An Afternoon for Guest—Mrs. W. H. Day was hostess at a very delightful afternoon Friday, honoring Mrs. Tunis Creech of Salem, who with Mr. Creech, son John and daughter Julia, have been the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Day for the past week, leaving for their home in Salem Monday.

The guests who enjoyed this pleasant hospitality were the Mesdames A. H. Davenport, Fred Engle, Blake and the Misses Minnie Poley, Gertrude Engle, Frances McWilliams, Florence Allen and the honored guest, Mrs. Creech.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the happy afternoon.

Saturday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Day, Mr. and Mrs. Creech, John and Julia, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCoy, Margaret and Frances McCoy, enjoyed a delightful picnic and swimming party at Helman baths, honoring the same guests. There were a number of other pleasant outings during their stay.

Briscoe-Vogeli—The marriage of George A. Briscoe and Miss Callie Vogeli was solemnized Saturday, July the twenty sixth, at eleven-thirty A. M. at the Presbyterian Manse, the Rev. J. C. Mergler, pastor officiating. The impressive ring ceremony was used.

Mr. and Mrs. Briscoe will be at home to their friends in their recently completed bungalow in east Ashland.

Miss Vogeli is very well known in Ashland, having graduated here, later acting as H. S. secretary, and for several years has been a popular member of the faculty of A. H. S.

She has also been a member of the faculty of the Southern Oregon Normal for a number of years.

A young woman of pleasing personality, Miss Vogeli has made many friends in Ashland who are interested in her happiness. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vogeli of Talent.

Mr. Briscoe has been the efficient superintendent of the Ashland public schools for the past thirteen years, coming here from the east in 1911.

He has been prominent in both county and state school affairs, acting as president of the State Teachers association, is a member of the state Text Book Commission and has been the Director of the Southern Oregon Summer Normal since its establishment in Ashland.

Mr. Briscoe has taken an active interest in every forward looking movement of the community and at present is the president of Ashland's Chamber of Commerce.

To these well known and deservedly popular people a host of friends, not only in Ashland, but far beyond its environs offer to them sincere good wishes for a life of happiness and prosperity.

Weisenberger-Kitto—Miss Elsie Kitto and Lester Weisenberger were united in marriage at two o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Methodist Parsonage, the Rev. S. J. Chaney officiating clergyman, using the impressive ring ceremony.

The bride looked charming in her dainty white satin gown. There were no attendants. Only the immediate relatives were present; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kitto, parents of the bride, Mrs. Thatcher, her grandmother, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Kruggel, and Mr. C. C. Weisenberger, father of the groom.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Kruggel were host and hostess at a very attractive three course wedding dinner with covers laid for the bridal party of eight.

Blue and white were the colors shown in the flowers used in the rooms and in table decoration.

At the table, the beautiful wedding cake was the center piece, under an arch of ferns and blue and white sweet peas, with a tiny bride and groom facing the bridal couple. Sweet peas were arranged in artistic fashion about the table.

Mr. and Mrs. Weisenberger left for their home in Dunsuir that evening, where Mr. Weisenberger has a good position with the Southern Pacific company.

was given at the home of V. V. Hawley on Walker Ave., by Dr. Maude Hawley, the Superintendent of Social Activities of the Christian church.

This class was composed of the "Loyal Maids", with their teacher Mrs. Wm. Hedrick. Those present to enjoy the happy evening were the Misses Eunice Hager, Vera Wright, Bee Cozart, Ruth Harvey, Minola Gosnell, Jean Putman, Midge Holden; Charlotte Fisher, and Vivian Tyler.

On Monday evening the second of the series was given, cars meeting the little folks at the Triangle Park on the Boulevard and conveying the youngsters to their destination.

These were the "Junior" Girls and they came in their play clothes for their picnic was to be on the home picnic grounds of the Hawleys' on the hill above the house. From this hill a wonderful view of the whole valley may be seen, and conveniences are there that make the serving of the lunch a very easy matter.

Games were played under the supervision of the teacher, Mrs. Floyd Putman, and Dr. Hawley. The party was voted a very successful affair.

On Wednesday evening the Junior boys, under the supervision of their teacher, Mr. Floyd Putman will have the same sort of delightful outing, going in their play clothes and having their picnic at the same place. They are to be on hand at the meeting place at or before 5:30 and the parts closes at eight o'clock.

Dinner for Guests—Mrs. Jennie Goodyear and her sister Miss Perry were hostesses at a family dinner party Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Eubanks, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Rose and children as guests.

A pleasant drive in the afternoon was a feature of the family gathering.

Mr. and Mrs. Rose leave the first of the week for their California home after a visit of some weeks with home folks.

Missionary Society Meets—The Missionary Society of the Christian church will meet Friday at the church, with Miss May Benedict as leader, Mrs. Putman and Mrs. Shaffer and a number of others will assist Miss Benedict with the program the subject of which is "Stewards of God." "Remember the Past, We Build for the Future," is the motto for the afternoon.

It is expected that there will be a full attendance of the membership. The picnic planned for this time is postponed until further notice.

Two Church Parties Planned—Instead of the usual party held once a month at the Christian church, there will be two during August, owing to the fact that many of the young folks will be leaving for college soon.

The first will be a "Stunt" Party, August the 15th, with Miss Beth Johnson, Miss Joyce Johnson, Mrs. Newson Harrison, Miss Dorothy Gebauer, Dr. R. L. Burdick, Miss Mabel Hager, and the Messrs. Edwin Dunn and Henry Van Poynne as the committee in charge.

There will be another party the 29th of August. This program will be entirely in the hands of the children and committees are being appointed and arrangements made for it.

Picnic in Park—A happy picnic party gathered in the Park Sunday for the reunion and delightful dinner that was a pleasing feature of the occasion.

After the bountiful repast the friends visited for a time, then a trip to Helman's baths and a drive rounded out the day most happily.

Those who enjoyed the day together were Mrs. L. D. Blackwood, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stancliff, Ed. Hamlin, Mr. and Mrs. L. Fiddler of Phoenix, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Thompson of Brookings and Miss Gertrude Haan, of Ashland.
