CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Tuesday, January 6. Civic Club will meet in clubhouse for regular session. Mesdames MacCracken and Roberts on the program.

Friday, January 9. College Club will meet at the home of Mrs. R. W. Stearns, Medford.

Civic Club—

The Civic Clubhouse has been repaired and meetings will be held there as usual from now on. The Civic Club will hold their regular meeting next Tuesday and an excellent program has been planned.

A review of Better Films will be given by Mrs. Gordon MacCracken who has done a large amount of this work recently and is therefore well qualified to speak on the subject. Mrs. MacCracken is an excellent speaker and has a very interesting topic, so with the address by Mrs. Roberts the program is being greatly looked forward to.

Mrs. L. A. Roberts will tell of her experiences on her trip this summer, having as her subject "Next Door Neighbors." She will tell of the Canadian customs, cities and everything of interest that she saw during her trip into Canada recently. Refreshments will be served and the regular business meeting held.

Everyone who is interested is cordially invited to attend the meeting.

Watch Party—

One of the pleasant social affairs of New Year's Eve was the party given by Gordon and Elliott MacCracken at their home on Hargadine street to a group of their young friends, twenty-four in number. A happy evening was spent in playing games, guessing contests and dancing. The prize winners were Marie Davies, Evelyn Miller, Juanita Ross, Lawrence Leedom, Jack Nims and Odell Olson of Klamath Falls.

The New Year was welcomed in a joyous manner and the resolutions of the guests for 1925 were read just before the whistles blew announcing its advent.

Those present were Marie Davies, Evelyn Miller, Dorothy Chappel, Juanita Ross, Margaret Churchman, Bertha Green, Dorothy Nininger, Oma Ge Lauer, Margery Crouch, Everett McGee, Adell Olsen, Jack Nims, Marion Moore, Lawrence Leedom, Albert Myers Johnny Ruger, Sanford Rose, Teddy Caldwell, Billy Hulian, Lee Boyd, Lester Beck, Kay Nell, Elliott and Gordon MacCracken.

Birthday Party—

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Weren gave a delightful birthday dinner at their home New Year's night honoring J. O. Rigg, who celebrated his birthday on Sunday. A deliciously cooked turkey was served as the first course accompanied by many foods which go with it. A large birthday cake was also served and greatly enjoyed by all.

Dinner was served at seven o'clock and followed by the presentation of birthday gifts to the honored guest. Some very comical and useful ones were received. The evening was spent playing games and enjoying music, talking and jokes.

Guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Gunter, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Elhart, Mrs. Ruth Mitchell, Misses Jean Anderson, Hazel Bruner, Isabella Wattenbarger, J. O. Rigg, Oliver Anderson and the host and hostess.

Compulsory Education Scored by Boy's Father

SUNBURY, Pa., Jan. 2.—William Heiss, Shamokin Township, attacked the constitutionality of the Compulsory Education act in the Northumberland County Court. He was fined $2 for failing to send his child to school.

The father alleged that the Legislature did not contemplate a law that requires a boy to arise at 6 a. m., walk two miles to a waiting station and then ride six miles in a wagon before he could get to the nearest schoolhouse, which is required in his six-year-old son's case.

A COUGH REMEDY WITHOUT OPIATES

Many cough preparations contain one or more harmful drugs which are added to take the place of opiates. None of these narcotic substitutes have ever been used in FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND. The name of every ingredient is plainly printed on every carton. You know what you are taking when you take Foley's. It clings to the throat. Good for old and young. You have a cough, why not try it. Refuse substitutes.
