BRUN TAKES SHIRT TO USE AS TOWEL

KLAMATH FALLS, Aug. 29.—While nosing around in the refuse dump at Crater Lake last week, a husky black bear stuck his nose in a can which contained edibles distasteful to him.

The bear strove patiently for some time to free his nose from the disagreeable can and contents. Unsuccessful, the bear saw a clean shirt, belonging to a ranger, hanging from a clothes line.

With unhesitating steps, brunt walked over to the shirt, and grasping it, proceeded to give his face a thorough wiping.

"What?" ejaculated the unfortunate owner of the shirt, and running after the bear, took his property away from the brazen animal.
