OPPORTUNITY

(By Walter Malone.) They do me wrong who say I come no more When once I knock and fall to find you in; For every day I stand outside your door

And bid you wake and rise to fight and win. Wait not for precious chances passed away! Weep not for golden ages on the wane!

Each night I burn the records of the day— At sunrise every soul is born again! Dost thou behold thy lost youth all aghast? Dost reel from righteous Re-tribution's blow?

Then turn the blotted archives of the past. And find the future's pages white as snow. Art thou a mourner. Rouse thee from thy spell: Art thou a sinner, Sins may be forgiven;

Each morning gives thee wings to flee from hell, Each night a star to guide thy feet to heaven. Laugh like a boy at splendors that have sped, To vanish joys be blind and deaf and dumb;

My judgments seal the dead past with its dead, But never bind a moment yet to come.

Through deep in mire, wring not your hands and weep; I lend my arm to all who say "I can!" No shame-faced outcast ever sank so deep

But yet might rise and be again a man!

FEARED HE WOULD HAVE TO GIVE UP HIS WORK

Took Tanlac at Druggist's Advice and Is Now in Fine Condition, Says Pierce.

SIDNEY C. PIERCE

"There is nothing too good for me to say about Tanlac, for the medicine has made a new and different man of me," is the emphatic statement of Sidney C. Pierce, 1607 1-2 Santee St., Los Angeles. Mr. Pierce has been a chief for 30 years and is regarded as an expert in all matters pertaining to culinary work.

"A complication of stomach, liver and kidney disorders, indigestion, constipation, dizziness and shattered nerves had weakened me down until it looked like I would have to give up my work entirely. It all followed an attack of carbon dioxide poisoning about a year ago and my health was just about wrecked.

"Finally a druggist advised Tanlac and the first six bottles put me on my feet. So I kept on taking it along during the year and am now in the best condition I have known in years."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 million bottles sold.

ing with a fringe of pearls, in vertical strips, around the body. Two shades of blue lake, delicate and deep blue, are united by rose and gold embroidery and white velvet, to make another stunning stairway gown in this same collection.

The diagonal closing is also used in many of the closings of bodices and even tunics, and this goes to make the stairway gown in a number of new models. Jean Mangin is showing a new velvet, with a diagonal closing, bordered with novel horsehair fringe in black and white, reaching from the hem to the point on the shoulder.

LAKEHURST, N. J., Sept. 24.—Two routes have been laid out for the flight of the navy dirigible Shenandoan to Seattle, which probably will start October 3rd.

The fair weather route is over York, Pa., Dayton, O., Little Rock, Ark., Fort Worth and El Paso, Texas, Tucson, Ariz., San Diego, San Francisco and Eureka, Cal., Astoria, Oregon, and Seattle. The unfavorable route covers Richmond, Va., Atlanta, Ga., and the same itinerary from Fort Worth, Texas.

Paris Style Hint—

PARIS, Sept. 25.—The "stairway gown" is one of the newest fantasies of Autumn fashions in the French capital. Needless to say, it goes up and down, sometimes one way and sometimes the other, very much like the disposition of black Topsey. Several models are vertically striped, with bands of regularly diminishing lengths.

The Oil Stove Has Grown Up

Few could have foreseen in the oil stove of their childhood days, the foundation of the present day Perfection—a range of beauty and convenience—as big and powerful as the gas stove.

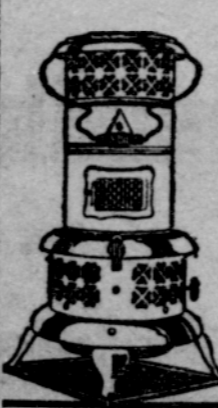

This grown up oil range does not smoke or smell. It cooks the minute it is lighted. Its flame is as simply regulated and as steady as a gas flame. It leaves no soot on pots or pans to kill the housewife's enjoyment of her perfectly cooked meals.

And best of all by burning oil, the universal fuel, it brings to women everywhere, a splendid, efficient cook stove which banishes forever the discomfort and hard labor of cooking with coal or wood.

Perfection's dependability and year 'round usefulness is already known to more than four and a half million satisfied users.
