

Classified Column

Classified Column Rates
One cent the word each time.
To run every issue for one month or more, 1/4c the word each time.

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Furnished house, 478 Boulevard. 36—1mo

FOR SALE

FOR SALE, right quick, three days only—A good Ford touring car with shock absorbers, 3 good tires, 1 fair tire, mud chains and other extras, right now $65.00. Chet Keene, 271 Morton St., Ashland. 63—2*

FOR SALE—3 feather beds, good new duck feathers in new ticking, beds weight from 16 to 20 pounds each. Phone 276-L. Mrs. Purdy, 107 4th St. 63—2*

FOR SALE:—Heating stove, Bedstead and chairs. 163 Union street. 62—5*

FOR SALE—Wyondotte chickens. L. R. Tracey, 763 Beach St. 61—1t

FOR SALE:—Tannered—Holly-wood cockerels, pedigreed, dams, records up to 280, sire record over 270. The male is half your flock. 112 Nutley St. Phone 456J. 58—1t

WOOD FOR SALE:—Fir and Spruce, 18' each $8. Hard wood 16 inch $12. Delivered. Fountain Fuel Co Siskiyon or leave orders at Beaver Realty Co. Ashland. 50—1 mo.*

MISCELLANEOUS

WANTED—Young man wants work on ranch, 480 Chestnut St. 63—2*

WANTED—Experienced book-keeper, address Box XZ care Tidings. 63—3*

WATCHES and clocks repaired reasonable. Money returned if not satisfied. M. A. Lassau, 217 N. Main, near Methodist church. 63—6*

WANTED:—Protect yourself against the uncertainties of winter. We can assure you a good position in your own county, that will pay you well. Write us at once. Nogar Corporation, 301 Couch Bldg., Portland, Oregon. 54—18

DRESSMAKING and Tailoring reasonable prices, all work guaranteed. Mrs. B. Van Hardenberg, 147 Central Ave. 55—1 mo.*

DRESSMAKING and plain sewing. Mrs. Dale Day, 129 Granite street. 60—1 mo.*

WANTED:—To buy second hand bath tub. Must be in good condition. Miss Coffee, Tidings office.

APPLY SULPHUR ON YOUR ECZEMA SKIN

Costs Little and Overcomes Trouble Almost Over Night

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment without delay. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.

During the past 10 months, 1219 vessels entered the Portland port, with a tonnage of 2,361,742 tons. This gave almost four ships for every working day, with an average tonnage of 2,750 tons.

For a smooth shave and quick service go to the Shell Barber Shop. Ladies and children get your hair bobbed and marcelled.

W. A. SHELL, Prop. 132 A. St. Ashland, Ore

SAY IT WITH FLOWERS AND SAY IT WITH OURS.

Everything in the Greenhouse Line HI-Class Designing

"HATCHER THE FLORIST" 1070 Boulevard Phone 118 Open on Sundays We Deliver

Letterheads, statements, to your order at the Tidings Office.

PROFESSIONAL

PHYSICIANS

DR. HAWLEY—Above Tidings office. Phone 91.

DR. C. W. HANSON Dentist Special attention given to pyorrhoecia. Office upstairs in Beaver Block. Phone 178-J. 233-tf.

DR. ERNEST A. WOODS—Practice limited to eye, ear, nose and throat—X-ray including teeth. Office hours, 10 to 12 and 2 to 5, Swedenburg Bldg., Ashland, Ore.

DR. E. B. ANGELL—Chiropractic and Electro-Therapy. Office phone 48; residence 142. First National Bank building.

DR. BROWN Chiropractor 11 Years Practice Examination free. Office Vendome Hotel. Lady Attendant. Hours: 9 a. m. to 8 p. m. Phone 227

THE SOUTHERN OREGON CLINIC 1st National Bank Bldg. Medical Surgical Obstetrical Diagnostic X-ray

R. W. Stearns, M. D. R. E. Green, M. D. R. W. Sleeter, M. D. Office hours 2-5 p. m. Phone 238-K

CONVALESCENT HOME Where the sick get well. Cottage Plan. We board and care for invalids and old people. Maternity Dept. Call 153

MONUMENTS

ASHLAND GRANITE MONUMENTS Blair Granite Co. S. PENNINGTON, Manager Office 175 E. Main Res. Phone 444-Y

ANY GIRL IN TROUBLE—May communicate with Ensign Lee of the Salvation Army at the WhiteShield Home, 665 Mayfair Ave., Portland, Oregon.

