They visited an aunt at Alameda, and spent one night in Petaluma's fine new tourist hotel. They report a wonderful trip.

"HUMAN GORILLA" DIES AFTER FIGHTING TRUSTY CANYON CITY, Colo., Aug. 25.—Prison officials today are investigating the circumstances of the death of Antonio Neroni, 26, slayer of four countrymen, serving a life sentence here, who was found dead in his cell yesterday.

The body bore traces of a beating administered by Jack Robinson, a trusty.

The fight occurred when Neroni, known as the "human gorilla," menaced visitors to the insane ward. Robinson interfered. Neroni drew a knife, and a fight ensued.

HAS EIGHT WIVES BUT ESCAPES BIGAMY TRIAL LONG BEACH, Aug. 25.—John A. Jordan, said to have been married eight times, was exonerated of a bigamy charge when arranged in court here, but was replaced under custody while an investigation of the death of his last wife, Saide Kessler Jordan, is being carried on. Mrs. Jordan

THIS COAT FROCK KEEPS ITS WEARER A STEP AHEAD OF FASHION. JUST a step ahead of fashion one may walk with this frock, which illustrates several ideas so new that this costume may be taken as a future prediction as well as a most charming present reality. There is more than a suggestion of the mode Directorate in this model with its quaint postillion-like cape collar, made in black velvet and worn with a separate blouse, either of black silk or a contrasting color. The skirt is cut in one piece with the long straight back which buttons on to the shoulders of the blouse, as shown in the upper small sketch. It "unwraps" gradually when the belt is unfastened, thus giving itself the right to come under the heading of coat frock, although it is hard to realize that this sophisticated costume has any relation to the simple models we have been accustomed to group under this term. To return to the composition of the ensemble, the top collar is adjustable, and can be put on or taken off at will, according to whether Madame is in the house or on the street, or wishes to vary her costume. The tucked blouse is worthy of a paragraph to itself. It reverses the usual order, and leaves its chemist front plain, while it tucks the rest of itself. The long tight sleeves, with their flared cuffs give the required touch of picturesque to match with the dashing collar. This costume could of course be copied in silk instead of velvet, if desired. One of the new ribbed silks, like Cote Centaur would be appropriate.

fell last month from a 120 foot cliff in Ranier National Park. The dismissal of the bigamy charge resulted from the inability of the State to locate three of Jordan's alleged wives as witnesses.

LUBRICATOR AWAITS FOR SOME CLAIMANT If anyone around Ashland has lost a lubricator from a steam boiler, it is waiting at the Ashland police station to be claimed.

The lubricator, evidently from a boiler or pump, was found last night at the "hobo jungle," or hangout of floaters. It had evidently been stolen by some itchy-fingered member of the wandering gentry, who left it at the "jungle."

SHASTA SCHOOL BOND ELECTION REVERSED REDDING, Cal., Aug. 25.—An election in the Union School District at which bonds of $2,000 were voted for the purpose of building a new school house was upset in the superior court yesterday in an action brought by John Lutz, a large taxpayer of the district. Errors were found in the manner of conducting the election. The case never went to trial, the attorneys consenting by stipulation to a judgment that upset the bond election.

KLAMATH HUNTERS WAIT FOR SEASON KLAMATH FALLS, Aug. 25.—While hunters near Ashland are out scouting around for deer, local sportsmen must wait until September 1 before they clean the cobwebs from their guns and take to the woods.

Klamath county is included in game district number two, which, because the fire hazard was deemed too great, was ordered held in closed season until the first of September.

Astoria — Work being rushed on paving streets on fringe of old burned areas.

COLORED WOMAN LEADER WARNS AGAINST NORTH CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—A warning for negroes of the South to remain there and not overcrowd the North was issued by Hallie Q. Brown, president of the National Association of Colored Women, at a convention held here.

"Because of the hazards to health and morals," she said in her warning, "it behooves us to guard against overcrowding the Northern States by steady immigration of our people from the South."

She also urged that the colored women see that building and sanitary codes in their communities were rigidly enforced. Their clubs should make active campaigns in behalf of public health, she said.

LONDON MAY BE FREED OF COAL FOG NUISANCE LONDON, Aug. 25.—England's reputation as a country of smoky cities and fog-laden atmosphere may soon be a thing of the past, if schemes now projected by the Government for coal carbonization on a large scale are successful.

