POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS G. W. Milam Independent Candidate for County School Superintendent of Jackson County, Oregon.

ANNOUNCEMENT In announcing myself as an Independent candidate for Coroner for Jackson county—I do so with the firm belief that the people do not want minority rule.

It is proven that the direct primaries are a failure, only 30 per cent vote was cast at the spring primaries, which is not a voice of the people. In this election all parties have the privilege of voting for their choice.

I need no introduction to the people of Jackson county where I have lived for 15 years, and given the best of my life, time and money for the upbuilding and betterment of the entire community.

I have been assistant to the present coroner for eight years and understand every detail of the work, therefore I am competent to handle the affairs of the office.

Yours for clean, progressive and efficient women and men in office in Jackson county. NELLIE M. PERL

LIFE Life is a great big beautiful game! Play at it lightly my dear! Play! No two days can ever be the same!

Sunny on cloudy or clear, None but has something to love and delight in. Laugh at and play with, see beauty and right in, Laugh with each day! 'Tis a step on your way! Laugh! There is nothing to fear!

Life is a great big beautiful tide. Bearing you home in its breast! Do not resist, let desire be your guide;

Trust in God's purpose, and rest Love and enjoy; you will lose what you cling to!

Yours are the things that you play and sing to! Smile at, and give. 'Tis by giving you live!

Laugh, dear, and love, and be blest! —By Helen Cowles Le Cron.

Stone-Million Wedding—A beautiful wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pearson when Miss L. Ella Stone was united in marriage to Mr. Lee P. Million.

The officiating clergyman was Professor A. J. Hanby, and the ring ceremony was used. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd March attended the bride and groom. Mrs. March is a sister of the bride.

Only the immediate friends and relatives were present. Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the home of Mrs. George Robison on Second street in Ashland, where the bride has made her home for the past few months.

She has been employed in the Golden Rule store in this city for some time. Mr. Million has been a resident of Portland for several years, but came to Shale City a year ago.

A delightful reception and dance following, were given the young couple Saturday evening at Shale City, where they will make their home.

Asks For Fruit—The W. C. T. U. is asking for canned or dried fruit to send to the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis. Arrangements have been made with the White House Grocery and if the fruit is left there it will be packed and sent to this home. Fruit is to be left there anytime during this week.

Last year a large donation from Ashland was sent to this place and it is hoped that as large a one will be sent this year, as it was appreciated very greatly by the recipients.

WHEN KIDNEYS HURT DRINK MORE WATER If Your Back Aches or Bladder Bothers, Take a Little Salts

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble because we often eat too much rich food. Our blood is filled with acids which the kidneys strive to filter out; they weaken from overwork, become sluggish, the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakens and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache, or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or if you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, begin drinking lot of good soft water and get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine.

This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in the system so that they no longer are a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; can not injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

PARIS, Oct. 14. — "Sparrow shoes" will be the latest crink in footwear for the Fall season, according to the smartest shoemakers in Paris. They are soft brown or fawn in color, with little white tips and edges resembling the feathers of the little bird that is so popular in the gardens.

Fall footwear shows signs of being more gorgeous than ever before, floral heels, leaves, berries and sprays of blossoms being engraved in realistic colors to trim the slippers worn at formal soirees. One of the most elaborate models of heels is of solid gold, inlaid with mother-of-pearl. Another is inlaid with colored polished wood, and still another is beautifully painted with a golden fishscale design.

For bridal wear the cordonniers are showing jeweled heels, bearing symbolic patterns of cupids and lovers' knots, etc.

The very pointed shoe is being toned down on the way to being transformed into a rounded end, which is better suited to the Parisienne's rather short, chubby foot. It took her some time, in fact, to become accustomed to the long, narrow, pointed shoe that sets the American girl's foot off to the best advantage.

Dame Fashion, of course, has wonderful powers of persuasion, and when she said "Points," everyone naturally threw the round toes into the basket.

Colored lizard skin, to carry out the color note of the dress or costume, will decorate many new street shoes. Black kid and red lizard skin are seen in startling combination. Delicate "nut-brown" is taking on a warmish pink hue, and black kid, fastened at the side with a fancy button or buckle, is used, with white or colored trimmings, to match the costume.

