Former Secretary Here on Business—

H. O. Frobach, representative of the Jackson County Fair Association, was in Ashland yesterday afternoon on business. Frobach displayed plans for a proposed merchants exhibit building to be built at the fairgrounds, which will be financed by each merchant wishing exhibition space, paying a sum four years in advance. The new building will replace the tent which was formerly used and proved decidedly unpopular and unsatisfactory. Frobach declares that the production of "Robin Hood" which is underway under direction of Andrews Bros., will be bigger and better than anything previously undertaken and will be produced three nights instead of two, as is customary with such extravaganzas.

Gresham starch factory is attracting considerable attention.

HELP KIDNEYS BY DRINKING MORE WATER

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys and Help Neutralize Irritating Acids

Kidney and bladder irritations often result from acidity, says a noted authority. The kidneys help filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it may remain to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obligating you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread; the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is often one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Begin drinking lots of soft water, also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast. Continue this for two or three days. This will help neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer are a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs, which then act normal again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by acid irritation. Jad Salts causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which may quickly relieve your bladder irritation. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

TRUSTEES OPPOSED TO DR. DONEY'S QUITTING

SALEM, Or., June 11.—Every effort will be made by the trustees of Willamette university to retain Dr. Carl Gregg Doney as president of the institution. This was announced here today by members of the board, after careful consideration of Dr. Doney's resignation, which was presented to the trustees of the institution yesterday.

Three plans are now considered by the members of the board. One of these would grant to Dr. Doney a year's leave of absence, while another would provide for an assistant to look after many of the details now included in the work of the president of the institution. The third proposal is that the resignation be accepted as requested by Dr. Doney.

Informal Afternoon

One of the most attractive parties given for some time was the "Informal Afternoon," with Mrs. H. S. Sanford, hostess to a number of old friends honoring her house guests, Mrs. C. T. Sanford and Mrs. W. B. Burnett, who have spent some months here, and who have been the motif for many lovely affairs during the winter. They return to New York the coming Monday.

The afternoon was spent in a delightfully informal fashion, just the visit of old friends with dainty needle work occupying busy fingers. The guest list included perhaps twenty of the more intimate friends.

Dainty and delicious refreshments were served at the close of the pleasant afternoon, by the hostess.

A Delightful Surprise

One of the delightful affairs of the week occurred on Wednesday evening when the Royal Neighbor lodge planned and carried out very successfully a complete surprise party, the guest of honor being Miss Pearl Hodgkinson.

The surprise assumed the form of a "Miscellaneous Shower" as a pleasant surprise to Miss Hodgkinson's approaching marriage. Assuming that the one to be surprised would be home the guests came quietly, and serenaded her but she was away from home and was sent for in haste. When she arrived her astonishment was complete. The rooms were filled with friends, the table loaded with dainty packages, whose contents did not long remain a mystery as the visitors insisted on Miss Hodgkinson opening them immediately.

Many and beautiful were the gifts, from dainty linen to useful articles that the young housekeeper will appreciate very much in her own pretty kitchen. A beautiful sandwich tray, with suitable engraving, was the gift of the lodge as a whole.

Much merriment accompanied the opening of the various packages, and quite a ceremony was made of it.

The evening was spent in music and in the jolly visit of friends. Miss Hodgkinson, Miss Afton Madden and Mrs. Madden playing a number of beautiful selections and ensemble singing was a part also of the evening's entertainment.

Most delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Hodgkinson, assisted by Miss Pearl Hodgkinson. Those who enjoyed with the hostess and the young bride-to-be the happy evening were Mrs. A. A. Madden, Miss Afton Madden, Mrs. McNabb, Miss Margaret McNabb, the Mesdames Sherard, Reed, Dougherty, Clapp, Ralph Clapp, Hood, Nellie Randles, Fern Randles, Turner, Heer, Beck, Young, Miss Irma Beck and Raymond Dougherty.

