HE REDEEMS AND CROWNS: Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: who redeemeth thy life from destruction: who crowneth thee with loving kindness and tender mercies.

NOT ON THE MAP: When the world fliers started on their marvelous journey Portland was not on the itinerary.

When they returned to their destination Portland was not on the itinerary. It was no fault of the fliers.

When Portland planned a reception immediately after conclusion of the epochal trip, Portland saw nothing of the fliers until they had gone East and returned.

When the Shenandoah returned from Camp Lewis to California Portland was not in the path of the flight.

Perhaps the lack of a proper landing field accounts for the failure to include that city in matters aeronautical. But there is an airplane field at Vancouver.

Perhaps time and scientific reasons were responsible for Portland's failure to get a glimpse of the Shenandoah. Nothing prevented her from cruising leisurely over Seattle and Tacoma.

Perhaps there were other good and sufficient reasons for leaving the city off the course.

But those who are wondering if the departments at Washington are unnecessarily slighting Portland have cause for their skepticism.

Portland for some reason has failed to get on the aeronautic map, even in spite of a radiogram sent from Portland by an eminent Republican to a friend on the Shenandoah at Camp Lewis, as follows:

"Do everything in your power to influence the commander of the Shenandoah to return south over Portland. I fear the effect on the administration should the Shenandoah fail to visit this city."

SHALL WE CARRY ON?: The Tidings yesterday carried an article, an interview with R. R. Howard, head of the Marketing and Land Settlement departments of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, in which high praise is given one of Ashland's co-operative marketing organizations.

This praise, coming from an expert in that line, is double welcome. But the question in our minds, and in the mind of Mr. Howard, is, have we carried this co-operation far enough?

Have we carried it to such a degree, that our prosperity, as well as the prosperity of the organization will be radically affected?

That co-operative marketing organizations, on a scale larger than was dreamed possible ten years ago, have been and are successes, is proven by a study of the co-operative organizations of California, the California Associated Raisin Growers, the Associated Raisin Growers, the almond growers, and the walnut growers.

Each of these organizations have proven conclusively that combined marketing can, and is being carried on, with the greatest of success.

Probably the most successful of these organizations is the California Associated Raisin Growers, a group of 18,000 raisin growers in the San Joaquin Valley, banded together to market their products.

Before the organization of this association, the growers were receiving from two to three cents per pound for their raisins, and their markets were badly shattered. With the association in effect, and the independent packers out of the way, the growers receive from twelve to fifteen cents per pound for their products, with a market as stable as the wheat market.

The association has an investment in packing plants of approximately $27,000,000, with one plant in the city of Fresno, representing an investment of $6,000,000.

What these organizations have done, we can do here. Shall we carry on with the work, or shall we fall back into the old way of things, dooming the prosperity of this section?

MUCH IS SPENT OTTAWA, Oct. 24. — Building construction in Canada has amounted in volume to more than a billion dollars in the last four years, according to a bulletin released by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

Portland—Fortnightly sailing of refrigerated ships promised for Portland port.

FIERY, ITCHING SKIN IS QUICKLY SOOTHED WITH THIS SULPHUR

Mentho-Sulphur, a pleasant cream, will soothe and heal skin that is irritated or broken out with eczema; that is covered with ugly rash or pimples, or is rough or dry.

The moment this sulphur preparation is applied the itching stops and after two or three applications, the eczema is gone and the skin is delightfully clear and smooth.