PLANING MILL

JORDON'S SASH AND CABINET WORKS, Cor. Helman and Van Ness. 194tf

TRANSFER AND EXPRESS White Transfer & Storage Co. for SERVICE.

Experienced movers and packers of household goods. Dealers in coal and wood. Phone 117.

Office 89 Oak St. near Hotel Ashland

I. L. POWELL—General Transfer—Good team and motor trucks. Good service at a reasonable price. Phone 83.

FEHIGE-ROACH

Transfer—Express—Storage Hauling—Dray work of all kinds. Quick motor service. Dry wood of all kinds. Phone 410-R 375 B. St. 112-tf

ASHLAND PAINT CO

Dependable Painting Contractors & Decorators SWENNING & GEAR Phone 408-J 57-1 mo.*

WOOD SAWING

WANTED—Wood sawing. Tel. 470-J. 63—1mo*

Ashland—Annual winter poultry show to be held here December 9 to 11.

The CALIFORNIA OREGON POWER COMPANY Preferred Stock yields 7.14% ask any member of our organization

CHAS. J. DEAN, M.D. PILES Men, Women and Children Treated My non-surgical, soothing treatment for Piles and other Rectal and Colon disorders is given persons from two to over eighty years of age, thus proving the mildness of my methods.

CHAS. J. DEAN, M.D. INC. PORTLAND OFFICES: SEATTLE OFFICES: 509-511 Third Building 5th and Pine ST. AND PINE ST. PORTLAND, ORE. 5th and 6th ST. SEASIDE, ORE.

Society

TO THOSE WHO FAIL (By Joaquin Miller) "All honor to him who shall win the prize."

The world has cried for a thousand years.

But to him who tries, and who fails and dies, I give great honor and glory and tears.

Give glory and honor and pitiful tears

To all who fail in their deersublime;

Their ghosts are many in the van of years.

They were born with Time, in advance of Time.

Oh, great is the hero who wins a name,

But greater many and many a time

Some pale-faced fellow who dies in shame.

And lets God finish the thoughts sublime.

And great is the man with a sword undrawn,

And good is the man who refrains from wine;

But the man who fails and yet still fights on,

Lo, he is the twin-born brother of mine!

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Tuesday, November 18. Civic Club will meet at clubhouse at 2:30.

Wednesday, November 19. Upper Valley Community Club will have an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. Butler Walker. This will be a dressmaking meeting.

Wednesday, November 19. Auxiliary to the Trinity Guild will meet at the Parish House.

Thursday, November 20. Ladies Elks Club will meet in club rooms.

Friday, November 21. D. A. R. will meet at the home of Mrs. Peil on Granite-street.

Saturday, November 22. P. E. O. will meet at the home of Mrs. W. E. Blake.

Entertains—

One of the prettiest luncheons of the season was given by Miss Grace H. Chamberlain at the Civic Club house Tuesday in honor of Mrs. P. S. Provost, chairman of the social committee of the Civic Club. The members of the executive board and chairmen of the standing committees were the bidden guests.

At a tastily arranged table decorated with fruits and autumn leaves the fourteen women were seated and served a delectable meal. Clever questions in verse form, each applying to the person for whom it was intended, were found at the individual places and a jolly time followed when the questions were fittingly answered, causing much amusement as each guest replied.

At the close of the afternoon the guests wended their way homeward, wishing for more of these happy affairs in the future.

Gives Dinner—

Mrs. G. A. McCarthy of North Main street entertained at a delicious dinner Tuesday complimenting Mrs. O. J. Stone of Portland, former resident of Ashland. A lovely dinner was served by the gracious hostess and a pleasant time followed with merry conversation occupying the hours.

Complimented guests were Mrs. H. G. Gilmore, Mrs. Herbert McCarthy and Master Herbert, Jr., the honored guest, Mrs. O. J. Stone and the hostess, Mrs. A. G. McCarthy.

WOBBLES DRIFT OUT CONCRETE PEACEFUL

CONCRETE, Wash., Nov. 13.—Following exodus of nearly 150 alleged Industrial Workers of the World yesterday under escort of Sheriff Conn and his deputies, Concrete, which for three weeks had been declared under control of supporters of a strike on construction of a hydro-electric plant was a peaceful snow-covered town today.

None of the deported men tried to return, Sheriff Conn said.

We have a good job printing department.

