SHASTA INDIANS PLAN A POW WOW

REDDING, Cal., Oct. 4.—While white men are turning to fairs and rodeos for entertainment, the Indians in the northern part of the state are turning strongly to powwows. Two powwows have been held already this season at Montgomery Creek, another at Burney and two at Baird.

The Wintun Indians are now making preparations for a powwow to be held on Stillwater Creek, and it is to last four days, beginning on October 17th. They have spent nearly $1000 building a monster dance platform, which is covered. This powwow will be the biggest of the series and will be attended, it is expected, by Indians of the Wintun, Pit and Hat Creek tribes, as well as by a good many white people.

DUNSMUIR GARAGE GUTTED BY FIRE

DUNSMUIR, Cal., Oct. 4.—The Dunsmuir Associated Garage on Butterly Avenue was gutted by fire early Thursday evening.

Effective work by the fire department and the fact that the building was of corrugated iron prevented the spread of the fire into a serious conflagration.

The blaze started in the storage loft and is believed by the proprietor, A. L. Davies, to have been set. Davies' loss is $4,000 with insurance of $18,000.

Thirteen automobiles were burned. J. C. Wagoner, owner of the building, and is off on a hunting trip.

TEMPEST DUE IN NATIONAL PASTIME, IS PREDICTION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis in exonerating Frisch, Young and Kelly, the Giant players, in connection with the O'Connell-Dolan scandal, declared that baseball is bigger than the men in it and promised further investigations after the world series.

Baseball leaders are unanimous in their agreement that the national pastime is due for a tempest of foundation-shaking proportions.

ASHLAND WINS 40 TO 0 IN PRACTICE GAME

The Ashland football team won from the Applegate team last evening by a score of 40-0. The Applegate team had never played before and very few of them had even seen one, so that the game was a walk-over for Ashland. It was played more to give practice to the teams than anything else. Glen Hale is the captain of the Applegate squad and has a good team lined up if they play more.

HOLDS READING OF LORD'S PRAYER IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 4.—The reading of the Lord's Prayer in the schools of California was declared unconstitutional by United States Attorney General Webb today.

THREE EXPELLED DUE TO COLLEGE HAZING

SALEM, Oct. 4.—Following the hazing of Harry Minto and Jack Spong here Tuesday night, Salem school officials today expelled John Drager, Donald Kelly and Vernie Perry, high school students, who were said to be responsible for the affair.

Minto and Spong were said to have been kidnapped as they emerged from a local theater, loaded into an automobile and taken to the country districts, where they were left to find their way home. Young Minto has been confined to his bed since yesterday as the result of exposure, and physicians said he was threatened with pneumonia. Spong suffered little as a result of his experience.

George Hug, superintendent of the Salem schools, said today that the three boys involved in the hazing had confessed their part in the affair. It is likely that they will appeal their cases to the school directors for final hearing.

REDWOOD HIGHWAY WILL NOT BE NEGLECTED, BUT WILL SOON BE IMPROVED

The fears of many local people that the Redwood highway is to be neglected are dissipated by an announcement from the local highway department office this morning.

The present road is to be put in excellent condition, according to Engineer J. G. Bromley, the state taking over the maintenance from the county. The funds that are available will be devoted to reshaping, resurfacing, ditching, limiting widening, replacing of wooden bridges, repairing culverts and such work. In other words, the state will recondition the present road sufficient to put it in serviceable condition and maintain it for the next few years.

By state maintenance, the road will be kept in the best of condition as the work is cared for by the local office of the highway department. Mr. Bromley states that trucks, a scarifier, blades and a caterpillar tractor, as well as other road machinery will be sent here and kept on the highway, work going on at all times to keep the road as smooth as a boulevard. Work instead of being intermittent, will be done daily. Where gravel is needed it will be added. The large rocks will be taken out. Mr. Bromley expects to get orders within the next two weeks to start work and this will be done immediately so as to have it completed by spring.

