Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Ridley and Grace and Louise Ridley spent Sunday in Klamath Falls visiting with friends there.

Let us fill your pail with Swifts Silver Lea: lard. Costs less than shortening, goes farther and is more nutritious. Detricks. 94—1f

Visit from Camas—
Lynn Baughman and wife arrived in Ashland Sunday from Camas, Washington and will spend a week or ten days visiting with relatives here. Mr. Baughman is the brother of Clinton Baughman, fire chief of this city.

Milk and Cream whole sale and retail from certified herd—Linings Dairy. Phone 396R.

Health giving whole wheat bread at The Lithia Bakery.

Leave for Vacation—
Mrs. E. B. Hunt, Mrs. Lettie Eastburn and daughter, Frances, and Misses Katherine and Ruth Parsons left yesterday for a week's camping trip. They will return in time for the opening of school. Miss Katherine Parsons will teach at the Willow Springs school this year and Mrs. Eastburn will teach in the Central Point schools.

Superlite auto finish; guaranteed—Hughes, Pell's Corner. 298—1f

W. Stacey Dies—
W. Stacey, formerly of Ashland, and who used to be connected with the Paulserud tailor shop, died yesterday afternoon at the community hospital. When he was taken ill at Modesto, Cal., where he lived, he came to Ashland in the hope of improving his health.

Klan Lecture, Aug. 27, Armory.
300—1f

Leave for Lake—
Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Vining of Seattle, who arrived in Ashland last Saturday, left early this morning for the Lake of the Woods. They expect to remain there until sometime in October and will stay in the Wagner cottage.

Cliff Payne makes shelving.

Returned Sunday—
Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Dennis, with their grandson, Dennis Espy returned Sunday from a two weeks vacation at Bandon and other coast resorts. They saw many Ashland residents enjoying the seaside resorts, they report. While on the coast, they drove down to Gold Beach, where they fished two hours and landed three fine salmon. The road to Gold Beach, Mr. Dennis said, is splendid in places and in places is very twisty and dangerous.

Klan Lecture, Aug. 27, Armory.

246—1f

Paulserud's suits sell for less.

Tourists Issue Warning—
Melrose Martin, superintendent of schools at Sebastopol, Cal., and his family were in Grants Pass this morning, says the Courier. He had heard tourists advise others to keep away from Drain and Grants Pass, and wondered why. At Drain, he slowed down while passing through town but speeded up when out of the business section. It cost him $10 cash bail. At Grants Pass, he stopped to buy groceries, and found a chalk mark on his tire, giving him the impression that he was not wanted. He took the hint and will buy further purchases along the route home.

Complete line of Ashland Canned Goods at Detricks.
94—1f

Dance Hot Springs Sat. night.
301-2

Gu't of Craters—
V. V. Mills was a guest of A. S. Rosenbaum at the Crater meeting which was held in Medford last night. The Forest Ranger quartet was entertained by the Craters and made honorary members of this association. They will leave tonight for their home in Kentucky after spending some time at the Crater Lake Lodge this summer. Colonel Thompson gave an account of their work and in turn the quartet paid him a high tribute.

MARCEL AND CURL LAST LONGER after a Golden Glint Shampoo.

Foleys Honey & Tar Comp. 30c and 60c. — McNair Bros.

Movies in the Open—
The pleasure of an ideal mid-summer evening in the parks was measurably augmented on Monday evening this week, by the presentation to the general public, free of charge, of an unique all fresco entertainment incorporating views of the Modern Woodmen Sattarium at Colorado Springs. The scenes were very interesting as depicting the daily routine at the notable institution maintained by the Woodmen for the care and treatment of its patients.

Ladies and children's hair cutting. Powder Puff Beauty Parlor. 298—1f

Cleaning and pressing at Orres.
Phone 64. 300—1f

Trouble over High School—
Some trouble is being experienced in Grants Pass at the present time over the new high school which is being built there. It is being reported through the town that the walls of the building are four feet and a half out of line. C. A. Swope of Grants Pass states that these reports are being made entirely through ignorance or through some wish to start trouble. This report and several others have been circulated through that town for some time but are vigorously denied by anyone who is in any way connected with the new high school. This school is to be built with many modern features and will be one of the prettiest in Southern Oregon when finished.

New Styles and Colors in Rubber Aprons—McNair Bros.

We deliver the goods—Detricks 94—1f

Local Man Mentioned—
In the September American Magazine C. A. Harris, local telegraph operator was mentioned by George W. Gray in his article "These Boys are Always Out But Never Down." This article told of a trip made by Mr. Harris during the time when he was messenger boy in the local office. He was telegraphed a reprieve by the Governor for a man who was sentenced to hang the next morning. Making the trip in the snow late at night he journeyed to Jacksonville. After a hard night's trip and a small accident he arrived at six o'clock in the morning. At first the sheriff would not believe him, but finally he was convinced and the man was released.