JUGOSLAVS FACE MILITARY REIGN AND DISRUPTION

SOFIA, Nov. 14.—Jugo-Slavia

Raditch not only wants Croat-

ian autonomy, an independent form of government, separate parliament, army and finances, but also claims jurisdiction over Slavonia, Dalmatia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Srem, and Mejdumorie. Strangely enough, this claim is steadily gaining more and more adherents throughout the country.

There is where the threat of military dictatorship enters, for the military party of Serbia is unalterably opposed to the loss of Serbian hegemony. As a last resort it is believed they would not hesitate to set up a dictatorship.

Impartial observers believe, however that their rule would be short lived and confidently expect that Raditch's ideas will prevail finally and that Jugo-Slavia will become a federated union of many autonomous states, bound together by a common parliament and

That is the opinion of Balkan observers of the jumbled political situation in the kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes—a situation which recently became more complicated than ever with the resignation of Minister of War Hadjitch.

Hadjitch's resignation was forced by his army colleagues—the Minister was a General in the Serbian Army—who claimed that the Serbian Army had been repeatedly insulted and hooted at by the Croats—and other anti-Serbian elements of the kingdom. At Travnik recently a mob shouted:

"Down with the Wallachian king! Down with the Belgrade rascals! This is Bosnia here!"

The situation narrows down to a fight for power between two opposing leaders—"Mad" Raditch, leader of the Croats, who is fighting for Croatian autonomy in a Jugo-Slav super-state; and "Sultan" Pashitch, veteran Serbian statesman, who, though out of power is still the strongest Serbian imperialistic leader. He has behind him a secret military organization known as the "White Hand."

King Alexander is trying to bring order out of chaos. He consented to the fall of Pashitch and to the participation in the Government of Davidevitch, a Raditch henchman.

Alexander attempted to talk matters over with Raditch, the greatest enemy of Serbian dreams. Raditch refused to go to Belgrade until Croatian autonomy was recognized. He remains in the provinces, still master of the situation. Alexander promised to secure revision of the Constitution if Raditch would come to Belgrade.

Raditch not only wants Croat-

ian autonomy, an independent form of government, separate parliament, army and finances, but also claims jurisdiction over Slavonia, Dalmatia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Srem, and Mejdumorie. Strangely enough, this claim is steadily gaining more and more adherents throughout the country.

There is where the threat of military dictatorship enters, for the military party of Serbia is unalterably opposed to the loss of Serbian hegemony. As a last resort it is believed they would not hesitate to set up a dictatorship.

Impartial observers believe, however that their rule would be short lived and confidently expect that Raditch's ideas will prevail finally and that Jugo-Slavia will become a federated union of many autonomous states, bound together by a common parliament and

That is the opinion of Balkan observers of the jumbled political situation in the kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes—a situation which recently became more complicated than ever with the resignation of Minister of War Hadjitch.

Hadjitch's resignation was forced by his army colleagues—the Minister was a General in the Serbian Army—who claimed that the Serbian Army had been repeatedly insulted and hooted at by the Croats—and other anti-Serbian elements of the kingdom. At Travnik recently a mob shouted:

"Down with the Wallachian king! Down with the Belgrade rascals! This is Bosnia here!"

The situation narrows down to a fight for power between two opposing leaders—"Mad" Raditch, leader of the Croats, who is fighting for Croatian autonomy in a Jugo-Slav super-state; and "Sultan" Pashitch, veteran Serbian statesman, who, though out of power is still the strongest Serbian imperialistic leader. He has behind him a secret military organization known as the "White Hand."

King Alexander is trying to bring order out of chaos. He consented to the fall of Pashitch and to the participation in the Government of Davidevitch, a Raditch henchman.

Alexander attempted to talk matters over with Raditch, the greatest enemy of Serbian dreams. Raditch refused to go to Belgrade until Croatian autonomy was recognized. He remains in the provinces, still master of the situation. Alexander promised to secure revision of the Constitution if Raditch would come to Belgrade.

Raditch not only wants Croat-

ian autonomy, an independent form of government, separate parliament, army and finances, but also claims jurisdiction over Slavonia, Dalmatia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Srem, and Mejdumorie. Strangely enough, this claim is steadily gaining more and more adherents throughout the country.

There is where the threat of military dictatorship enters, for the military party of Serbia is unalterably opposed to the loss of Serbian hegemony. As a last resort it is believed they would not hesitate to set up a dictatorship.

