LACK OF COOPERATION

Visitors to Crater Lake have reported a lack of cooperation in assisting the tourists to understand and appreciate the many scenic points in the lake district and in other parts of southern Oregon.

One tourist party reported recently they drove to the lake's edge, looked over the cliffs for a few minutes Elections and then turned about and returned to the Pacific Highway heading for Portland. They thought the cliffs and the water were the only attractions at the lake.

Nobody was there to tell them of the beauful drive Delinquency around the lake, of the boat trip on the lake, the loop drive back through Klamath Falls and Ashland, the Lake of the Woods, Diamond Lake, the Oregon Caves and the dozens of other points of interest in southern Oregon.
