PORTLAND LADY GAINED 65 LBS.

Mrs. Wolf Was Told She Could Never Get Well—But Tanlac Saved Her.

"My case had been pronounced hopeless, so I don't think it amiss to credit Tanlac with my being alive and in such good health now," is the striking statement of Mrs. Mollie Wolf, 828 East 7th St., Portland, Oregon.

"In a short time after I began taking Tanlac I felt a wonderful change coming over me. First of all my stomach trouble stopped a splendid digestion and appetite developed and the way I regained my weight, health and strength was the surprise of my life. I now weigh 160 lbs., and am in the best health of my life. In fact, I couldn't feel better. Tanlac deserves only the highest praise."

SOCIETY

THE MAGIC SPELL

(By Ellie Tatum Diehnal, in the Kansas City Times.) If all the magic known of old were mine, dear, Your raiment would be cloth-of-gold and lace, Your jewels would be brighter far and larger Than worn by king or queen of any race.

I'd build a fairy castle for your dwelling Where pain and care could never grieve you more, And worldly storms might rage and be unheeded Whene'er you choose to close its magic door.

If all the magic known of old were mine, dear, I'd weave a magic spell around your heart To bring you back to me across the distance And charm from you all longing to depart.

Your fairy castle should be named Contentment, A paradise where sin could never dwell. But love, true love, would bid with you forever— And only God could break the magic spell!

Civic Club—

The Civic Club will meet at the club house next Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 and an excellent program will be given. Miss Grace Chamberlain will be the main speaker of the day and will give a report on the convention of the Federation of Women's Clubs of which she is state vice-president, which was held at Los Angeles this winter. There will be music also, but it has not yet been decided what will be given in that line. The hostesses in charge of this meeting are Mesdames H. O. Anderson, Grace Andrews and Eugenia Atkinson. The hostesses are being selected alphabetically this year, and this will give everyone a chance and no one will be left out. Final plans for the Civic Club rummage sale will also be made at this meeting. The sale is to be held on October 10 and 11. During the 8th and 9th of October the clubhouse will be open to receive anything that is brought in, or if anyone has suitable things for the sale and cannot send them to the club house, they should notify one of the ladies in charge or call Mrs. P. K. Hammond, president.

A delightful party was given at the home of Mrs. H. E. Huls on Nursery street Monday afternoon when she entertained some of her neighbors. The afternoon was spent in doing fancy work and in conversation. At the close of the afternoon dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. A very enjoyable time was had by all.

Those present to enjoy the affair were Mesdames Ara, Merritt, Hensley, Bryan, Hays, Hagar, Stewart and the charming hostess, Mrs. Huls.

Flowers and jewels are now more important than the gown itself, which one only chooses to set off the necklace. Deauville brought the sheath-gown to the foreground. In many cases it is a simple slip of some exquisite fabric and entirely free from trimming or embroidery. It is in the jewels that fashionable women allow their fancies to wander. One sees two diamond necklaces flung about the neck of a woman wearing an unpretentious robe of white velvet. A curious headdress of real pearls and diamonds covers the head of a smart dancer whose gown is only a simple slip of silver. A French princess often appears in frocks of pale green, wearing charming green pearls to match. She also wears an ancient Egyptian bracelet above the elbow and very long earrings that seem to touch the shoulders.

DEEPER FAITH IN CHURCH AIM GREAT MOVEMENT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1. — To awaken a greater interest in the church on the part of all America is the object of the joint evangelistic campaign of many church bodies working under the leadership of the Commission on Evangelism of the Federal Council of Churches announced recently. It will be launched in most sections on Sunday, October 5, and continue till Easter.