Married—
A wedding of interest to a great many occurs this morning: that of Miss Mollie Clary and Mr. Burton Winne, the particulars of which will be given in Tuesday's columns.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tavenor Entertain—
Mr. and Mrs. William Tavenor of the Buena Vista Orchards were host and hostess, in their pleasant suburban home recently, at a most delightful dinner party, given in honor of Mrs. H. G. Gilmore's birthday.

Turkey was the piece de resistance of this delicious dinner and it was accompanied by all the delicacies that belong with that royal bird. To this sumptuous repast the guests did full justice and voted their hosts royal entertainers.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Gilmore (Mrs. Gilmore the honor guest), Mr. Irving Finley, Mr. Tom Hudson, Miss Amy Ramsey, Mrs. Sorrell and small daughter, Dr. Mattie B. Shaw, and the host and hostess.

Good wishes and many happy returns were given the compliments guest and the afternoon passed in the delightful visit of old friends.

Wednesday Club Meets—
The Wednesday Club held its regular meeting Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors, with a good attendance. Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Mergler were guests at this meeting.

Many things of a business nature were discussed and many suggestions made relative to the club work, that will doubtless be taken up this fall when work reopens. It was voted to buy new curtains and rods for the dining room.

One of the important things planned for, was the annual picnic of the Club. This will include the whole church, instead of just the Wednesday Club and Mr. and Mrs. Mergler suggested that it be held on the lawn at the Mansie. This will be a pleasant arrangement in case of rain. Every one is to bring a well filled basket and a cup, plate and saucer. The silver and the coffee will be furnished.

The picnic will be on June 20th, at six o'clock. Bear the date in mind and be present if possible.

The Wednesday Club will hold no more meetings until fall, when announcement will be made as to the date.

A Pleasant Out-of-Door Dinner

On Tuesday of this week, between forty and fifty drove out to Kingsbury Springs, and encamped on the Barron place beyond, a short distance from the highway.

Here the picnic dinner was spread, everything that goes to make up a perfect picnic dinner was there, and to which the guests brought appetites stimulated by the fresh mountain breezes and pleasant companionship.

After the fine dinner the company held a song service "On the Mountain Top," they called it although well up the mountain, there were a few miles to go before the top would have been reached, but perhaps the title signified the degree of enjoyment of the participants.

At any rate the hours passed quickly and happily, until it was time to return for the Bible study at 3:00 P. M.

A feature of the song service was the children's chorus that gave much pleasure.

Birthday Party

One of the prettiest parties given lately was that for Claudine Hake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hake of Bush street. It was in honor of her fourth year and a number of little friends had been invited to help her celebrate.

The luncheon was served at two thirty and cakes and ice cream found most appreciative consumers, the little ones enjoying the delicious refreshments to the fullest extent.

The rooms and table were lovely in a blue and white decorative scheme, with flowers everywhere.

The little birthday lady received many pretty gifts from her little friends, and she enjoyed opening the packages very much.

They had the loveliest time with Mrs. Short and Mrs. Broili assisting the hostess in entertaining the little guests.

Those who enjoyed the afternoon were Dickey Putney, Margaret Short, Charlotte Short, Freda Underwood, Howard Hake, Leslie and Margaret Broili, and Bobby Broili.

Dinner Party—
Friday Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cooper were host and hostess at a family gathering and dinner party.

The guests invited were Mr. Asa Smith and daughter, Floda, of Forest Grove, who are visiting relatives here and Mrs. Sarah Boots, Mr. G. W. Benedict, and Miss Mary Benedict.

After the delicious dinner, which was a triumph of culinary art, the guests spent the afternoon in a delightful visit, reviewing old times and enjoying the pleasant companionship of old and dear friends.

Social Circle Meets—
The Social Circle met as planned at the pleasant home of Mrs. Edwin Dunn, east of Ashland, Wednesday afternoon, at the usual hour.

Much of business came up to be taken care of at this meeting. Mrs. O. W. Long's resignation as president, occasioned the naming of a nominating committee. Mrs. J. V. Wright, Mrs. Will Moore, and Mrs. Wm. Rice, to report at the next meeting.

