

Classified Column

Classified Column Rates One cent the word each time.

To run every issue for one month or more, 1/2 cent the word each time.

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Furnished room, with bath, 886 A St. 9-3*

FOR RENT—2 furnished front apartments, 72 North Main. Carter Hotel. 8-3*

FOR RENT:—Modern well located furnace heated apartments and sleeping rooms, furnished and unfurnished, 316 Haradine. 1-1f

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Gasoline pump, Lithia Garage. 9-4*

FOR SALE—Cut flowers—tulip bulbs. Mrs. Jacks, 519 Palm Ave. Phone 359-R. 8-3

FOR SALE—6 room modern house on North Main St. Large lot, all kinds of fruit. A Real Bargain. Price $3500 on good terms at 6 per cent.

FOR SALE—6 room modern house close in. Price $2100, on easy terms. Red Crown Service Station on Main Highway to trade for house in Ashland. Good 18 acre ranch on highway, 6 room house, good new barn, garage, nice lawn, 6 cows, good team, sow and 12 pigs, 2 dozen chickens and all farm machinery. 12 ton hay. Price $6500 on good terms.

See W. W. ROBISON, 63 North Main St. 81f

FOR SALE:—Fresh prunes for canning, delivered any place in Ashland, Phone 297-Y. 6-6*

FOR SALE CHEAP—Bosc pears, culls, fine for canning. Newbery & Sons, Talent. Phone 3782J. 1-1f

FOR SALE OR TRADE—160 acre ranch, Missouri River bottom land, within 8 miles Minot, North Dakota. If interested call or write G. S. Butler. 300-1mo

FOR SALE—R. I. Red fryers milk fed, crate-fattened, Maxedors, 977 B St. 271-2mo*

SALES AND TRADES AUTO agency and Garage doing a growing business, Chevrolet Agency, on Main Street, in splendid fast growing city, big surrounding country trade, low rental. Will sell at invoice and accept good clean property as all or part pay.

A SPLENDID 10 acre tract, first class land, scenic location, in edge of city, paying orchard with variety of fruits and nuts, comfortable building. Will trade for good farm land down the valley. Want about 30 or 40 acres with small house.

FOR SALE AT A BARGAIN 10 ACRES, 7 miles out, free water right, comfortable house, good barn, family fruit, and a little to sell, fine shade trees, and really a lovely home, half mile from school. Owner needs cash and will take $3500.

A VERY pretty, well built, and modern home on Fairview St., good lot, some fruit and garage, $3,000 easy terms.

A MODERN bungalow, 6 rooms, splendid foundation, large basement, modern plumbing fixtures, freshly calcimined and painted, scenic location, fronting the Park, very easy terms at price of $2050.

STAPLES' AGENCY Office, Hotel Ashland Bldg. Phone 26

MISCELLANEOUS

GET YOU STOVE repaired at Eagle Foundry. Boch Magnito Radiator and Stoves for sale, 140 Oberlin St. 306-1 mo.*

WANTED:—Used flat top office desk and swivel chair. See Greer at the Tidings office. 1-4

PIANO instruction, by experienced teacher. Beginners preferred. Mrs. H. S. Aikins. Phone 441J. 3-1mo

TRADE—Will trade 50x145 foot lot on Main artery (225 Chester Ave.) Bakersfield, California, for equal value or small house. R. Spehr, Rt. 2, Bakersfield, California. 8-8

LOST on highway between Sisson, Cal., and Grants Pass—Leather brief case containing valuable papers, some cash and letters addressed to J. S. Blair, Mayfield, Cal. Finder please return to Tidings office and receive reward. 9-2*

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

G. W. Milam Independent Candidate for County School Superintendent of Jackson County, Oregon.

Classified ads bring results.

PROFESSIONAL

PHYSICIANS

DR. HAWLEY—Above Tidings office. Phone 91.

DR. C. W. HANSON Dentist

Special attention given to pyorrhea. Office upstairs in Beaver Block. Phone 178-J. 233-1f.

