DO YOU BOOST FAKERS

Some business men rather patronize the fake advertiser than put their money into legitimate channels where known results are obtained.

ONE FACTOR OF PEACE

Every time that Edward Albert, Prince of Wales, falls from his horse and lights on his head, he makes the possibilities of a war between the United States and England many years more remote.

In spite of his position, the Prince is a democrat at heart, and America knows it and applauds. A dulution bores him. A dangerous obstacle race fills his heart with joy.

Eddie spends his time in roving the world and saying what he thinks. By doing so, he makes more friends for the British Empire than any other living person.

THE FIRE DEMON AGAIN

On Saturday, two big fires, one of which destroyed over half of the business section of Rathdrum, Idaho, and the other which burned 200 acres of timber at Oak Ridge, Oregon, and threatened thousands of acres more, were reported.

One fire started from an over-heated oven. The other was caused by sparks from a logging engine. In both cases, the flames spread because there was not sufficient equipment at hand to check them.

Rathdrum, with over $225,000 in buildings gone, and with the town facing a long period of depression, realizes that efficient fire-fighting equipment would have been cheap.

The elements cause many expensive and disastrous conflagrations, but the vast majority are directly traceable to human carelessness and false notions of economy.

BIGGER CONGRESSMEN NEEDED

Tolstoy, the greatest of Russians, once declared that the movements of history are not produced by the exercise of power by the few, nor by the intellectual activity of the few but by the activity of all men taking part in the event.

That is a picture of American government, or of any other democracy. It is the story, also, of the inevitable part the voter must play in the unfolding drama of his national history.

The men who are chosen to represent the people in the national legislature bear a far smaller share of responsibility than those who send them there.

The history being produced today by the citizens of the United States will be read generations hence with the detachment of the removal of years for what it is worth.

The responsibility is inescapable. History is within us and not in any man; the man is the instrument of the people. Should they not choose that instrument of the best metal, with the finest edge, and so all their piece to the national edifice so that history may be proud of it?

Ashland passed away the Labor Day week-end in an orderly, enjoyable manner along the streams, in the denizens of the deer and in visiting the many scenic attractions hereabouts.

The purchase of the Ashland hotel for a large sum verifies the faith which our citizens have in the community's development.

Friend Richardson, California's governor, in casting about for a political argument, said something about extravagance in the state's school management; and in the recent election he found that the people do not favor anybody tampering with the schools, for candidates on his side were overwhelmingly defeated.

FAIR GROUND IS BEAUTIFIED FOR BIG ATTRACTION

A touch of the artistic is more pronounced this year at the Jackson County Fair Grounds than ever before.

The association's caretaker planted petunias along the fence which faces the Pacific Highway and these are now in bloom and impress the thousands of tourists who pass there daily with the fact that there is a civic pride in the county.

The flower beds on the inside of the grounds were planted by the Rogue Valley Floral Co. who this year were given the exclusive privilege to make the floral decorations.

Complete Program. Within a few days a complete program of events will be mailed to every consumer of electricity in the territory of the California-Oregon Power Co.

Expect Big Crowd. Considering the splendid program that is being offered, it is estimated that there will be no less than twenty five thousand paid admissions.

AMERICANS LEASE SCOTTISH MOORS

LONDON, Sept. 2. — Many wealthy Americans are among the hundreds of people who have leased Scottish grouse moors and deer forests for the coming season.

Agents assert that the "American invasion" this year is greater than ever, and few properties still all of whom are keen devotees of the sport.

It is expected that King George will pay his customary one to two week's visit at the height of the season. He will probably make Balmoral Castle, the royal family's Scottish residence, his headquarters and will shoot partly over the royal preserves and partly over those of his friends in the vicinity.

His Majesty is rated as the second-best shot in the world, and it is recorded that for three seasons running his was the best bag for the annual big shoot.

WARN PARENTS TO EXAMINE CHILDREN

PORTLAND, Sept. 2. — With thousands of children preparing to return to school early this month, the Oregon State Board of Health issues a warning to parents to make a definite and thorough examination of their children before permitting them to leave home.

Reports from all over the country indicate a great increase in enrollment as the time for assembly draws near within the next 10 days. In Portland and in many parts of the Northwest the opening is set for Tuesday, September 2.