MONUMENT TO BRAVE UNIT IS UNVEILED

President Speaks At Unveiling of First Division Memorial

NEVER BE FORGOTTEN

Coolidge Outlines a Foreign Policy of Letting Americans Decide Own Plans

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Standing in the shadow of the gray slate, war and navy buildings, President Coolidge this afternoon dedicated the magnificent monument to the memory of 5,000 dead of the First Division of the A.E.F. and took occasion to outline his foreign policy, with the declaration of opposing all alliances and combinations which will tend to keep the United States from charting its own course in world affairs.

"We do not propose to let any other combination of powers make up our minds for us," he declared. "I am in favor of treaties conforming to the American policy of independent."

He predicted a revival in Europe as a result of the Dawes plan and declared Americans would reap a benefit in a larger market in Europe.

Lauding the deeds of the First Division, the president declared them to have performed "a deed never to be repaid and never to be repudiated." The unveiling of the monument was a brilliant military affair, with hundreds participating.

COUPLE FORCED TO MAKE A LANDING

The Sardine Creek correspondent of The Medford Tribune gives the following account of a forced landing which Mr. and Mrs. Joe Barrows, who left here last week for an aerial honeymoon, had to make.

Quite a little excitement was caused Friday evening by an airplane alighting in a field at the Sleepy Hollow farm at the mouth of Sardine creek, but it was only forced to alight by some radiator trouble which caused the motor to heat. The parties driving it proved to be newlyweds on their honeymoon trip from Ashland to Crescent City where the bride is engaged in teaching school. Mr. Barrows, the bridegroom, is from near Los Angeles, and as soon as Mrs. Barrows finishes her term of school, about a month, they expect to journey south. They were obliged to remain over Sunday while the trouble was adjusted, and flew gaily on their way Monday morning.

ENGINEER ESCAPES BOILER EXPLOSION

WEED, Cal., Oct. 4.—Elmer Huse, Southern Pacific fireman at Weed, had a narrow escape from death when an explosion occurred in an engine which he was firing in the roundhouse.

One piece of the engine went through the roundhouse roof. The door was blown open, flames rushing from the open door.

Huse was standing close to the door and his clothing was instantly aflame. Other employees assisted him in putting out the flames. His arms were seriously burned and he sustained other burns about the body.

Women Workers Fight to Use Maiden Instead of Their Husband's Name

DORIS STEVENS

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Comptroller-General J. R. McCarl started something when he insisted that women employed by the government must sign their husband's names, prefixed by a "Mrs.," rather than their maiden names on the payroll.

Nationally known feminist who has taken up the discussion believe the Federal official would be satisfied to let the matter drop, but not so with them, the issue is raised and they are determined to thrust it out to the bitter end.

At first the Comptroller had but one local opponent, a nurse at St. Elizabeth's Hospital who married last May, kept on working, and trying to retain her own name in Government records instead of having it changed to her husband's. Miss Ruth Hale, president of the Lucy Stone League, expressed at the time that organization's approval of the married nurse's purpose and gave reasons why a woman has a right to her own name if she desires.

But the punitive snowball is growing larger.

Down in Washington Miss Alice Paul and the National Woman's Party, have risen in protest against Comptroller McCarl's prejudice. And Miss Doris Stevens, member of that party, herself a married woman using her maiden name—she is the wife of Dudley Field Malone—has something to say on the situation.

"McCarl would like the matter closed," Miss Stevens asserts. "It is working out to his disadvantage. The further the case goes the more clearly will show the inaccuracy of the statements rendered by him on points of law."

"Our attorney found that the citations used by McCarl were, in fact, proof of the opposite contention."

"A deputation will wait upon Mr. McCarl soon."

"Like all authorities which are acting against time, McCarl will lose. So will the Department of State."

ASHLAND BOY HURT WHEN GUN EXPLODES

While out hunting yesterday afternoon with another boy whose name is not known, Johnny Freeman of this city accidentally shot himself in the hand. He was taken immediately to the hospital and the hand had to be amputated at the wrist. He is resting as well as could be expected.

The boy was sitting down and upon getting up the gun exploded, just how it is not known, but the bullet tore his hand.

Jimmy Brainard, who is at the hospital as a result of being run over by one of the Ashland-Klamath Falls stages yesterday, is reported as resting comfortable today.

LITHIANS TO PLAY FOOTBALL GAMES

The Lithians of this city have issued a challenge to other social-booster clubs of Southern Oregon to meet them on the football field, according to members of the local club who are recruiting a team which will be formidable when they walk onto the field.

