CRIMINAL ALWAYS RETURNS TO SCENE

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 12.—There were two June months paramount in the life of Mrs. James G. Turner, it was revealed here during her divorce suit trial. The first June was like this: A youth, a maid and a flivver beneath a tree. Love words, kisses, and then they were married. Miss Gladys Starkey became Mrs. James G. Turner. The second June went this way: Same youth, same flivver, same tree and a different girl. They kissed, but Mrs. Turner and a private detective or two interrupted the lovemaking.

MAN IS KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT AT TOP OF SISKIYOU

Arthur Page Dies When Car Turns Tumble. Companion, Uninjured, Leaves for South

Arthur A. Page, 38, of San Francisco, was almost instantly killed early this morning, when an automobile, driven by J. Leer, also of San Francisco, went off the side of the road, just over the summit of the Siskiyou's about fifteen miles from here. Leer was uninjured.

Leer told he had been driving all night, and dropped off to sleep for a moment. The car ran over the embankment, and turned turtle, pinning the two men underneath. Leer extracted himself, and went to the Jones Garage, a short distance from the scene of the accident, and Mr. Jones went back with him to help get Page out. Page died while being brought into the community hospital here by Jones.

Leer told Jones he would remain at the summit, at the scene of the accident, until the authorities arrived, but when Chief of Police George McNabb arrived shortly afterward, it was discovered that he had been picked up by a motorist travelling south.

It is believed Leer was intoxicated at the time of the accident, although no definite proof has been found by the officers. His action in leaving the scene of the crash indicates this theory as correct.

FINAL SERVICES FOR SENATOR HELD

BOSTON, Nov. 12.—Without eulogy, in the midst of distinguished citizens of the nation, state and city, the final services of the late Senator Lodge were held today in the Christian church.

Only the simplest services of the Episcopal church were used. The coffin was plain, black and unimposing. Secretary of State Hughes and Captain Andrews, commander of the presidential yacht, represented President Coolidge.

POLICE MAKE ARREST IN MURDER CASE OF SOUTHERN MUSICIAN

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 12.—One man, whose identity is being withheld has been arrested and five other men and four women are being sought by the police of this city in an effort to solve Los Angeles' "murder of the 22 violins."

The murdered man, Harry Katz, said to be a former Chicago musician, and who was formerly a violinist in the Royal Orchestra of Russia, was shot down Monday night at the door of his apartment.

The police found more than a score of violins, an antique piano, art collections and love letters, signed, "that bad woman, Rosita," in Katz's rooms. Jealousy and robbery were the motives investigated by the police for the murder of Katz.

Katz is said to have owned a yacht, and is known as being quite wealthy. Rosita Marstini, movie extra girl, admitted to the police that she had written the bad woman letters to Katz, officials of the police department made public today.

COOLIDGE MAY CALL ANOTHER ARMS MEETING

British Government Waiting for President to Decide on Conference Date

WANT TO CO-OPERATE

See Ready Escape from Noxious Protocol Agreed to at Geneva By Former Premier

LONDON, Nov. 12.—England eagerly awaits an American invitation to attend another disarmament conference, such as was held in Washington last year. There is little doubt that such a move by President Coolidge would be welcomed by the newly elected Tory government of England, as offering a means for ready escape from the Geneva protocol, agreed to by former Premier MacDonald. It is apparent that Premier Baldwin is desirous of the closest co-operation with the United States.

SECRETARY DAVIS IS TO RESIGN MARCH 4

APPLES ARE PACKED AT LOCAL CANNERY

The cannery is very busy at present canning apples. Several carloads have already been shipped and another car will probably be ready for shipment tomorrow. There are approximately 1200 cases in each car.

The pack is larger than last year and all of it has been sold. D. Taylor, manager, states that the cannery will run as long as there is fruit. There are about 15,000 boxes of apples yet to be canned.

About ninety people, principally women, are being employed in the cannery. Besides canning apples they are making jelly and putting up dill pickles. A little later in the season they will make saucer kraut.

The pack has been cut down some on account of the dry season but has a ready market and it being shipped as fast as it is ready.

She was injured in a collision between two trains and had to be carried into court on a stretcher, attended by her sister and Dr. Paul Lapidus.

