Homes on easy terms

Walt Mason must be happy as he sings:
"No landlord ever looms in view to tell me that the rent is due; no halif pauses at my gate to bid me pay or pull my freight, and as I survey my chaste abode with shade trees strung along the road, my eyes beholding, fairly shine, I swell with pride, THE PLACE IS MINE. I pity much the laced gent who spends his lifetime paying rent; though he may have a butler stern and jewelry and cars to burn; he cannot know the joy and pride with which my bosom is supplied, when I survey my henhouse fine, and cry, 'THE WHOLE IS MINE!'"

SOCIETY:

MISS EDITH DODGE, Editor

Phone items to her at 39, between 10 A. M., and 2 P. M. and evenings.

CALENDAR OF THE WEEK

Wednesday, August 20. Upper Valley Community Club. Hostesses Mrs. Huxley, Walker avenue.

Thursday, August 21. Sunday School Picnic, Park. 4:00 P. M. Friday, August 22. Acorn Circle No. 54 meets. Special Business.

Friday, August 22. Christian Endeavor Presbyterian Church social. Presbyterian Church, 7:30.

Civic Club Open House—The Civic Club open house which was held on Tuesday was a most successful affair from every standpoint. The program was excellent and a large number of ladies were present.

The Misses Beth and Joyce Johnson delighted the audience with a duet, Miss Beth playing the piano and Miss Joyce the violin. Miss Marion Leach, one of Ashland's promising young musicians played several selections on the piano.

Delightful refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon by the hostesses, Mesdames F. F. Whittle, Frank Jordan and B. R. Groer. The tables were beautifully decorated with large dahlias.

Among the out-of-town women who were present were Mrs. Joan A. Perl, vice-president of the Greater Medford Club and Mrs. W. H. Hull and daughter, of Grants Pass.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday, September 2. A program will be given and light refreshments served. These meetings have proved very popular during the summer months in place of the regular Civic Club meetings.

Presbyterian Endeavor Meeting—The Presbyterian Christian Endeavor will hold their regular monthly meeting at the Presbyterian Church Friday evening.

The meeting will start at seven-thirty and the business meeting will be held first, followed by a social hour. Everyone is urged to be present.

Sunday School Picnic—The Sunday School class of the Methodist Church taught by Mrs. Walter Herndon had a very enjoyable picnic party last Thursday.

Mrs. Henry Carter and Mrs. Coral Pratt took the girls to the home of Miss Anne Wells, who lives about two miles below the Rogue Elk Hotel on Rogue River and there spent the day. The affair was in the nature of a surprise party on Miss Wells, Thursday being her birthday.

A lovely picnic dinner was served, with a large birthday cake. The group ate their lunch in the camp ground near the Wells home.

Those present were Misses Francis Green, Rosetta McGee, Francis and Rosina Gallatin, Emma Cook, Berenice Carter, Alice Pratt, Mesdames Henry Carter, Coral Pratt, Walter Herndon, and the guest-of-honor, Miss Wells. The happy girls returned late at night, all declaring that they had had a most delightful time.

Organizing Lodge—Plans are going forward for the organization of a chapter of the Fraternal Brotherhood in Ashland. The first meeting of the chapter will be held some time next week, it was announced today.

Dinner Party—A very charming dinner party was held at the home of Mrs. George H. Way on North Main street Tuesday evening, in honor of her guest, Mrs. Annie E. Foote, who is visiting here from Minneapolis, Minnesota.

The table was prettily decorated with nasturtiums. A delicious dinner was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Way and Miss Dayton, followed by a very pleasant evening. Mr. and Mrs. John H. Fuller were the guests of the evening.

Birthday Party—Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hadfield and daughter Mae, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Coverling and daughter Adeline, were guests of Mr. L. A. Nickerson at a party Tuesday night, given in honor of Mr. Nickerson's birthday. Cards and dancing were enjoyed until a late hour.

Community Club Meets—The Upper Valley Community Club held a very interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. W. L. Huxley of Walker avenue Wednesday afternoon. The afternoon

TOMORROW'S FACTS TODAY
One Close-up Of Mars, By Alonzo Gissing.

Tomorrow is the day of days, when Earth comes close to Mars. The boys who chart the Universe will all gaze at the stars. They will see if life exists on them, and what the people wear. They will solve that age-old question, "Do the Mars girls bob their hair?"

If the folks on Mars have telescopes, they'll look we mortals o'er. Some sights that we see every day will make their eyelids sore. Suppose they saw the sight above, that we see every day. They'd put their planet in reverse, and try to run away.

Princess in this day and time. Policeman McIntyre, with his wife, is to sail for abroad on September 17 as the guests of former Princess Xenia and her husband, William B. Leeds, Jr., son of the late "tin plate king."

McIntyre became acquainted with Leeds a few years ago on the steamship pier, and when the young millionaire, with his royal bride, recently returned from abroad he extended the invitation.

The dinner is complimentary to Mr. Mather in recognition of his service to the bureau of national parks and of his efforts particularly for the development of Crater Lake park.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—For ten years "Handsome Jack" McIntyre, forty-year-old New York cop, has been stationed here at a trans-Atlantic pier, where he watched daily hundreds of travelers commuting to Europe.

"Handsome Jack" figured the nearest he'd ever get to Europe was the end of the gangplank. But he didn't figure on a Fairy
