CHEERFUL WORDS

For Many an Ashland Household To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed—to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders, is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. The following advice of one who has suffered will prove helpful to hundreds of Ashland readers.

Mrs. Jennie Hammond, 649 E. Main St., Ashland, says: "My kidneys troubled me for some time and I had such severe backaches it was hard for me to keep going. I was hardly ever free from dizziness and headaches and the action of my kidneys was irregular. Doan's Pills helped me more than any other remedy I ever tried and it was not long before I was free from the backaches and other signs of kidney complaint."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mrs. Hammond had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. No. 41

SOCIETY

Mills assisting later in the evening.

Albie Beck was chairman of the committee on arrangements and the music was furnished by the High Six.

There were perhaps seventy-five in attendance at this very successful affair, at which the guests report a thoroughly enjoyable evening.

A Delightful Surprise—

One of the happiest of surprises occurred on Friday the twenty seventh, when Miss Marjorie Gillette was made the impromptu hostess at a surprise birthday luncheon in commemoration of her natal day.

The luncheon, with its beautiful decorations in Dorothy Perkins roses and tiny white blossoms, its hand painted place cards at each of the fourteen covers, the rose hued nut baskets, was planned in Miss Marjorie's absence so that when she was conducted to the dining room she found luncheon and guests to the number of fourteen awaiting her, to offer congratulations and share with her the joy attendant.

At the close, while hostess was still seated at the head of the table, dainty packages were brought and half the fun was in watching the recipient open and view the contents. The out of town guests attending this very attractive affair were Mrs. J. W. Merritt, Gold Hill, Mrs. Brydon Sanderson, Central Point, Mrs. Akard, Los Angeles, Mrs. R. T. Vining, Oakland and Miss Ruth Sweeney of Roseburg. Those from Ashland, the Mesdames Frank Dean, C. W. Nims, K. P. Nims, Torbet Sanford, G. F. McConnell, and H. H. Gillette, the Misses Louise and Marjorie Gillette and Betty Dean.

THE PUBLIC IS ENTITLED TO KNOW THE FACTS

It is not our purpose to bore you with a long drawn out endless reason for this unusual event. But it is our belief that the public is entitled to know the facts pertaining to our past predicament. The people undoubtedly are unaware of the fact that this store has been in the hands of a Public Administrator, who only after a persistent task involving a considerable length of time has finished settling the estate of the former owners of this firm. And only after a recent consultation with the Administrator, the newly organized firm of Reddy & Co., have decided to resort to some devilish deeds in breaking all mercantile laws and traditions by inaugurating a money raising sale that will go on record as being the greatest, grandest, and most stupendous jewelry event ever attempted in Southern Oregon. Come with the idea of expecting to secure positively the greatest values ever offered you at any time—anywhere and you will not be disappointed.