DR. ERNEST A. WOODS—Practice limited to eye, ear, nose and throat—X-ray including teeth. Office hours, 10 to 12 and 2 to 5. Swendenburg Bldg., Ashland, Ore.

DR. MATTIE B. SHAW—Residence and office, 108 Pioneer avenue. Telephone 28. Office hours, 10 to 12 a. m.; 2 to 5 p. m. only.

DR. E. B. ANGELL—Chiropractic and Electro-Therapy. Office phone 48; residence 142. First National Bank building.

MONUMENTS

ASHLAND GRANITE MONUMENTS Blair Granite Co. S. PENNINGTON, Manager Office 175 E. Main Res. Phone 444-Y

ANY GIRL IN TROUBLE—May communicate with Ensign Lee of the Salvation Army at the WhiteShield Home, 565 Mayfair Ave., Portland, Oregon.

PLANING MILL

JORDON'S SASH AND CABINET WORKS, Cor. Helman and Van Ness. 1941f

TRANSFER AND EXPRESS White Transfer & Storage Co. FOR SERVICE.

Experienced movers and packers of household goods. Dealers in coal and wood. Phone 117. Office 89 Oak St. near Hotel Ashland

T. L. POWELL—General Transfer—Good team and motor trucks. Good service at a reasonable price. Phone 83.

FEHIGE-ROACH

Transfer—Express—Storage Hauling—Dry work of all kinds. Quick motor service. Dry wood of all kinds. Phone 410-R 375 B. St. 112-1f

FLORIST

SAY IT WITH FLOWERS From Hatcher & Benson, Floral & Seed Co., temporary location 395 Mountain Ave. Cut flowers and floral designing. Phone 118. 4-mo

For a smooth shave and quick service go to the Shell Barber Shop. Ladies and children get your hair bobbed and Marcel led. W. A. SHELL, Prop. 332 A. St. Ashland, Ore

LIQUOR SMUGGLING IN NORWAY STILL ACTIVE

CHRISTIANA, Sept. 11.—Smuggling, particularly liquor smuggling, is still rife in Norway.

It is reported the smugglers are even using submarines to run their contraband.

A prominent Norwegian lawyer says smugglers insure their goods against capture by paying a premium of 6 per cent. The insurance, he states, were at first underwritten by an English firm, but now by a Hamburg company.

There is wisdom in reading ads.

NOTICE TO PUBLIC Supplement No. 2 to Public Service Commission Order No. 7, providing for a service charge on each meter of Sixty ($.60) per month, becomes effective thirty days from date.

Southern Oregon Gas Company September 1, 1924. 4 Fri, Sat. 6

You May Be Afflicted PILES may exist for years before they manifest any appreciable symptoms. Yet, if present, they disfigure the nerve force and undermine the health.

The old theory that Piles necessitate a surgical operation has been so completely disproved by my non-surgical treatment that I GUARANTEE to cure any case of Piles or refund the patient's fee. Write today for my FREE book on Piles and other Rectal and Colon diseases. CHAS. J. DEAN, M.D. Inc. 5TH AND MAIN—OPPOSITE COURT HOUSE PORTLAND, OREGON

THEN MRS. OGLE FOUND RELIEF BY TAKING TANLAC

Then Mrs. Ogle Found Relief By Taking Tanlac.

"I always have and always will claim that Tanlac saved my life," recently declared Mrs. May Ogle, 2326, 24th Ave., West, Seattle, Wash.

"I don't believe anybody could suffer with stomach trouble worse than I did for 10 years. It kept me sick in bed for weeks at a time. My suffering became more severe in spite of all I could do until nearly all hopes of getting well left me.

"Certainly a harder task could not be found for Tanlac. But Tanlac won out and I am in the best health now I have known in 10 years. I now eat nearly everything, have a ravenous appetite, and have gained weight and strength until I look and feel like a different person. Tanlac did what I thought impossible for any medicine to do."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 Million bottles sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills, for constipation made and recommended by the manufacturers of TANLAC.