Through some misunderstanding the list of officers named for the coming year were not entirely correct so they are given again at this time. Mrs. Floyd Putman, president; Mrs. W. A. Cooper, vice-president; Mrs. Frank Shaffer, secretary; Mrs. Delpha Bryant, treasurer.

Sewing, conversation, and a "shower" occupied the time of those present, most happily.

Cars had been provided to take the guests out and among those who were there were the Mesdames Fred Pennington, V. K. Allison, Frank Shaffer, Bertha McKinney, Bonnis Moss, Will Moore, Delpha Bryant, F. D. Swingle, Frank Crowson, J. B. Cochran, Ernest Hicks, Brannan, James Putman, Hazel Webber, Dan Hatcher, Wm. Rice, J. V. Wright, and Mrs. Hendricks.

Mrs. Bertha McKinney assisted the hostess, Mrs. Edwin Dunn, in serving the most delicious refreshments at the close of the delightful afternoon.

A Family Reunion—
Mrs. Henrietta Hosley of B street was hostess at a delightful reunion of children and grand children on Thursday of this week.

A most elaborate dinner was served at the noon hour with covers laid for Mr. and Mrs. I. Hosley of Ashland and son of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hosley and children of Tillamook. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hosley, who with the hostess made up the group of relatives that enjoyed the delightful dinner and visit that followed.

Pictures were taken in the afternoon to commemorate the happy visit. These reunions are bright spots along the highway that linger long in memory.

Elk Ladies' Card Club Meets—
The Elk Ladies' Card Club met in their pleasant club room on Thursday afternoon of this week.

There was a good attendance, there being six tables of Bridge played. Eight or nine guests were present from Medford, one of whom carried off high score at Bridge, the fortunate lady being Mrs. Frohbach.

The hostesses, Mrs. Kramer and Mrs. Hugh Gillette, served ice cream with strawberries and angel food cake at the close of the afternoon's entertainment.

There will be but one more meeting before adjournment until fall, when activities will be resumed.

Mrs. Goodman Entertains—
Mrs. R. C. Goodman entertained her music class at her home last Tuesday.

What was to have been a lawn party, was turned into a house party and all had a delightful time.

Ruby Derrick won first prize and Nadine Swenning second prize with Virginia Crandall and Velma Irene Brower receiving the consolation prizes in a musical game.

Thelma Cole won the first prize in a peanut hunt and then each person found a surprise with his or her name on it.

The afternoon passed all too quickly. Refreshments of home-made ice cream and cake were served.

Neighborhood Party—
Mrs. Blaumenhauer, of Pioneer ave., was hostess at a delightful neighborhood party at her pleasant home, Wednesday evening.

Music and visiting occupied the time until a late hour, when most delicious refreshments were served.

Those who enjoyed, with Mr. and Mrs. Blaumenhauer and little daughter the pleasure of the evening were: the Mesdames Mosier, Gray, Anna Williams, Dr. Mattie B. Shaw, the Misses Ruth Osmun, Emma Jenkins, George Coffee, Mrs. Ethel Chappell and daughter, Dorothy.

Rebekah Notes—
At the meeting of the Rebekahs Tuesday night a number of important things were discussed chief among which was what part the organization would play in the coming Fourth of July celebration. A committee was appointed to take charge of the affair and arrange for the entry. It was also decided to try to interest the other lodges in the valley in the matter.

Last week the P. N. G. Club was entertained most delightfully by Miss Songer, with Mrs. Anna Meyer assisting.

A feature of the very pleasant affair was an informal address on the work by the guest of honor, Mrs. Jeanie Burke.

At the close of the happy afternoon, the hostesses served most delicious refreshments to the club membership.

The Society Columns Say--
Society tongues are finding in the Kayne affairs choice morsels of gossip. With Rufus Kayne romping about with a Follies girl, and his beautiful daughters cutting all sorts of unconventional capers one wonders what old Peter B. thinks of it all. The fortune he amassed is rapidly wrecking the family ship on the shoals of scandal. Also Pathe News, and "OH GIRLS," a comedy
