Society LIVING LIFE OVER James A. L. Conway, Malden, Mass. I was sitting in the twilight, Listening to a singer fair, As her voice so full of pathos floated on the evening air. Back to childhood's days it took me, To my dear old mother's knee, As I listened sweetly singing, "Songs my mammy sang to me." Playing happy games of childhood, Once again I seemed to be, As I listened unto Harlan "I've got my fingers crossed; you can't touch me." Love's young dreams again steal o'er me, And I see a face so fair, As I hear Gillette's voice singing, Tell me darling, "Would you care." Love's old story, sweet and tender As in days of "Auld Lang Syne," Harry Anthony is singing, "Love me and the world is mine." Then as evenings shadows darkened, O'er my heart a sadness stole, While Marie Narelle sang sweetly, "Silver threads among the gold." In an hour I'd lived life over, From my childhood and my toys, Through scenes and days, that long had vanished With their sorrows and their joys. When at last my musings ended, I declare; it made me laugh! To think I'd lived life o'er again, In an hour with the Phonograph. CALENDAR OF EVENTS Friday and Saturday, Oct. 10 and 11. Birthday Party—Mrs. Eric Weran charmingly entertained at her home on Alta Avenue Saturday afternoon in honor of the first birthday of her nephew, John Bergstrom and Jack Kittridge. The afternoon was spent in playing games, the mothers present helping with the small children. The rooms were decorated with beautiful dahlias and at a late hour the guests adjourned to the dining room, where they were greeted by a large birthday cake, and other delicious refreshments. Each guest received an individual cake and the two little boys in whose honor the party was given had a cake of their own. Just before leaving a fish pond was brought in and each guest was given a present and a bucket of candy. Those present were Dorothy, Norman, David, Katherine, Harvey Bergstrom, David Owen, Ruth and Jean Billings, Junior Kittridge, James Smith, Mesdames Bergstrom, Kittridge, Bert Smith John Bergstrom, Jack Kittridge and the charming hostess, Mrs. Weran. Entertains at Home—The Rainbow Class of girls were entertained last Saturday afternoon at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Grace Andrews. The Pollyanna Girls were the guests of the class. About seventeen girls were present, and all enjoyed the afternoon exceedingly. Piano and violin music, merry song and story occupied the time until tea was served. Misses Elbert Greer and Evelyn Taylor presided over the tea table and the Misses Catherine Pittinger and Ramona Wise assisted the charming hostess in serving. Paris Style Hint—PARIS, Oct. 9. — The Directoire is the leading period influence to be seen in the models coming from the fashionable designers this season. Sometimes it is only hinted at by the double cape-collared that makes one think of Napoleon and his generals; again it may be only the levers and flaring cuffs that bespeak the Directoire period. There is a strong suggestion of it in every major collection — modernized of course — but created with a certain fidelity to the epoch which makes the gowns particularly charming and different. Directoire collars and cuffs are to be seen everywhere, the Cheruit is using the famous Directoire jabots in several tiers. On one model there is a series of flaring velvet jabots that are placed beneath a Directoire collar, which extends to the waist-line or even below. One robe de Chine, has three large jabots reaching to the hemline. Redfern is showing the half-in-half, Directoire-modern, velvet coat-dress. It has the revers and gilet of the period but the slender silhouette of 1924. The combination of the two periods is equally well done in a Directoire coat, with folded revers and flaring skirt portion, scalloped and fringed about the hem. To go with these coats are charming Directoire high-crowned hats, with curved brims that frame the face. Cyber puts shoulder-caps and Directoire collars and cuffs of furs on some of his new coats, and Blanche Lehouvier combines the Directoire with the garconne spirit by putting boyish collars and cuffs on period models. Speaking of the Directoire makes one think of the Winter waist-line. From all appearances there will be none at all, either actual or suggested, except on the very few frocks that are worn with very wide belts. The elimination of the belt-line, especially on the Directoire models, has certainly added grace to the silhouette, and probably this will be the predominating note of the season. STUFFED EGG PLANT PARIS, Oct. 8. — This is the season for fine egg-plants, one of the Frenchman's favorite vegetables. Choose the deep violet-red ones and cut into two parts lengthwise. Remove the center pulp and with it make a "farce" with sausage meat, a good piece of butter, salt, pepper, bread-crumbs soaked in milk, a very little garlic and some shallot. Fill the egg-plant with this stuffing, roll in fine bread-crumbs. Bake in the oven until nicely browned.

reach 15 per cent. The 2900 enrollment for the year includes only those students in residence. It does not include the extension, correspondence-study, and Portland Center students, the total of whom is an additional 4000 or more. The number of new students making application this fall has been about 1250. There are 300 more students enrolled in the University this year than last. The percentage of increase this year is the greatest since the years of the remarkable post-war flood of students into higher educational institutions. Hitherto the freshman class of the University has always shown a considerable increase, but because of the failure of sophomore, junior and senior students to return, the percentage of growth in the whole institution has been much less than that of the freshman class. This year, however, the remarkable fact of uniform growth is noteworthy, in that the percentage of all-University gain is almost exactly the percentage of gain in the freshman class. The greatest gain in the career of the University since 1900, and probably since its beginning in 1878 was 54.8 per cent. A tabulation of the percentage of gain since 1908 follows: 1908-1909, 32.5 per cent; 1909-1910, 11.5; 1910-1911, 7.3; 1911-1912, fraction of 1 per cent; 1912-1913, 2.7; 1913-1914, 12.5; 1914-1915, 6.1; 1915-1916, 18; 1916-1917, 1.7 per cent; 1917-1918, 1.7 per cent; 1918-1919, 16 per cent; 1919-1920, 54.8 per cent; 1920-1921, 6.7 per cent; 1921-1922, 17.8 per cent; 1922-1923, 8.6 per cent; 1923-1924, 1.9 per cent; 1924-1925, 13 1/2 per cent to date. Probably increase 15 per cent. YREKAN HELD IN HIGHWAY ROBBERY YREKA, Oct. 1. — Positively identified by Duncan Campbell as one of his assassins, J. W. Murphy, manager of the State Chimney Sweeps, is held in the Siskiyou County Jail here without bail on a charge of highway robbery. Murphy and his partner, W. H. Atkins, were arrested at Weed Monday night after Campbell had been slugged and robbed of $100 and thrown from an automobile on the Pacific Highway a mile south of Yreka earlier in the day. Campbell said that he had paid the men $10 to drive him from Weed to Yreka and back again so that he could draw the money from the bank here and after he started on the return trip he was set upon. He was badly beaten about the head and his clothes were ripped from him by the men in an effort to get the money. Murphy is a very large man and his alleged victim is small and old, a pioneer figure about the streets here.

RHEUMATISM Leaves You Forever So Says James H. Allen, Who Drove Out Rheumatic Poisons After Being Crippled for Years. Mr. James H. Allen, of 26 Forbes St., Rochester, N. Y., suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work. He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles, and expelled from the body. With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system. He freely gave his discovery, which he called Allenru, to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. "The blessed relief this marvelous prescription quickly gives has made for it thousands of friends," says East Side Pharmacy, who has been appointed agent in your city. It is Mr. Allen's own discovery.