Impartial observers believe, however that their rule would be short lived and confidently expect that Raditch's ideas will prevail finally and that Jugo-Slavia will become a federated union of many autonomous states, bound together by a common parliament and

That is the opinion of Balkan observers of the jumbled political situation in the kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes—a situation which recently became more complicated than ever with the resignation of Minister of War Hadjitch.

ian autonomy, an independent form of government, separate parliament, army and finances, but also claims jurisdiction over Slavonia, Dalmatia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Srem, and Mejdumorie. Strangely enough, this claim is steadily gaining more and more adherents throughout the country.

There is where the threat of military dictatorship enters, for the military party of Serbia is unalterably opposed to the loss of Serbian hegemony. As a last resort it is believed they would not hesitate to set up a dictatorship.

Impartial observers believe, however that their rule would be short lived and confidently expect that Raditch's ideas will prevail finally and that Jugo-Slavia will become a federated union of many autonomous states, bound together by a common parliament and

That is the opinion of Balkan observers of the jumbled political situation in the kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes—a situation which recently became more complicated than ever with the resignation of Minister of War Hadjitch.

Hadjitch's resignation was forced by his army colleagues—the Minister was a General in the Serbian Army—who claimed that the Serbian Army had been repeatedly insulted and hooted at by the Croats—and other anti-Serbian elements of the kingdom. At Travnik recently a mob shouted:

"Down with the Wallachian king! Down with the Belgrade rascals! This is Bosnia here!"

The situation narrows down to a fight for power between two opposing leaders—"Mad" Raditch, leader of the Croats, who is fighting for Croatian autonomy in a Jugo-Slav super-state; and "Sultan" Pashitch, veteran Serbian statesman, who, though out of power is still the strongest Serbian imperialistic leader. He has behind him a secret military organization known as the "White Hand."

King Alexander is trying to bring order out of chaos. He consented to the fall of Pashitch and to the participation in the Government of Davidevitch, a Raditch henchman.

Alexander attempted to talk matters over with Raditch, the greatest enemy of Serbian dreams. Raditch refused to go to Belgrade until Croatian autonomy was recognized. He remains in the provinces, still master of the situation. Alexander promised to secure revision of the Constitution if Raditch would come to Belgrade.

Raditch not only wants Croat-

ian autonomy, an independent form of government, separate parliament, army and finances, but also claims jurisdiction over Slavonia, Dalmatia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Srem, and Mejdumorie. Strangely enough, this claim is steadily gaining more and more adherents throughout the country.

There is where the threat of military dictatorship enters, for the military party of Serbia is unalterably opposed to the loss of Serbian hegemony. As a last resort it is believed they would not hesitate to set up a dictatorship.

Impartial observers believe, however that their rule would be short lived and confidently expect that Raditch's ideas will prevail finally and that Jugo-Slavia will become a federated union of many autonomous states, bound together by a common parliament and

That is the opinion of Balkan observers of the jumbled political situation in the kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes—a situation which recently became more complicated than ever with the resignation of Minister of War Hadjitch.

Hadjitch's resignation was forced by his army colleagues—the Minister was a General in the Serbian Army—who claimed that the Serbian Army had been repeatedly insulted and hooted at by the Croats—and other anti-Serbian elements of the kingdom. At Travnik recently a mob shouted:

"Down with the Wallachian king! Down with the Belgrade rascals! This is Bosnia here!"

The situation narrows down to a fight for power between two opposing leaders—"Mad" Raditch, leader of the Croats, who is fighting for Croatian autonomy in a Jugo-Slav super-state; and "Sultan" Pashitch, veteran Serbian statesman, who, though out of power is still the strongest Serbian imperialistic leader. He has behind him a secret military organization known as the "White Hand."

King Alexander is trying to bring order out of chaos. He consented to the fall of Pashitch and to the participation in the Government of Davidevitch, a Raditch henchman.

Alexander attempted to talk matters over with Raditch, the greatest enemy of Serbian dreams. Raditch refused to go to Belgrade until Croatian autonomy was recognized. He remains in the provinces, still master of the situation. Alexander promised to secure revision of the Constitution if Raditch would come to Belgrade.

Raditch not only wants Croat-

ian autonomy, an independent form of government, separate parliament, army and finances, but also claims jurisdiction over Slavonia, Dalmatia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Srem, and Mejdumorie. Strangely enough, this claim is steadily gaining more and more adherents throughout the country.