In a report issued on the subject it is stated the old problems of coal carbonization have been solved and that the Government has decided on the rapid development of coal seams suitable for carbonization.

ESPERANTO GAINS VIENNA, Aug. 25.—Forty countries were represented at the recent Sixteenth International Esperanto Congress held here.

Three thousand delegates attended, and, besides the usual congress, discussions, there were two performances of a play in Esperanto.

TRAVELER KEEPS ON HIS TRAVELS

A one-legged traveler who arrived in Ashland this morning kept right on traveling. The gentleman of the road had no definite address and no definite name, didn't know where he was going, and said that the city he came from was a secret. He was thought unnecessary to the continued existence of the city, and so was escorted to the city limits and told not to come back.

NO TRACE FOUND OF STOLEN CAR

No trace has yet been found of the persons who on Friday night took C. J. Perrine's Oldsmobile car from in front of his residence, the police said today. Sometime Friday night, the car was taken, and no trace has been found of it since. It is thought that the machine was driven north, and police officers in both northern and southern cities have been notified to keep on the lookout.

KILLING DEER IN SHED BRINGS FINE

In Judge Taylor's court in Medford Saturday, T. C. Lafferty was fined $25 and costs, Bill Rush was fined $25 and costs, and C. R. Rush was fined $50 and costs when they pleaded guilty to hunting in the Ashland creek watershed.

The three men had not been hunting in the watershed, but pursued a wounded buck into it. C. R. Rush was fined for hunting in the watershed and for killing a deer in a game refuge.

SIX DAY SEARCH IS FRUITLESS

SEATTLE, August 25.—Six days of the most diligent searching and with every known means exhausted has failed to locate any trace of Charles Seaborn, ex-shipbuilder, who disappeared from the yacht Tenino Tuesday night. Dragging operations were continued throughout today under the direction of Henry G. Seaborn, pioneer shipbuilder and brother of the missing man. The Tenino had been chartered Tuesday night by Seaborn for a party.

SHIPSTEAD SAYS FARMERS FOOLED

SEATTLE, August 25.—American farmers, "like a myriad of bees, are being fed sugared water in the form of increased wheat prices to keep them from swarming to the candidacy of La Follette," declared Henry Shipstead, of Minnesota, in opening the progressive party campaign here. The speaker declared that the republican party was claiming credit for the increase in wheat prices. "The party, working with the money interests, is able to blot the prices, and that is the cause of the increases," said Mr. Shipstead.

FINAL PLEA FOR MERCY BY DARROW

(Continued from Page 1) "As promised before the trial, no unseemly sum was spent by the defense. Alienists received the same sum as the state mental experts. The fees of the lawyers will be fixed by the Illinois bar association. Money, instead of saving the lives of these boys, is liable to cause their undeserved death."

Grants Pass — Many Irrigated tracts being sold to buyers from Idaho, Washington and elsewhere.

Albany — Work begins on new Albany Pacific highway bridge.

"MA" LEADS RACE FOR NOMINATION

D'AUTREMONT REPORTED SEEN NEAR ASHLAND

(Continued From Page 1) blood at the south end of Tunnel 13, and James Dougherty, mail clerk, died when a charge of dynamite beneath a mail car was exploded. There were not eyewitnesses to the tragedy, but detectives found evidence which made them believe that the three D'Autremont boys were guilty. Since that time, a fruitless search for the men has been going on. Several times, one or another of the men have been reported seen, but yesterday was the first time that anyone had reported seeing them near Ashland.

TRADE RECORD AMERICAN AID IN WORLD AGRICULTURE Our farm machinery multiplies food producing power the world over. Exports of agricultural machinery and implements go to over 100 countries in every part of the globe. They now total over $50,000,000 a year and have aggregated more than $700,000,000 since 1900. The farmers of the world are paying tribute to the genius of the American inventor and the integrity of the American manufacturer. They bought from us last year over $50,000,000 worth of agricultural machinery and implements, a larger value than in any earlier year, and more than a hundred different countries, colonies and islands of the world. The 1923 exports, says the Trade Record of The Nation's only city Bank of New York, not only exceeded in value those of any earlier year but are practically double those of 1920, three times as much as in 1900 and thirteen times as large as in 1890. And they go literally to the corner of the inhabited world. The latest year for which details are available, went to 80 different countries, colonies and islands; harvesters and reapers to 27, and farm tractors in this industry at $367,000,000, as against $62,000,000 in 1880, and puts against three hours in 1830.
