AND IN THE 20TH CENTURY

That if 1 per cent of the sum America pays for war past and to come were spent in reclamation and other internal improvements vast public and private benefits would be realized, was declared by Milton A. Miller in a out a girl with just a pretty fronrecent address.

Mr. Miller is right. Ninety per cen or more of the expenditures of the government go to pay war cost.

Ninety per cent of about $4,000,000,000 spent to pay a fair chance! for battleships, battle cruisers, battle airplanes, battle bombs, battle cannon, battle munitions and the other costs of wars gone by and wars expected!

And this in the 20th century! This is an age that we fellow, what kind of a father are call civilized! This by a people who call themselves you going to give your son?" Christian! As Mr. Miller says, if this were in primitive times, if these were the days of the jungle and the war club, then there might be excuse for what is going on.

But here we are, neglecting reclamation, skimping in kins, president of the association, education, economizing in the development of waterways, responded in a short speech of driven almost frantic by the high cost of living caused thanks.
