scientific use were a little more than 100,000 pounds a year shortly after the Civil War. They have now increased to more than seven-fold. Ninety per cent of these importations are said to reach addicts indirectly. The chart does not cover the operation of smugglers. It is authoritatively stated that the opium smuggled into American seaports and across the Mexican and Canadian borders have

PICTURE FILMED UNDER SEVERE DIFFICULTIES

Desert heat, thunder storms and roadless canyons confronted 200 members of a Paramount motion picture company as they left Flagstaff, Arizona, for Lee's Ferry, Southern Utah.

The caravan faced hardships of the pioneers they imitate to secure authentic locations and local color for Zane Grey's "The Heritage of the Desert," which will be the feature at the Vining theatre tomorrow and Thursday.

Canyon roads obliterated by recent thunder storms were repaired as the party advanced. Motion picture players, road engineers, packers and a tribe of Navajo Indians were included in the train, the trip to location taking a week.

Lee's Ferry is at the head waters of the Colorado, an inspiring, desert location described by Zane in his well-known novel. The story deals with the primitive warfare between God-fearing pioneers and the bad men of the desert for the possession of water rights. Today this same fight has been changed to a legal conflict affecting national life.

"The Heritage of the Desert" is the third Zane Grey story to be pictured by Paramount. Irvin Willat was the director while featured in the cast are Bebe Daniels, Ernest Torrence, Noah Berry and Lloyd Hughes. Albert Shelby Le Veno made the adaptation.

NERVOUS WOMEN SHOULD HEED MRS. RAMP'S ADVICE

"There's No Reason For Women To Suffer," Says Muskogee, Okla., Lady.

"It has been six years since I have taken Tanlac, but I shall never forget how it helped me," said Mrs. Lillian Ramp, of 507 Callahan St., Muskogee, Okla., recently.

"My experience with the medicine certainly showed me how beneficial it can be to young women who have nervous spells and whose systems are out of order for various reasons. At times every month, I would become extremely nervous, suffer terribly from headaches and be in such agony that I could hardly endure it."

"The results Tanlac gave me were simply splendid. It relieved those awful headaches, quieted my nerves and regulated my system perfectly so that when I finished my last bottle of the medicine, I was feeling fine and had a world of strength and energy. I never need Tanlac now for I am enjoying good health but I gladly recommend it to women who suffer as I did."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 Million bottles sold

Tanlac Vegetable Pills, for constipation, made and recommended by the manufacturers of TANLAC.

Being 150 miles from civilization, the party was forced to live primitively. Camp was moved nearly every night and the caravan had all the characteristics of an original 'covered wagon' expedition. Part of the journey was along a 62-inch road built on the sheer face of a narrow canyon. A motion picture actor's life is not all it's cracked up to be.