ASHLAND WOMAN IS ROBBED OF HANDBAG BY WOMEN BANDITS

Thieves Take Bag, but Return Most of Contents to Victim Through Mail at P. O.

Two unidentified women, who posed as guests at a local hotel, yesterday robbed Mrs. John Fuller of a handbag, containing a small amount of cash, some keys and valuable papers, and escaped before the theft was discovered. They are as yet at large.

Mrs. Fuller had dined at the hotel, and left her handbag lying on one of the tables in the lobby. When she returned to get her bag, it was gone, but a woman who had been seated in the lobby, informed her that the bag had been taken by two women who had been seated in the lobby, and who had left hurriedly after the theft.

Although the two women were not guests at the hotel, they left some baggage in the lobby. This, Chief of Police George McNabb examined in an effort to discover their identity, but a few old clothes was all their baggage contained.

The keys and papers were returned to Mrs. Fuller last night by an employee of the hotel, who discovered them in an envelope, addressed to the hotel, when he received the mail from the post-office.

ASHLAND BOYS ARE INDICTED BY GRAND JURY FOR ROBBERY

The Jackson County Court Monday returned indictments against Virgil Ramsey and Fred Merritt, charging them with robbing Enders store here on October 15, and with stealing an automobile belonging to Oscar Tuttle of this city on November 3, according to information received from the district attorney's office this morning.

Merritt and Ramsey were arrested last week with Tuttle's car in Sacramento, after Chief of Police George McNabb had telephoned the southern authorities to stop them. They were returned to this city, and Ramsey was immediately placed under arrest on a second charge, that of robbing the Enders store.

As a result of this indictment, the two boys will face the superior court on the two charges, when the court again goes into session. In the meantime, they are being held in the jail at Jacksonville on the robbery charge. Bail of $500 was furnished for their release on the charge of stealing the automobile, but thus far no bail has been forthcoming for their release on the second charge.

Thomas R. Baird, Chief Engineer of the Fresno, California, fire department says that 65 per cent of fire alarms originate in homes.

LINK SOUTHERN SLAYING WITH M'COY KILLING

Albert Mors Questioned by Police in Connection With Katz Murder

DIAMONDS ENTER CASE

Safety Deposit Box of Dead Man Will be Opened in Order to Determine Evidence in Case

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 12.—Linking Los Angeles' latest murder mystery, the slaying of Harry Katz, celebrated musician and diamond broker of this city, and the alleged lover of many women, with another of the city's unsolved crimes, police of the Los Angeles department today summoned Albert Mors for questioning in connection with the slaying of Katz here yesterday.

Mors is the divorced husband of Theresa Mors former antique dealer here, for whose murder Norman Selby, better known to the world as Kid McCoy, is being held in jail here.

Mors is being held in order that he may tell of a deal between Katz and Mrs. Mors, involving the ownership of $250,000 worth of jewels, and in order that he may open Katz' safety deposit box in a local bank, where the police believe they will obtain new clues which will go a long way toward solving the murder of Katz. Mors and Mrs. Mors were both in possession of Katz' safety deposit box combination, according to information given by Katz at the preliminary hearing of Kid McCoy.

There is a possibility that a true bill for murder may be brought against Mors. McCoy has maintained all along that Mors was the murderer of his wife, and it is possible that Mors is responsible for the latest murder.

LITERARY DIGEST SCORES BULLSEYE ON STRAW BALLOT

Prediction Made in Poll Gives Magazine 100 Per Cent Average for Vote

Score a smacking bull's-eye for the derided and much pooh-poohed straw vote!

For weeks before the election the Literary Digest polled the country by means of postcard ballots, collecting a total of more than 2 million from all states. This poll was attacked as Republican propaganda; Democrats said it was so conducted as purposely to minimize Davis' strength while the followers of La Follette asserted it was preposterous and misleading distortion of the facts regarding the Bobcat party might.

The Digest bore up well under the shower of abuse and sneering, and continued to publish weekly the results of the poll, stating it claimed nothing for the figures but that they appeared to indicate a trend.

The final roundup of straws by the Digest showed that the three presidential candidates would stand in the election college about this way: Coolidge, 379; Davis, 142; La Follette, 13.