Mrs. Audrey Trobee of San Francisco has opened her beauty shop in the Mills building. Call 103 for appointment. 297—1f

Here Last Night—
J. J. McMahon, state traffic officer, was an Ashland visitor last night.

Ask your grocer for Mrs. Bonar's home-made salad dressing.
296—1m*

Seriously Ill—
Miss Alice Armstrong, formerly connected with the First National Bank, is seriously ill at her home on B. Street.

Business Trip—
G. F. Billings was a business visitor in Medford yesterday afternoon.

Returns From Vacation—
O. A. Paulserud and wife returned recently from their vacation spent at the Lake of the Woods. They were accompanied by Mrs. Duell of Medford.

No Band Practice—
There was no band practice at the City Hall Monday evening and it has not yet been decided about having a concert Wednesday, although it is probable that there will be none.

Visiting Here—
Mrs. Theodore Wicks and Miss Mildred Wicks of San Francisco are visiting in Ashland with Mrs. Clara Minard of the Plaza. They expect to stay here for several days before resuming their trip to Philadelphia. They will go by way of the Canadian Pacific.

Find Rich Mine—
Harry Floyd of Holland, Oregon, reported recently that two rich strikes in placer gold had been found by Akerill brothers. He stated that the miners struck a deposit of gravel after going through about 40 feet of solid rock. They washed and panned this and found $27.10 from three yards of this gravel. They have also discovered nearly a mile of virgin channel averaging better than fifty cents per yard taken from a tunnel. This is reported to be one of the best hydraulic mines in the country.

NEGRESS HELD AFTER SHOOTING HUSBAND
SACRAMENTO, Aug. 26.—Mrs. Ophelia Worthen, a negress, is held in the city jail facing a probable charge of assault with intent to kill, while John Worthen, a city garbage collector, her husband, lies at the Sacramento hospital with a bullet wound in his thigh. Worthen was shot by Mrs. Worthen on R street, near Forty-eighth, at a late hour last night.

MEDICAL OFFICER ASSIGNED WALLA WALLA, Wash., Aug. 26.—Major W. D. Judkins, medical officer in charge at the veterans' hospital here, has been assigned to take charge of the veterans' hospital at Helena. He will leave Tuesday. He has been in charge here for three years.

AUTO RACES ARE HIT AT GRESHAM
GRESHAM, Ore., August 26.—Automobile racing was inaugurated here this afternoon when more than 4000 persons gathered at the Multnomah county fair grounds track to witness the special program of six events. The races were run under special sanction of the American Automobile association, permission having been obtained from Frank E. Watkins by Robert P. Rowe, ice hockey star, who was in charge. With one exception the races were hotly contested and the finishes so close it was with difficulty that winners were determined. Time for the various events was considered excellent, especially in view of the short turns which were but slightly banked.

GIRLS ARE DISMAYED WHEN CLOTHES TAKEN
PORTLAND, Aug. 26.—It's a great joke to steal a fellow's clothes when he's in swimming. But it's a roan horse of another color when your own clothes are taken.

FATHER AND SON DIE IN GAS WELL
BRAWLEY, Cal., Aug. 26.—William Edward Roskopf, 48, of Los Angeles, and his 12-year-old son died here Saturday from poisonous gas in a 15-foot well when the boy fell into the well and the father jumped after him.

HUSKIES MAKE GOOD ATHLETIC RECORD

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 26.—The University of Washington's achievements in a well-balanced program of activities are shown in records made public by Darwin Melsness, graduate manager, which indicate that Washington has won 51 intercollegiate contests in all sports, tied three, and lost 15.

In football Washington won ten games and lost one; in basketball won ten games and lost four; in baseball, won 13 and lost seven; in crew, won one race and lost none; in tennis, won two and lost none. There were three victories and one defeat in wrestling; six victories and two defeats in debate, and two victories and one tie in hockey.

SIX TO REPRESENT O. A. C. AT MEET

CORVALLIS, Aug. 26.—Six scientists from three departments will represent the college at the annual convention of the Northwest Association of Horticulturists, Entomologists and Plant Pathologists to be held in the Okanogan lake region of British Columbia August 26 to 29, as follows:

W. S. Brown, professor of horticulture; C. E. Schuster, extension horticulturist; B. G. Thompson of the station entomological department; Dr. S. M. Zeller, plant pathologist at the college, and C. E. Owens of the station plant pathology department.

