No Society

Due to the fact that most of Ashland attended the Jackson County Fair on Ashland Day, Thursday, there is little society for this issue of the paper. The social season is just starting and there is little at the present time but this winter promises to be one of the most active social seasons that Ashland has ever experienced.

Entertains at Luncheon

One of the most pleasant social events of the week occurred Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clarence Dayhoff, in the form of a luncheon given in honor of Mrs. Harry Strain of Dunsmuir, who is visiting at the home of Mrs. Cuthbertson.

Those present were Mrs. J. D. Cuthbertson and daughter, Irene, Mrs. Lee Bromley, Mrs. Strain and son, Dicky Dayhoff and the hostess, Mrs. Dayhoff.

Slate-Lavering Marriage

Miss Ellen Slate and Mr. Leo Lavering were married recently by the Rev. P. K. Hammond at the Episcopal church. The ring ceremony was used. They will make their home there.

At the W. C. T. U. county convention Monday afternoon at Lithia Park, Mrs. Leavitt and Mrs. Alice Jillson were appointed delegates to the State Convention of the W. C. T. U. which will be held at Corvallis October sixth to eighth.

Through a mistake in proof-reading a line was omitted in the recent report of the convention and the name of Mrs. Leonard, who was re-elected president of the county W. C. T. U. was omitted. The officers which were elected are as follows: Mrs. S. L. Leonard, of Medford, president; Mrs. Alice Jillson, Ashland, vice-president; Mrs. Edith Prescott, Medford corresponding secretary and Mrs. C. W. Fraley of Ashland, treasurer.

Missionary Meets

The Woman's Home Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. Frank Bess Friday afternoon. The regular business session was held. Delegates were appointed for the convention which will be held in Grants Pass in a short time.

A very interesting program was given. Devotional exercises were led by Mrs. Carol Pratt, followed by a reading by Mrs. Ralph Billings. Extracts from readings were read by Mrs. G. G. Eubanks.