Intricate slashings and straps are fast disappearing, and a wide single strap is what adorns most of the smart models in Perugia's shop. Only the open-work rosette, bearing a little circle of black kid in the center, remains in place of the ornamental buckle.

Evening shoes are exceedingly rich in the finest brocades, with metal designs, either gold or silver being used. They have costly buckles or brooches, but there are rumors that before long dainty little watches will take place of them — which is not such a bad idea after all.

EEL A L'HONGROISE PARIS, Oct. 11.—Eel is a favorite delicacy in France.

For "eel a l'hongroise," skin, clean and wash thoroughly in warm water. Cut into small pieces and put in a buttered pan, with a bit of garlic and chopped shallot. Cover with white wine and add a bouquet of seasonings, with salt and pepper and one-fourth pound of chopped mushrooms for every pound of eel.

Bring to the boiling point, then cover and let simmer for fifteen minutes. Remove the eel carefully from the pan to the serving dish and pour over the sauce.

Let cool and then change to a dish for hors d'oeuvre. Pass the sauce through a fine strainer. Cover the eel, and put the dish on ice for some time before serving, for the sauce should be like a thick jelly.

LEGAL BUSINESS IS ON UPGRADE IN OREGON COURT

Judiciary Body Greatly Increased During Past Eighty Years

SALEM, Oct. 13.—Eighty years ago, when the tribunal which is now the Oregon supreme court first began to administer justice, the docket contained one lone case. The ancient document, now a treasured relic in the archives of the court, records that in the January term of the court in 1844, "Ahi Smith obtained a writ of replevin for a yoke of oxen detained by Neneveh Ford."

Indicating the growth of legal business in Oregon since that time, the trial docket of the supreme court, prepared for the October term, contains a list of 216 cases.

At the outset the court consisted of one judge, at that time Justice O. Russell, presiding over the destinies of the tribunal and with apparently not a great deal to do at that, as the case on the January docket was disposed of, so far as that term was concerned, in one day.

At the present time the court consists of seven members, devoting their entire time to the work and with a docket which continues to grow faster than the cases can be disposed of.

The first session of the court was held at what was then known as Tualata Plaine, making the circuit of the various important settlements in the then territory of Oregon and apparently taking original jurisdiction in all kinds of litigation instead of sitting as a court of last resort as at present.

depression which has made it difficult indeed to meet his interest payments not only on the state school fund loans, but on all other loans as well. This political attack goes further. It lists over 600 Oregon farmers as delinquent who constitute the best citizens of our state and who in fact paid all their interest in 1923, many paying in the fall of 1923.

The last legislature recognizing the adverse agricultural conditions and that the school funds were amply secured, gave the Land Board more leeway in the matter of foreclosures. The present administration in its unhappy attempt to create a political issue is now foreclosing on some of these unfortunate farmers in violation of the spirit and intent of this statute. Political necessity arises and the state and farmers suffer.

JUDGE LEAVES $100,000 SALEM, Oct. 14. — Judge George G. Bingham of the Marion county circuit court, who died in Portland last Saturday, left an estate valued at approximately $100,000, according to papers filed in the probate court here today.

"Rotten State Government" is the slogan adopted by the Democratic press to besmirch the name of the State of Oregon for political purposes. During practically every campaign we have the spectacle of some activity of the state held up to ridicule and misrepresentation in order to produce an issue on which some Democratic candidate may ride into office in a state overwhelmingly Republican.

With utter disregard for the interests of the people the state is mauled about through each campaign and emerges at the end so discredited that it is classified as undesirable and Washington and California go forward while Oregon stands still.

Unfortunately the state school fund has been selected as the target during the present campaign. The present administration proposes to take these funds now loaned to the farmer at 6 per cent and give them to the bond buyers at 4 1-2 per cent, and this notwithstanding the fact that in practically the same political breath they assert that the state is likely to lose $750,000 invested in bonds. One would hardly say that this bears the earmarks of politics, but rather that it wears the whole hide.

The direct effect is to discredit and hamper the farmer who is