MIAMI, FLORIDA, TO OPEN COSTLY NEW RACE TRACK SOON

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—About three-quarters of a million dollars will be expended on the new race track now nearing completion at Miami, Florida, according to E. G. Sewell, President of the Miami Chamber of Commerce, who arrived here from the South recently.

"This is the estimate," said Sewell, "of President Joseph M. Smoot, of the Miami Jockey Club, who is now in New York. Covered with a deep layer of clay-colored marl from the beds of the Florida Everglades, the track is said by experts to be one of the fastest in the country. The skeleton of the grand stand of reinforced concrete and steel is up, and it will be something new in race track grandstands, as it will permit people to stand on the levels without interfering with the vision of those behind them. It is the plan to conduct the races on a very high plane, and we hope to attract a class of racing people similar to those attendant at Saratoga."

The track is located at Hialeah, about three miles from the city limits of Miami, and will be reached by a new branch line now being rushed to completion by the Florida East Coast Railway Company, and by many oiled roads, motor buses and automobiles.

Adjacent to the race track are the jai alai courts, where jai alai, said to be the fastest game in the world, will be played at night under arc light. Nearby is a grey-

ing Miss Joyce Barbour, William Kershaw and Richard Bird.

Oscar Asche, who is now touring Australia, also threatens an American tour.

"The Street Singer," a musical comedy now in high favor in London, will be transferred to Broadway in the late Fall. If its season here is near an end when American production is ready it is possible that some of the English cast, including Harry Welshman, Phyllis Dare and A. W. Bascomb, will be invited to play in the American production.

Another ambitious company of English revue stars is headed for Broadway to try to duplicate the success of Beatrice Lillie and Gertrude Lawrence. This revue will be staged by Laurillard and will have as its stars Blinnie Hale, a dainty English miss of tender years who has won instantaneous success in revue; Stanley Lapino, who comes from an old family of comedians and who, given the proper material, is one of the best of England's musical comedians, and Jack Melford, son of an old English actor.

The best war play of the past season, "Havoc," will be transferred bodily to New York in the Fall with the English cast, including Miss Joyce Barbour, William Kershaw and Richard Bird.

Godfrey Tearle, brother of Conway Tearle, who is well known to American film fans, sails for New York this month to appear in Frederick Lonsdale's play "The Fake." Though Godfrey Tearle was born in the United States, he has appeared there only once, in "Carnival," which was not altogether successful.

Another ambitious company of English revue stars is headed for Broadway to try to duplicate the success of Beatrice Lillie and Gertrude Lawrence. This revue will be staged by Laurillard and will have as its stars Blinnie Hale, a dainty English miss of tender years who has won instantaneous success in revue; Stanley Lapino, who comes from an old family of comedians and who, given the proper material, is one of the best of England's musical comedians, and Jack Melford, son of an old English actor.

The best war play of the past season, "Havoc," will be transferred bodily to New York in the Fall with the English cast, including Miss Joyce Barbour, William Kershaw and Richard Bird.

Godfrey Tearle, brother of Conway Tearle, who is well known to American film fans, sails for New York this month to appear in Frederick Lonsdale's play "The Fake." Though Godfrey Tearle was born in the United States, he has appeared there only once, in "Carnival," which was not altogether successful.

Another ambitious company of English revue stars is headed for Broadway to try to duplicate the success of Beatrice Lillie and Gertrude Lawrence. This revue will be staged by Laurillard and will have as its stars Blinnie Hale, a dainty English miss of tender years who has won instantaneous success in revue; Stanley Lapino, who comes from an old family of comedians and who, given the proper material, is one of the best of England's musical comedians, and Jack Melford, son of an old English actor.

The best war play of the past season, "Havoc," will be transferred bodily to New York in the Fall with the English cast, including Miss Joyce Barbour, William Kershaw and Richard Bird.

Godfrey Tearle, brother of Conway Tearle, who is well known to American film fans, sails for New York this month to appear in Frederick Lonsdale's play "The Fake." Though Godfrey Tearle was born in the United States, he has appeared there only once, in "Carnival," which was not altogether successful.

