WHERE THE SHADOWS LIE LONG (By Clinton Scollard in the New York Sun)

Where the shadows lie long at the verge Of the wood, and the leaves like the surge Of low seas murmur soft overhead, Fain would I, with the moss for a bed, Outstretch while the waves of the wheat Are a shimmer, a-swoon in the heat, And the stream, with its ripples agileam, Flows by like the River of Dream! There is silence, and then there is song, Where the shadows lie long!

There is song, rapture hidden somewhere That suddenly floods on the air— A soul in the sound—and then dies; There is perfume to lull and entice The sense, with its subtleness deep, To enter the portals of Sleep. You may fancy old Time is at pause, (Ah, would the gray scythe-bearing were!)

There is never the wraith of a wrong Where the shadows lie long! Come then, leave the jostle behind! Be out and away with the wind! Heed the cry that we each of us knew When we trod earth's fresh paths in the dew

Of the dawn, with the sun at the rim Of the world, and day lifting its hymn! The virginal marvelment still Waits over the crest of the hill Afar from the chattering throng Where the shadows lie long.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS Tuesday, Oct. 7. Civic Club meets at club house at 2:30. Interesting program. Everyone is urged to attend.

Tuesday, Oct. 7. W. C. T. U. meets at Library at 2:30. Regular business meeting.

Wednesday, Oct. 8. Junior High Circle P. T. A. meets at Junior High School.

Thursday, Oct. 9. Ladies Elks Club meets in club room for regular card party.

Friday and Saturday, Oct. 10 and 11. Civic Club will hold annual rummage sale at club house. Don't forget to donate anything you may not need and be sure to attend.

P. N. G. Club— The Past Noble Grand Club met at the home of Mrs. Gilbert Friday afternoon for their regular meeting. A very enjoyable time was spent in doing fancy work and conversation.

At the close of the afternoon delightful refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Gilbert and Mrs. Wiltshire.

Dinner Party— A charming dinner party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Day on Baum street Friday noon. The table was beautifully decorated with roses, forming a lovely background for the delicious three-course dinner that was served. Following a short afternoon Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Day left for the south where they will take a boat to Honolulu, their home. The guests of the occasion were Mesdames and Messrs C. J. Day, Mowatt, Wm. Day and Mr. Tozer.

W. C. T. U.— The W. C. T. U. will meet Tuesday afternoon at the Library. The Children's Farm Home at Corvallis, which is taken care of by this association, has asked for dried or canned fruit to be sent to them. The fruit is to be left at the White House Grocery, as the local union has made arrangements there. The organization sent a large amount of fruit to the home last year and it was so greatly appreciated that they are asking for more. Everyone, whether a member of the W. C. T. U. or not, is asked to donate fruit to this good cause and the organization will gladly handle it.

Missionary— The Missionary society of the Christian Church met at the church parlors Friday afternoon. The business meeting was held, conducted by the president, Mrs. Floyd Putnam. A fine program was then given under the direction of Mrs. Kilgore. The financial status of the club was read and it was reported that $71 was paid into the special Golden Jubilee offering.

Upper Valley— The Upper Valley Community Club met at the home of Mrs. W. D. Jackson last Thursday for an all day session. The meeting was given over to millinery with Miss Brewster, home demonstration agent, capably conducting the meeting and assisting with the hats. A great deal of progress was made, some practically finishing their hats, and the ladies were very much pleased with the work of Miss Brewster. At noon a covered dish luncheon was enjoyed. About twelve members were present, others dropping in for the afternoon. This was a special meeting in order to prepare for the millinery course and get the materials ready for the regular meetings. The next meeting will be held October fifteenth and will be in the nature of a reception in honor of Miss Brewster. It will be given at the home of Mrs. A. C. Joy from two o'clock until five. Plans have not been completed but will be announced later.

Pollyanna Girls— The Pollyanna Girl's class of the Presbyterian Sunday School gave a very delightful party at the home of Elsie Allen recently. Each member of the class dressed as a boy and invited a girl friend. Games were played and Miss Bertha Borrall gave three excellent readings. At the close of the evening dainty refreshments were served.

Those enjoying the evening were Misses Bertha Borrall, teacher, Virginia Frost, Ora Wilson, Dorris Hitchcock, Evelyn Taylor, Lila Wheatman, Lorraine Brookmiller, Ramona Wise, Elsie Allen, Beulah Medley, Afton Madden, Frances Chisholm, Catherine Pittenger and Mrs. Peterson and Mrs. Hitchcock.

I brought a truck load of bargain counter goods from Portland last week, all of which will be sold accordingly. Auto Robes, Waste Dragsaw, Halters, and lots of army goods. Come in early while they last.

PEIL'S CORNER

Paris Style Hint— PARIS, Oct. 6.—In these days of the wandering waist-line, one is not surprised at the Empire gown returning to favor. A few of the chic designers are showing the Empire cut for evening gowns that take one back to the days of Josephine — and Madame Recamier, reclining on her couch. Whether they will succeed or not is still a question. It is a far cry from the hip-line (where the waistline has been lingering) to that under the arm-pits, and it remains to be seen if women will take up the "old-new" mode.

The Maison Anna, which, by the way, was formerly Madeleine et Madeleine, is making evening gowns that show the Empire influence in the fitting of the front in some cases, while in others the high waist-line is marked with a cross-line of embroidery on a perfectly straight gown. The characteristic line of the house is one that makes for grace and dignity, and the director believes that the Empire line is an important factor.

COMB SAGE TEA IN FADED OR GRAY HAIR

If Mixed with Sulphur it Darkens so Naturally Nobody can Tell.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other Ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

Well-known druggists say everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.

CAN'T TELL VALUE IN DOLLARS & CENTS Says Oregon Man In Praising Tanlac.

"Not in 20 years have I enjoyed better health or felt so well generally as I do since taking Tanlac," is the glowing tribute paid the famous treatment by O. J. Gregoire, a retired ranchman, 371 E. 50th St., Portland, Oregon.

"I had been in a weak, debilitated condition and getting worse for 6 or 7 years. My appetite had quit, often my stomach wouldn't take 'grub', my nerves were upset, I had no strength or energy and, in fact, my whole system was in a bad way.

"The way my health and strength returned after I got hold of Tanlac filled me with gladness and gratitude words can't express. I was down to 118 lbs., but I now weigh 138, which is just right for me. To feel so well at my age, 76, is certainly something to be thankful for. I just can't estimate in dollars and cents what Tanlac has been worth to me."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 million bottles sold.