Here is how they do stand today, on the basis of actual returns from forty-seven of the forty-eight states:

Coolidge, 379; Davis, 139; La Follette, 13.

And the one state remaining in doubt, New Mexico, is almost certain to go for Davis, and give him the three votes needed to make his total 142 and give the Digest poll a 100 per cent score.

This is a startling vindication of the straw vote conducted the way the Digest's was. It, of course, at once relieves that magazine of all imputations of unfairness, and shows in addition that the people who voted in the straw vote voted the same way at the polls, and that they accurately represented the political state of mind of their communities.

La Follette, as indicated by the Digest poll, carried but one state, his own. The poll clearly showed him losing Minnesota, the Dakotas and Montana, which he counted on, and which the Coolidge leaders were at one time almost willing to grant he would carry.

No poll record ever hit the nail on the head like this one. It was an honest effort to show which way the wind was blowing, and it succeeded even beyond all expectations of those who conducted it. It was a fine piece of enterprise, and the Digest will now reap the rewards of success.

BASIL KELLOGG OF CITY DIES AFTER A SHORT ILLNESS

DOGGIE HAS FALSE ONES TO TEAR UP HIS MEAT

LONDON, Nov. 12.—False teeth for dogs is the latest. Professor F. G. Hobday, veterinary surgeon to King George, recently fitted two dozen false teeth to a favorite terrier. Impressions were taken in the ordinary way, and the false set was fitted with springs and wires as in human dentistry. The cutting edges were reinforced by platinum foil and gold solder, and the animal was able to tear a mutton chop to pieces and crush the bone within two days of having the teeth fixed.

ROAD PROGRAM IN KLAMATH COUNTY FOR 1924 ENDED

Much Work Completed Which Will Aid County in Attracting Travel in Coming Years

KLAMATH FALLS, Nov. 12.—With five projects finished or nearly so, the county road building program of Klamath for 1924 nears completion.

Grading of the Yonna valley market road extending from the Klamath Falls-Lakeview highway east of Dairy, north for four and one half miles to Hildebrand, has been completed by H. F. Victory, contractor, and the road is now being used by vehicular traffic.

There is left to be done, some rock work on the new road and also the construction of head walls at Buck creek crossing. This work will probably not be completed till next spring.

The county bridge over Lost river, east of Merrill, which replaces the old Whitney bridge condemned by the county engineer last spring, is now completed and traffic is utilizing the new structure. Mr. Victory, the contractor was paid off by the county October 11.

Thirty normal working days will be sufficient for the completion of the Chiloquin-William-river market road, Joseph Jenson, county engineer, estimated.

Eleven miles of the Langell valley market road extending from Bonanza east towards Lorella, has been surfaced by the county. The work included the grading of several short stretches on the highway.

County road forces have recently completed the laying of a road bed and surfacing the quarter mile stretch of the new Rock creek road across the strait which separates Wocus valley from Cale-donia valley. Recently, the road has been smoothed, following extensive log hauling by the Wheeler Ohlstead Lumber company. This work has been discontinued temporarily during the wet weather.

The Medford team seemed unusually confident at the very beginning of the game, but in a few minutes they had lost considerable of this confidence and were on the defensive, repeatedly failing to make their yardage and being forced to kick, sometimes kicking on the second or third down.

Except for the bad break at the beginning of the game when Ashland fumbled the ball near the goal line, the local team showed better generalship and while no record was kept of the downs made, Ashland's gain must have far exceeded that made by the Medford players. The field was heavy, preventing any long runs, Ashland making most of her downs by short plunges and forward passes.

The return game between the two teams on the Ashland grounds will be the battle royal of the year, for each team has the measure of one other and will be able to map out a definite attack on the other's vulnerable points.

It is understood that Medford backers were wagering that Medford would top the Ashland players by two or more touchdowns. Since each team made the same number of touchdowns, the Medford team winning by the slight margin of the two goal kicks, the Medford wagers were lost.

An illustration of the break which Medford had, came in kicking the second goal. The ball was fumbled by the quarterback, whose kicking was inferior throughout the game to the Ashland kicking, picked up the ball and by a lucky drop-kick put the ball across for another point.

His vitality surpassed the surgeons, however, and he is now reported as out of danger, and it is believed he will be back in this city before many weeks.
