The fact that within the brief period of a week or ten days, Ashland people subscribed stock to the amount PUBLIC UTILITES of $140,000 to finance the hotel, is commendable and speaks well for the progressive spirit of the citizens of MAKE EXCELLENT Ashland, but the sponsors are now at a point where they or the city can no longer shine in reflected glory. Reserve community spirit must be marshaled in this last mighty effort to push the stock subscriptions up to $185,-000, the amount that must necessarily be pledged if delay is to be avoided. The community spirit developed in Ashland within recent months is all but marvelous. There is good authority for this statement, but the time has arrived where there must be a reserve of that community good. In no case has there been spirit of such proportions as to make the proposed mag- any recession during the past nificent hotel a reality. If the entire amount of stock required is not pledged ume of production or in the numthere is only one alternative for the sponsors, that of bond-ing which means dolar additional ing ,which means delay, additional expense of from $7,000 to $8,000, and obligating the stock to guarantee bond interest payments. Therefore, it seems all but imperative that the red-blooded men and women of Ashland respond to the final drive and subscribe to the limit of their ability to pay. No proposition of recent years holds so much of merit. No project can add greater impetus to the future growth and development of the town. er Co., Baker.