There is where the threat of military dictatorship enters, for the military party of Serbia is unalterably opposed to the loss of Serbian hegemony. As a last resort it is believed they would not hesitate to set up a dictatorship.

Impartial observers believe, however that their rule would be short lived and confidently expect that Raditch's ideas will prevail finally and that Jugo-Slavia will become a federated union of many autonomous states, bound together by a common parliament and

That is the opinion of Balkan observers of the jumbled political situation in the kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes—a situation which recently became more complicated than ever with the resignation of Minister of War Hadjitch.

Hadjitch's resignation was forced by his army colleagues—the Minister was a General in the Serbian Army—who claimed that the Serbian Army had been repeatedly insulted and hooted at by the Croats—and other anti-Serbian elements of the kingdom. At Travnik recently a mob shouted:

"Down with the Wallachian king! Down with the Belgrade rascals! This is Bosnia here!"

The situation narrows down to a fight for power between two opposing leaders—"Mad" Raditch, leader of the Croats, who is fighting for Croatian autonomy in a Jugo-Slav super-state; and "Sultan" Pashitch, veteran Serbian statesman, who, though out of power is still the strongest Serbian imperialistic leader. He has behind him a secret military organization known as the "White Hand."

King Alexander is trying to bring order out of chaos. He consented to the fall of Pashitch and to the participation in the Government of Davidevitch, a Raditch henchman.

Alexander attempted to talk matters over with Raditch, the greatest enemy of Serbian dreams. Raditch refused to go to Belgrade until Croatian autonomy was recognized. He remains in the provinces, still master of the situation. Alexander promised to secure revision of the Constitution if Raditch would come to Belgrade.

Raditch not only wants Croat-

ian autonomy, an independent form of government, separate parliament, army and finances, but also claims jurisdiction over Slavonia, Dalmatia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Srem, and Mejdumorie. Strangely enough, this claim is steadily gaining more and more adherents throughout the country.

There is where the threat of military dictatorship enters, for the military party of Serbia is unalterably opposed to the loss of Serbian hegemony. As a last resort it is believed they would not hesitate to set up a dictatorship.

Impartial observers believe, however that their rule would be short lived and confidently expect that Raditch's ideas will prevail finally and that Jugo-Slavia will become a federated union of many autonomous states, bound together by a common parliament and

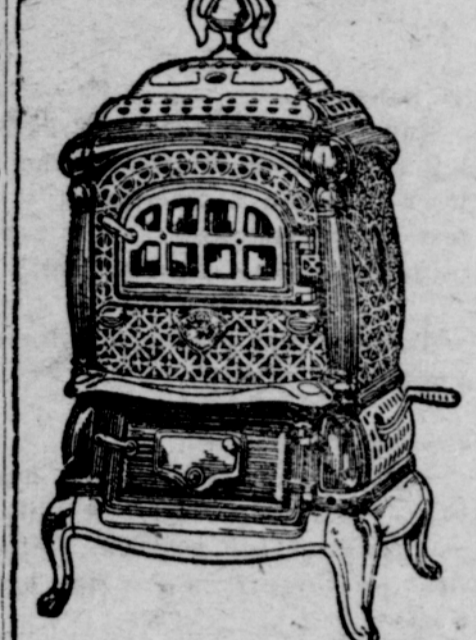

That is the opinion of Balkan observers of the jumbled political situation in the kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes—a situation which recently became more complicated than ever with the resignation of Minister of War Hadjitch.

Hadjitch's resignation was forced by his army colleagues—the Minister was a General in the Serbian Army—who claimed that the Serbian Army had been repeatedly insulted and hooted at by the Croats—and other anti-Serbian elements of the kingdom. At Travnik recently a mob shouted:

"Down with the Wallachian king! Down with the Belgrade rascals! This is Bosnia here!"

The situation narrows down to a fight for power between two opposing leaders—"Mad" Raditch, leader of the Croats, who is fighting for Croatian autonomy in a Jugo-Slav super-state; and "Sultan" Pashitch, veteran Serbian statesman, who, though out of power is still the strongest Serbian imperialistic leader. He has behind him a secret military organization known as the "White Hand."