The endeavor will be much wider than a "Go to Church" campaign, though the necessity of church attendance will be stressed. Four things will be attempted by churches taking part during the coming fall, winter and spring, according to church leaders. They are:

1. A friendly visitation to the homes of each community throughout the country.

2. A personal invitation to unaffiliated men and women to join the church.

3. A Rally Day to call back to the church from summer vacation all church members.

October 5 has been suggested as Rally Day for the simultaneous launching of the program throughout the country. The findings and plans of the "evangelistic effort," decided upon at a retreat held by the Commission on Evangelism of the Federal Council of Churches at Northfield last June, have just been published. They were worked out during the summer by the denominational secretaries for evangelism and church leaders.

During recent years the period preceding Easter has come to be generally accepted as the time for concerted emphasis on strengthening the local congregation. The church leaders believe that there should be a similar period of intensive effort this fall.

Under the plans sent to the churches, preliminary work will begin at once. Surveys will be made of communities by groups of churches or by single churches where there is only one or when one only takes part in the movement. Committees will work on lists of possible church members.

An effort will be made on "Rally Day" to secure the attendance of all members, adherents and those who have "lost interest" at the services and seek to interest them in the church work. This campaign will differ from most in that it will not be carried on by a visiting preacher or by the minister alone. It is proposed that the laymen shall do most of the work under the direction of the pastor.

In summing up the effort for Rally Day, Dr. Charles L. Goodall, secretary of the Federal Council's Commission on Evangelism, said the plan has two objectives:

"First, to reinterest the absentee church member who does not take church attendance seriously as a duty.

"Second, to secure the attendance of every possible person in the community who is not now a church member."

OREGON HISTORY ESSAY; HUDSON BAY IS SUBJECT

The Oregon Historical Society has selected "The Hudson's Bay Company and the Oregon Country" as the subject for the 1925 C. C. Beekman History Prizes and Medals. The prizes are four in number, viz., sixty dollars; second, fifty dollars; third, forty dollars; and fourth, thirty dollars; and will be awarded for the best four original essays on the above named subject written and submitted by girls or boys over fifteen years of age and under eighteen years of age, attending any public or private school, academy, seminary, college, university, or other educational institution within the State of Oregon. Each of the four prize winners will also receive a handsome bronze medal.

The conditions governing the competition are as follows:

(1) The essay submitted in competition must not exceed two thousand words in length.

(2) The essay may be in handwriting or in typewritten form, preferably upon paper of commercial letter size, either ruled or unruled, the several sheets being numbered consecutively and written on one side only, with blank space of about one and one-quarter inches at top and left-hand margins.

(3) The essay shall be accompanied by a separate sheet containing the name and postoffice address of the writer, the date of his or her birth, and the name of the school attended.

(4) There shall also be delivered with the essay a certificate signed by a teacher or instructor of the educational institution attended, stating that the writer of the essay is a pupil or student attending the same.

(5) In order to be considered in competition the essay must be delivered, by mail or in person, to The Oregon Historical Society, Public Auditorium, 253 Market Street, Portland, Oregon, not later than March 1, 1925.

(6) All essays submitted in competition will be numbered and submitted, without the names of the writers or other identifying marks, the three judges selected by the undersigned committee. (7) All competitive essays will be judged according to their general merit and excellent; but the judges will also take into consideration, in passing thereon, neatness of manuscript, accurate orthography, correct grammar and composition, and purity and clarity of diction.

The Oregon State Library in Salem has a reading list or bibliography upon the above named subject which will be sent to any Oregon Student on request. Books pertaining to the subject are obtainable in most Oregon public libraries. Oregon has a system of local libraries, supplemented in many cases by county library systems, and in all cases by the Oregon State Library. Students desiring such books should apply first to the local library, which, if not having the books, should secure them from the county and state libraries. If the local library cannot give this service, which is usual, or if there is no local library, the student should write directly to the Oregon State Library in Salem, which makes loans of books free of charge, except postage, to all citizens of Oregon. In writing to the Oregon State Library students should state the information desired and not merely confine requests to some particular book or books sought, thereby enabling the State Library to substitute other material in case any book requested is not available.