Another ambitious company of English revue stars is headed for Broadway to try to duplicate the success of Beatrice Lillie and Gertrude Lawrence. This revue will be staged by Laurillard and will have as its stars Blinnie Hale, a dainty English miss of tender years who has won instantaneous success in revue; Stanley Lapino, who comes from an old family of comedians and who, given the proper material, is one of the best of England's musical comedians, and Jack Melford, son of an old English actor.

The best war play of the past season, "Havoc," will be transferred bodily to New York in the Fall with the English cast, including Miss Joyce Barbour, William Kershaw and Richard Bird.

Godfrey Tearle, brother of Conway Tearle, who is well known to American film fans, sails for New York this month to appear in Frederick Lonsdale's play "The Fake." Though Godfrey Tearle was born in the United States, he has appeared there only once, in "Carnival," which was not altogether successful.

Another ambitious company of English revue stars is headed for Broadway to try to duplicate the success of Beatrice Lillie and Gertrude Lawrence. This revue will be staged by Laurillard and will have as its stars Blinnie Hale, a dainty English miss of tender years who has won instantaneous success in revue; Stanley Lapino, who comes from an old family of comedians and who, given the proper material, is one of the best of England's musical comedians, and Jack Melford, son of an old English actor.

The best war play of the past season, "Havoc," will be transferred bodily to New York in the Fall with the English cast, including Miss Joyce Barbour, William Kershaw and Richard Bird.

Godfrey Tearle, brother of Conway Tearle, who is well known to American film fans, sails for New York this month to appear in Frederick Lonsdale's play "The Fake." Though Godfrey Tearle was born in the United States, he has appeared there only once, in "Carnival," which was not altogether successful.

Another ambitious company of English revue stars is headed for Broadway to try to duplicate the success of Beatrice Lillie and Gertrude Lawrence. This revue will be staged by Laurillard and will have as its stars Blinnie Hale, a dainty English miss of tender years who has won instantaneous success in revue; Stanley Lapino, who comes from an old family of comedians and who, given the proper material, is one of the best of England's musical comedians, and Jack Melford, son of an old English actor.

The best war play of the past season, "Havoc," will be transferred bodily to New York in the Fall with the English cast, including Miss Joyce Barbour, William Kershaw and Richard Bird.

Godfrey Tearle, brother of Conway Tearle, who is well known to American film fans, sails for New York this month to appear in Frederick Lonsdale's play "The Fake." Though Godfrey Tearle was born in the United States, he has appeared there only once, in "Carnival," which was not altogether successful.

Another ambitious company of English revue stars is headed for Broadway to try to duplicate the success of Beatrice Lillie and Gertrude Lawrence. This revue will be staged by Laurillard and will have as its stars Blinnie Hale, a dainty English miss of tender years who has won instantaneous success in revue; Stanley Lapino, who comes from an old family of comedians and who, given the proper material, is one of the best of England's musical comedians, and Jack Melford, son of an old English actor.

The best war play of the past season, "Havoc," will be transferred bodily to New York in the Fall with the English cast, including Miss Joyce Barbour, William Kershaw and Richard Bird.

Godfrey Tearle, brother of Conway Tearle, who is well known to American film fans, sails for New York this month to appear in Frederick Lonsdale's play "The Fake." Though Godfrey Tearle was born in the United States, he has appeared there only once, in "Carnival," which was not altogether successful.

Another ambitious company of English revue stars is headed for Broadway to try to duplicate the success of Beatrice Lillie and Gertrude Lawrence. This revue will be staged by Laurillard and will have as its stars Blinnie Hale, a dainty English miss of tender years who has won instantaneous success in revue; Stanley Lapino, who comes from an old family of comedians and who, given the proper material, is one of the best of England's musical comedians, and Jack Melford, son of an old English actor.

MIAMI, FLORIDA, TO OPEN COSTLY NEW RACE TRACK SOON

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—About three-quarters of a million dollars will be expended on the new race track now nearing completion at Miami, Florida, according to E. G. Sewell, President of the Miami Chamber of Commerce, who arrived here from the South recently.