ATTEMPT TO ROB STORE IS FAILURE

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 26.—Thwarted in their attempt to hold up Abe Duncan, owner of a grocery store and gasoline station at Brighton, late last night when he opened fire on them, two youths were arrested several hours later and today confessed their participation to Deputy Sheriffs Charles J. Ogle and Harry Thomas and Constable Jack Garibaldi at the county jail.

The prisoners gave the names of Frank Kane, aged 18, alias J. Jones, and John Bieber, aged 18, who said they came to Sacramento four days ago from Marysville. Duncan has identified them as the two bandits who attempted to rob him.

LOGGING CAMP WILL RESUME OPERATIONS

MILL CITY, Ore., Aug. 26.—Logging camp No. 24 of the Hammond Lumber company will start operations tomorrow following a shutdown since the first of July. The entire camp will be opened, running four sides and employing approximately 160 men.

On account of the fire hazard and shortage of water, it has been necessary for the company to draw on their surplus logs for the past two or three weeks to keep the mill supplied.

Repairing of bridges at camp 17 near Detroit, which were burned out in the recent fire, will be finished soon and as soon as completed another side will be added there.

RELEASED BECAUSE ARREST NOT LEGAL

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—Because federal prohibition agents forced themselves into an establishment conducted by Steve Forni at 575 Columbus Avenue, known as the Baza Cafe, without a search warrant, the information was dismissed against him in the United States district court.

Forni, according to the evidence, had a lookout at the door, there was no sign to indicate the place was a restaurant, and only persons personally known to the watchman were admitted. Two women guests got caught in the doorway as they entered the place, and the federal prohibition officers took advantage of this to force their way in.

FATHER AND SON DIE IN GAS WELL

BRAWLEY, Cal., Aug. 26.—William Edward Roskopf, 48, of Los Angeles, and his 12-year-old son died here Saturday from poisonous gas in a 15-foot well when the boy fell into the well and the father jumped after him.

SISKIYOU MAN'S CAR DESTROYED BY FIRE

WEED, August 26.—While Carlo Monte was coming down the hill out of McCloud his car, a sedan, caught fire and was destroyed. Monte had considerable difficulty getting out without serious burns. He was coasting down the hill and, when he turned on the ignition and "stepped on the gas," there was an explosion and the whole front end of the car burst into flames. There was $1,700 insurance on the car.

PACKING TO START MONTESANO, Wash., August 26

—Packing of blackberries by the plant of the Grays Harbor Canning company here will begin at once, as the berries are already beginning to ripen, according to E. C. Forsythe, manager. The price is quoted at four cents a pound. The berries in the vicinity of Elma are reported to be further advanced than those near Montesano.

ESCAPED CONVICT MAKES SUCCESS

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., August 26.—Jim Pikey, escaped convict from Arkansas penitentiary, as "Chester M. Moore," lived for six years without detection. He became a trusted employe of the Oklahoma City water works. He married and became father of a boy. He built a home, planted flowers and made a garden. He forgot he was Pikey, and then a former fellow-convict exposed him.

CLARKE COUNTY BUYS FLOCK OF PHEASANTS

VANCOUVER, Wash., August 26.—The county game commission has 600 Chinese pheasants, purchased from the Silverton, Ore., game farm, confined in a big pen at the county fish hatchery on Cold creek, north of Vancouver, for release in different sections of the county after the game season closes in November. The birds were purchased with money received from the sale of hunting licenses.

ASHLAND MAN BAGS TWO SPLENDID DEER

Word was received today that Fred Taylor of the Plaza Confectionery had shot two deer. He has been hunting in the Diamond Lake region for the past week and was very lucky in getting the deer. He also received a sprained ankle while on his vacation, but he is so delighted about the deer that the sprained ankle has not been worrying him. He will arrive in Ashland with his booty sometime Wednesday.

SAYS PARENTS NEED TO HAVE TRAINING

FORREST GROVE, Ore., August 26.—"Parents must be trained," declared Professor Arthur W. Spaulding of Washington, D. C., in an address before the large audience attending the annual conference of the Seventh Day Adventists in the city park here. Continuing, he said: "The restoration and uplifting begins in the home; the work of parents underlies every other," he said, "and no solution of the problems of society or church is possible unless the homes are made schools of honesty, thrift, virtue and faith. But though we train our teachers

CROWE CALLS FOR HANGING OF SLAYERS

He spoke of the crushed hopes of the two families—highly respected citizens of Chicago.

"No Easy Thing" "It is no easy thing for a father to see his life's hope crumbled in the dust. Is there any reason why their proud names and all the future generations that bear them shall have this car sign attached to them? How many boys and girls, now many unborn children, will feel it? Life in prison is bad enough, but it isn't the scaffold."