Big Chief Bighorn James F. Chinoak of the Cavenem, Grants Pass, was in the city Friday evening and when informed that the local football aspirants were looking for somebody's scalp, quickly responded that, while the Cavenem did not have a regular team, he was certain they would not let the Lithians carry off the Southern Oregon championship without making them scrap for it.

The Lithians are said to have more than enough volunteers to make up a good team. The club will meet at the Ashland hotel at 6:45 Monday evening to talk over this and other questions.

RAY GREGG ARRESTED

Ray Gregg has been arrested and placed in the city jail, as a suspect in a stolen car case, according to the local police.

HUNT WRECKERS OF FAST MAIL TRAIN; 2 OF CREW KILLED

Switch Cut, Throwing Baltimore and Ohio Train in Ditch; A Posse After Vandals

AVISTON, Ill., Oct. 4.—With the aid of bloodhounds, a large posse joined in the manhunt this morning for the persons who cut a switch, causing the wreck of a fast mail train on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company.

The engineer and fireman were killed and 15 passengers on the train were seriously injured. Eight coaches went in the ditch. The citizens, enraged at the cowardly action of the wreckers, eagerly flocked to join the posse this morning.

TRAPPER MAKES BIG RECORD ON COYOTES

PORTLAND, Oct. 4.—W. C. Snyder, government trapper, shattered all records when he reported a bag of more than 300 since August 1. He works in Harney county under the direction of Stanley G. Jewett of the Portland office of the United States biological survey.

Mountain trails become automobile roads for Snyder, who used a light automobile of 1915 model to take him along his trapline. Even with the use of the car, it takes him a week to go around his route once.

Skins and skulls of exactly 300 coyotes and 12 bobcats were checked over by Mr. Jewett, who declared that the record had never been equalled in the northwest. From the fact that the northwest is the center of population of the world, as far as coyotes are concerned, Snyder has been dubbed the world's champion coyote trapper.

COUNTY UNIT SYSTEM MUST BE CONTINUED

SALEM, Oct. 4.—A county unit system of school administration must continue under that plan until the legislature can provide them with a remedy, in the opinion of Attorney General Van Winkle, who has advised J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of public instruction, that under the existing statute no provision exists for withdrawing from the county unit plan once it has been adopted.

The attorney general points out in his opinion that the legislature may enact an enabling clause, which would authorize the electorate to discard the system should it prove unsatisfactory.

It is understood here that Klamath and Lincoln counties are both contemplating attempts to overthrow the system, recently adopted in those two counties.

Two home-runs by the Giants, Kelly and Terry, constituted the total Giants' score at the second half of the ninth, with Johnson hurling masterful ball up to the ninth, having struck out 10 men. Nehf also was pitching airtight ball.

Coming up one run behind in the ninth, Bluege of the Senators singled through short, after Judge had fanned for first out. Peckinpaugh doubled against the left-field fence, scoring Bluege with the tying run. Ruel and Johnson were out. It took several minutes to clear the field of cushions which the enthusiastic Washington fans had thrown onto the field.

EX-SERVICE MAN DOES NOT GET FREE LICENSE

An ex-service man itinerant salesman of ties or some other such article applied at the city recorder's office this morning for a free permit to sell his merchandise in this city, claiming that some United States court had passed a law making this mandatory.

City Attorney Briggs happened to be in the office and stated he had never heard of such a law and that the city council of Ashland had discussed this question about a year ago, but had decided not to pass an ordinance granting free license to ex-service men, who will have to pay the regular peddler's license of $200. The ex-service man was puffed and stated he could get around this by having his merchandise delivered by mail, which of the city council cannot do.

HUNT WILD HORSES IN NEVADA FOR THE ARMY

WINNEMUCA, Nev., Oct. 4.—Wild horses are being hunted and trapped in the ranges and desert north of Winnemucca for the use of the American army.

A band of steeds recently captured in the McDermitt district are being pastured and tamed on the Reinhart ranch, near this city, and will soon be turned over to the cavalry branch of the army.

Although they have been hunted for their hides for many years thousands of wild horses still range the vast open places of Nevada.