"This is the estimate," said Sewell, "of President Joseph M. Smoot, of the Miami Jockey Club, who is now in New York. Covered with a deep layer of clay-colored marl from the beds of the Florida Everglades, the track is said by experts to be one of the fastest in the country. The skeleton of the grand stand of reinforced concrete and steel is up, and it will be something new in race track grandstands, as it will permit people to stand on the levels without interfering with the vision of those behind them. It is the plan to conduct the races on a very high plane, and we hope to attract a class of racing people similar to those attendant at Saratoga."

The track is located at Hialeah, about three miles from the city limits of Miami, and will be reached by a new branch line now being rushed to completion by the Florida East Coast Railway Company, and by many oiled roads, motor buses and automobiles.

Adjacent to the race track are the jai alai courts, where jai alai, said to be the fastest game in the world, will be played at night under arc light. Nearby is a grey-

ing Miss Joyce Barbour, William Kershaw and Richard Bird.

Oscar Asche, who is now touring Australia, also threatens an American tour.

"The Street Singer," a musical comedy now in high favor in London, will be transferred to Broadway in the late Fall. If its season here is near an end when American production is ready it is possible that some of the English cast, including Harry Welshman, Phyllis Dare and A. W. Bascomb, will be invited to play in the American production.

Another ambitious company of English revue stars is headed for Broadway to try to duplicate the success of Beatrice Lillie and Gertrude Lawrence. This revue will be staged by Laurillard and will have as its stars Blinnie Hale, a dainty English miss of tender years who has won instantaneous success in revue; Stanley Lapino, who comes from an old family of comedians and who, given the proper material, is one of the best of England's musical comedians, and Jack Melford, son of an old English actor.

The best war play of the past season, "Havoc," will be transferred bodily to New York in the Fall with the English cast, including Miss Joyce Barbour, William Kershaw and Richard Bird.

Godfrey Tearle, brother of Conway Tearle, who is well known to American film fans, sails for New York this month to appear in Frederick Lonsdale's play "The Fake." Though Godfrey Tearle was born in the United States, he has appeared there only once, in "Carnival," which was not altogether successful.

Another ambitious company of English revue stars is headed for Broadway to try to duplicate the success of Beatrice Lillie and Gertrude Lawrence. This revue will be staged by Laurillard and will have as its stars Blinnie Hale, a dainty English miss of tender years who has won instantaneous success in revue; Stanley Lapino, who comes from an old family of comedians and who, given the proper material, is one of the best of England's musical comedians, and Jack Melford, son of an old English actor.

The best war play of the past season, "Havoc," will be transferred bodily to New York in the Fall with the English cast, including Miss Joyce Barbour, William Kershaw and Richard Bird.

Godfrey Tearle, brother of Conway Tearle, who is well known to American film fans, sails for New York this month to appear in Frederick Lonsdale's play "The Fake." Though Godfrey Tearle was born in the United States, he has appeared there only once, in "Carnival," which was not altogether successful.

Another ambitious company of English revue stars is headed for Broadway to try to duplicate the success of Beatrice Lillie and Gertrude Lawrence. This revue will be staged by Laurillard and will have as its stars Blinnie Hale, a dainty English miss of tender years who has won instantaneous success in revue; Stanley Lapino, who comes from an old family of comedians and who, given the proper material, is one of the best of England's musical comedians, and Jack Melford, son of an old English actor.

The best war play of the past season, "Havoc," will be transferred bodily to New York in the Fall with the English cast, including Miss Joyce Barbour, William Kershaw and Richard Bird.

Godfrey Tearle, brother of Conway Tearle, who is well known to American film fans, sails for New York this month to appear in Frederick Lonsdale's play "The Fake." Though Godfrey Tearle was born in the United States, he has appeared there only once, in "Carnival," which was not altogether successful.

