Planes Patrol Counties—Due to the dense smoke in the valley which makes observation by lookout almost impossible, a fire patrol plane flew over the county today seeking fires. The lighting of the other night may have set some fires not yet discovered, according to C. A. Hoxie, district fire warden. Part of Jackson county is also being patrolled. Very few fires were set on state lands by the storm. The plane left Medford this morning with C. O. Hoxie as observer. Grants Pass Courier.
