Of Interest—

That band concerts were just as popular half a century ago as they are now is shown by the following, clipped from the "fifty years ago" column of the Yreka Journal: "The Vieuxtemps brothers intend giving a splendid banner as a premium for the best band music in the county. There are three bands in the county, one at Crystall Creek and two at Yreka. The checkerboard band of this place, of which Allen, the colored barber is leader, is practically out every night and will make it warm in the music line for competitors. The Jacksonville band, composed of excellent 'tooters' is expected to enter the contest."

HAY PRICES INCREASE AT KLAMATH FALLS

KLAMATH FALLS, Aug. 2.—Klamath county farmers will receive 100 per cent more for their hay crop this year than last, according to reports of early sales in this district. In 1923 the new crop moved at from $6 to $8 a ton. The first sales this year were made at $12.50 and $15 is considered the present market price. A number of farmers have announced they will hold out for $20 a ton. The alfalfa on the Klamath project will be a good average crop, as there is an abundance of water here to insure good second and third cuttings.

In Hollywood, the Great Dane was one of Jackie Coogan's particular friends. Bud will be at the tent door tonight and tomorrow night, then he is going to Klamath Falls, and from there, back to Hollywood.

UNUSUAL EVENTS COMMANDING YOUR INTEREST

TO CROSS OCEAN IN BOAT 12 FEET LONG

WARRINGTON, Mass., Aug. 2.—William Oldham, Warrington engineer and ex-soldier, has constructed a midget all-steel boat, twelve feet long, in which he intends to cycle across the Atlantic in August.

This strange craft has taken two and a half years to construct. It is built like a submarine, with six water-tight compartments, and is equipped with sails. The only means of propulsion will be a pedal arrangement, worked like a bicycle, connected with the screws.

Oldham estimates the voyage at forty days, during which time he will rely on canned foods. He will sleep in the daytime and navigate at night.

Twenty years ago he built a similar boat, but was persuaded not to make the voyage. The present craft has been built entirely by his own hands.

FOREST SERVICE IS PROSECUTING FIRE VIOLATORS

PORTLAND, August 1.—Arrested for leaving an unextinguished camp fire on the Wallows National Forest, and fined $20.00 and costs, was the experience of J. A. Eastman, in charge of Public Markets, Portland, Oregon, recently, according to information just received at the office of District Forester Geo. H. Cecil, U. S. Forest Service, Portland, Oregon.

Included in Mr. Eastman's party were Will Baker, Enterprise; Thos. Bales, Joseph; and James Jauncey, Milwaukie, Ore. The campers claimed that they had poured several buckets of water on the fire, that they were regretful, and thought they had put the fire out. According to testimony of Forest Service officials, the fire was found burning and deserted on July 22. Trial was held and conviction obtained July 23, at Enterprise, Oregon, before Justice of the Peace A. B. Conaway. The report states that the party did not have a camp fire permit, they had intended to get one, but forgot to.

Trial By Telephone

Another interesting case recently reported was that of a sheep herder named Holt, employed by J. V. Fisher of Chanico, who left his camp fire burning near Olallie mountain, on the Cascade National Forest. The fire was discovered by Forest officers, extinguished and complaint filed against Holt. To save time and expense of a trip from the mountains to Eugene and back, Holt is said to have pleaded guilty by telephone, received his sentence, and sent in his check for $15.00. The case was handled by Judge Walls, of Eugene. Supervisor Macduff of the Cascade National Forest states that this is the first trial by telephone, and the first case of a sheepman being careless with a camp fire on this forest.

Cigarette Smoker Jailed

The Cascade National Forest also reports that Thos. Casey was arrested for smoking a cigarette in a closed area, in violation of federal regulation. He was arraigned before the U. S. Commissioner at Eugene. Report states that he pleaded guilty and was sentenced by the U. S. District Court at Portland, to serve eleven days in jail.