Another ambitious company of English revue stars is headed for Broadway to try to duplicate the success of Beatrice Lillie and Gertrude Lawrence. This revue will be staged by Laurillard and will have as its stars Blinnie Hale, a dainty English miss of tender years who has won instantaneous success in revue; Stanley Lapino, who comes from an old family of comedians and who, given the proper material, is one of the best of England's musical comedians, and Jack Melford, son of an old English actor.

The best war play of the past season, "Havoc," will be transferred bodily to New York in the Fall with the English cast, including Miss Joyce Barbour, William Kershaw and Richard Bird.

Godfrey Tearle, brother of Conway Tearle, who is well known to American film fans, sails for New York this month to appear in Frederick Lonsdale's play "The Fake." Though Godfrey Tearle was born in the United States, he has appeared there only once, in "Carnival," which was not altogether successful.

Another ambitious company of English revue stars is headed for Broadway to try to duplicate the success of Beatrice Lillie and Gertrude Lawrence. This revue will be staged by Laurillard and will have as its stars Blinnie Hale, a dainty English miss of tender years who has won instantaneous success in revue; Stanley Lapino, who comes from an old family of comedians and who, given the proper material, is one of the best of England's musical comedians, and Jack Melford, son of an old English actor.

The best war play of the past season, "Havoc," will be transferred bodily to New York in the Fall with the English cast, including Miss Joyce Barbour, William Kershaw and Richard Bird.

Godfrey Tearle, brother of Conway Tearle, who is well known to American film fans, sails for New York this month to appear in Frederick Lonsdale's play "The Fake." Though Godfrey Tearle was born in the United States, he has appeared there only once, in "Carnival," which was not altogether successful.

Another ambitious company of English revue stars is headed for Broadway to try to duplicate the success of Beatrice Lillie and Gertrude Lawrence. This revue will be staged by Laurillard and will have as its stars Blinnie Hale, a dainty English miss of tender years who has won instantaneous success in revue; Stanley Lapino, who comes from an old family of comedians and who, given the proper material, is one of the best of England's musical comedians, and Jack Melford, son of an old English actor.

The best war play of the past season, "Havoc," will be transferred bodily to New York in the Fall with the English cast, including Miss Joyce Barbour, William Kershaw and Richard Bird.

Godfrey Tearle, brother of Conway Tearle, who is well known to American film fans, sails for New York this month to appear in Frederick Lonsdale's play "The Fake." Though Godfrey Tearle was born in the United States, he has appeared there only once, in "Carnival," which was not altogether successful.

Another ambitious company of English revue stars is headed for Broadway to try to duplicate the success of Beatrice Lillie and Gertrude Lawrence. This revue will be staged by Laurillard and will have as its stars Blinnie Hale, a dainty English miss of tender years who has won instantaneous success in revue; Stanley Lapino, who comes from an old family of comedians and who, given the proper material, is one of the best of England's musical comedians, and Jack Melford, son of an old English actor.

The best war play of the past season, "Havoc," will be transferred bodily to New York in the Fall with the English cast, including Miss Joyce Barbour, William Kershaw and Richard Bird.

Godfrey Tearle, brother of Conway Tearle, who is well known to American film fans, sails for New York this month to appear in Frederick Lonsdale's play "The Fake." Though Godfrey Tearle was born in the United States, he has appeared there only once, in "Carnival," which was not altogether successful.

Another ambitious company of English revue stars is headed for Broadway to try to duplicate the success of Beatrice Lillie and Gertrude Lawrence. This revue will be staged by Laurillard and will have as its stars Blinnie Hale, a dainty English miss of tender years who has won instantaneous success in revue; Stanley Lapino, who comes from an old family of comedians and who, given the proper material, is one of the best of England's musical comedians, and Jack Melford, son of an old English actor.

The best war play of the past season, "Havoc," will be transferred bodily to New York in the Fall with the English cast, including Miss Joyce Barbour, William Kershaw and Richard Bird.