PNEUMONIA Call a physician. Then begin "emergency" treatment with VICKS VAPORUB Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly PEIL'S CORNER

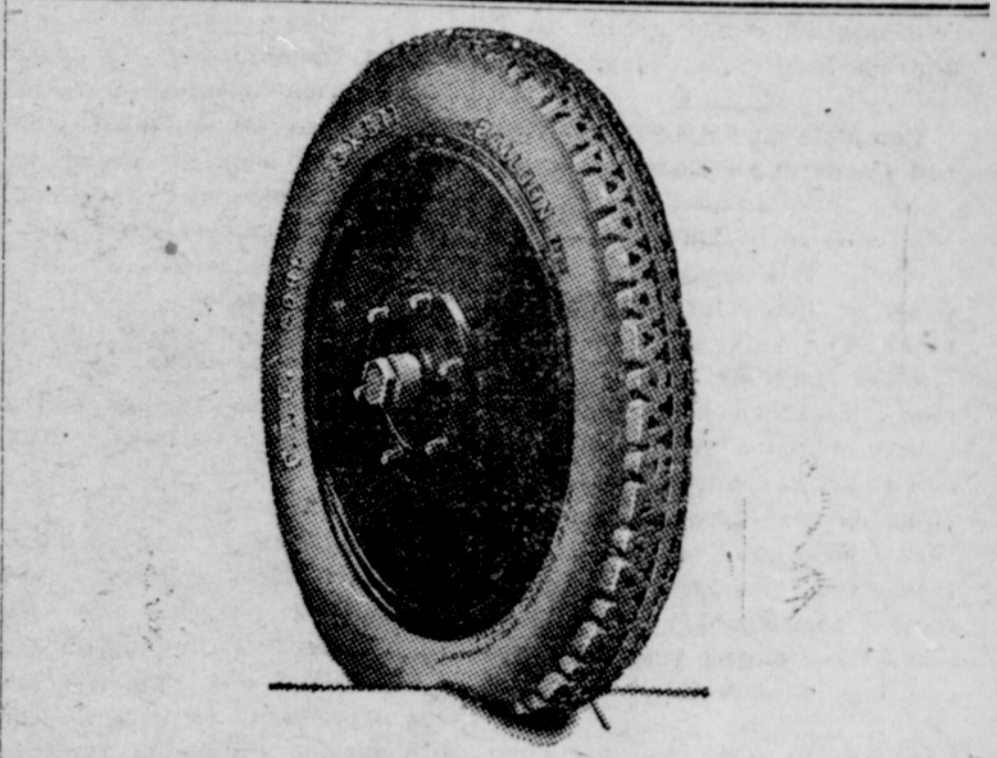

This Buck's Parlor Heater is a combined Stove and Furnace

Ample heat-radiating capacity to heat the room in which it is placed—powerful circulating capacity to warm two or three adjoining rooms—that is the ability of this handsome, compact porcelain enameled Parlor Heater.

Burns any kind of fuel. A "Giant" for heat. Yet, it costs no more than old-style stoves. In brown, mahogany, blue or gray porcelain.

THE ASHLAND FURNITURE COMPANY 88 N. Main

SOUR STOMACH causes bad breath, easy pain, coated tongue and belching. Always find relief in CHAMBERLAIN'S TABLETS Sweeten your stomach and breath—only 25c

"Living" an ideal into C-T-C tires!

A ROUND Robert Wurzburg, one of the country's leading tire efficiency men, grouped itself a body of tire experts, ambitious to build a tire representing their combined experience.

They started early in 1923, with the ideal of building a quality tire, irrespective of cost.

That ideal has been "lived" into C-T-C Tires from the beginning. Up and down the Pacific Coast, C-T-C's have gained the confidence of tire dealers and motorists.

We believe in C-T-C's. You will, too, when you use them!

C-T-C

CORDS and BALLOONS (without rim or wheel change) Leedom's Tire House

CLEARANCE SALE of SHOES

We must make room for more complete lines, even as much in demand as these Shoes are, the broken size ranges make a complete clearance necessary.

Men's Barry Shoes, Special, $5.00 Pair Brown and Black calfskin dress shoes in a good range of sizes. Regular $7.00 and $8.00 values, close out at, pair $5.00

Men's Work Shoes $2.58 Pair Black and Brown work shoes, Regular $4.00 values, Special, pair $2.58

Boy's School Shoes $1.98 Pair Brown calfskin shoes, sizes range from 12 to 2

Ladies' Shoes Special $3.98 Pair Ladies' straps and oxfords in kid suede, patent and calfskin, a good range of sizes, regular $5.00 to $9.00 values, for quick close out, pair $3.98

Ladies' Straps and Oxfords, $2.85 Pair Black and Brown kid with Cuban heels, pair $2.85

Ladies Kid One