RUB PAIN OUT OF RHEUMATIC JOINTS

For 65 years, millions have rubbed soothing, penetrating St. Jacobs Oil right on the tender spot, and by the time they say Jack Robinson — out it comes the rheumatic pain and distress. St. Jacobs Oil is a harmless rheumatism and pain liniment which never discolors and doesn't burn the skin. It takes pain, soreness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones; stops sciatica, lumbago, backache and neuralgia. 35 cent bottle guaranteed by all druggists

Hall's Cataract Medicine will do what we claim for — rid your system of Cataract or Deafness caused by Cataract. Sold by Druggists for over 40 years F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio

SHADE FOR TABLE LAMP

This shade is made by covering a wire frame with fine crepe paper in rose color and placing over this another color in plain and plaited panels. Ruchings of the crepe paper with tiny roses set in them finish the edges and decorate the plain panels.

Ladies Aid— The Ladies Aid of the M. E. Church met with Mrs. Wheeler at her home, on North Main street Wednesday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in a Christmas spirit and was begun with a Christmas reading by Mrs. Gregg and Mrs. Van Fossen at the piano. Following was a letter from Santa Claus read by Mrs. M. E. Thompson. The Christmas tree was beautifully decorated for the occasion and was hidden away in an adjoining room. After reading the Christmas letter those present marched around the tree. Small gifts were distributed, some done in large packages and some done in small ones. After the packages were given out they were passed around to the others so they were exchanged four times before they were opened. One at a time the packages were opened and each caused much laughter.

Partners for refreshments were chosen in a unique way. Cakes and coffee were served by the hostess, Mrs. Wheeler, assisted by Mesdames G. G. Eubanks, How-

Silver Tea— The Trinity Guild had a delightful silver tea at the Parish House Thursday afternoon. Despite the inclement weather a good crowd was present to enjoy the pleasant afternoon and excellent program that was given.

The house was beautifully with Christmas greens and a tree. Mrs. Nell had charge of the program that was given which consisted of a number of instrumental and vocal selections.

Tea was served at a beautifully appointed table presided over by Mesdames Sanford and Mattern. The committee in charge of the afternoon consisted of Mesdames P. K. Hammond, Barges, Ruger, Govland and Fred Nell. This is the first of a series that will probably be given.