Godfrey Tearle, brother of Conway Tearle, who is well known to American film fans, sails for New York this month to appear in Frederick Lonsdale's play "The Fake." Though Godfrey Tearle was born in the United States, he has appeared there only once, in "Carnival," which was not altogether successful.

Another ambitious company of English revue stars is headed for Broadway to try to duplicate the success of Beatrice Lillie and Gertrude Lawrence. This revue will be staged by Laurillard and will have as its stars Blinnie Hale, a dainty English miss of tender years who has won instantaneous success in revue; Stanley Lapino, who comes from an old family of comedians and who, given the proper material, is one of the best of England's musical comedians, and Jack Melford, son of an old English actor.

The best war play of the past season, "Havoc," will be transferred bodily to New York in the Fall with the English cast, including Miss Joyce Barbour, William Kershaw and Richard Bird.

Godfrey Tearle, brother of Conway Tearle, who is well known to American film fans, sails for New York this month to appear in Frederick Lonsdale's play "The Fake." Though Godfrey Tearle was born in the United States, he has appeared there only once, in "Carnival," which was not altogether successful.

Another ambitious company of English revue stars is headed for Broadway to try to duplicate the success of Beatrice Lillie and Gertrude Lawrence. This revue will be staged by Laurillard and will have as its stars Blinnie Hale, a dainty English miss of tender years who has won instantaneous success in revue; Stanley Lapino, who comes from an old family of comedians and who, given the proper material, is one of the best of England's musical comedians, and Jack Melford, son of an old English actor.

The best war play of the past season, "Havoc," will be transferred bodily to New York in the Fall with the English cast, including Miss Joyce Barbour, William Kershaw and Richard Bird.

Godfrey Tearle, brother of Conway Tearle, who is well known to American film fans, sails for New York this month to appear in Frederick Lonsdale's play "The Fake." Though Godfrey Tearle was born in the United States, he has appeared there only once, in "Carnival," which was not altogether successful.

Another ambitious company of English revue stars is headed for Broadway to try to duplicate the success of Beatrice Lillie and Gertrude Lawrence. This revue will be staged by Laurillard and will have as its stars Blinnie Hale, a dainty English miss of tender years who has won instantaneous success in revue; Stanley Lapino, who comes from an old family of comedians and who, given the proper material, is one of the best of England's musical comedians, and Jack Melford, son of an old English actor.

The best war play of the past season, "Havoc," will be transferred bodily to New York in the Fall with the English cast, including Miss Joyce Barbour, William Kershaw and Richard Bird.

Hundreds of taxis will be put on in the service.

Announce Dates

Smoot has announced the following purses and dates: Starting Thursday, January 15, 1925, for a meeting of fifty-one days to close on Saturday, March 14, there will be a disbursement of an average of $7,500 in daily purses, with overnight handicaps worth $1,500 to $2,000 and $2,500. There will be no stake fixtures for the first season.

One thousand and eighteen stables are now ready. They were designed by veteran racing men. Horsemen have been notified that the track will be ready to receive their mounts November 1, 1924. The officials for the first meeting include: Stewards, John I. Day, Henry J. Morris and John B. Campbell. The judges at the finish will be J. S. Wallace and Albert Burien. The starter will be Mars Cassidy; timer, Charles Hughes; paddock judge, Steve B. Billings; patrol judge, William Dugan, Mr. Campbell will also act as racing secretary.

The track is being built under the supervision of Luke A. Cassidy, and he will be business manager of the track. Elaborate plans are under way for beautifying the grounds with tropical shrubbery. Cassidy already has applications for stables from the leading horse-racing establishments in the country. These include Harry Payne Whitney, Payne Whitney, George D. Widener, Joseph T. Widener, Richard T. Wilson, Walter J. Salmon, General James A. Buchanan, A. C. Bostwick, Harry F. Sinclair, J. S. Cosden and many others, who are also stockholders in the track.

Other Attractions Adjacent to the race track are the jai alai courts, where jai alai, said to be the fastest game in the world, will be played at night under arc light. Nearby is a grey-

ing Miss Joyce Barbour, William Kershaw and Richard Bird.