HOST AT PARTY IS DEAD FROM POISON

SEATTLE, Jan. 3. — Oscar Oser, 38, host at a party at his home here last night, is dead today from drinking poison, while his sister, Frances Fuerst, 40, and five friends are being held in jail here for questioning by the coroner. The police state they are uncertain whether Oser drank the poison by mistake while mixing drinks for his guests or took it with intent to commit suicide. The five friends who are being held are Isaac Anderson, Jack Hanson, Eric Larson, Robert Nevers and Mrs. Varna Ventura.

Sneeze Gas in Ship Hold Drives Out Stowaways

MANILA, Jan. 2. — Manila's fame along the Chinese coast as a good port for beachcombers, where stowing away on Army transports has been easy, is passing away. Sneeze gas, supplied by the Chemical Department of the United States Army, is forced into the hold of every transport for a period of twenty-four hours just before departure, thus making the hold uninhabitable. Not a single stowaway was found on the transport Thomas when it touched at China on its last trip. On previous trips the discovery of fifteen or twenty was not uncommon.

MONEY STOLEN FROM BANK IS RECOVERED

SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 3. — After a seven months search which extended into South America, Canada, Mexico, S. McCubbin, a bond company representative today unearthed the greater part of the $50,000 bank funds embezzled by Dale Rowan, former cashier of the Bank of Italy in San Francisco. McCubbin found several thousand dollars in a jar in the cellar of the home in the little town of Bountiful near here, where Rowan had lived. A buried gunny sack revealed more of the loot, as did the garage garage where the money was found in a bucket.

WAR VETERAN KILLS WIFE, CHILD, SELF

LONG BEACH, Jan. 3. — Lohman Hogue, shell shocked veteran shot and killed his wife and their two and a half year old son, Glenn, and himself in the hills near here, according to reports at the sheriff's office here today. Hogue is said to have told friends yesterday that he intended to do the shooting.

CHANGES TO BE MADE IN STATE OFFICES SOON

heads, friends of the new administration say it is certain that at least two officials are slated to go. One of these is L. M. Gilbert, superintendent of the state training school for boys. Mr. Gilbert formerly served as superintendent of the school but was removed during the Oleott administration. He was reinstated by Governor Pierce and State Treasurer Myers over the protest of the secretary of state.

Business and Bathing

The business man needs lots of "pep." A daily shower bath helps him to have it. A bath-a-day is a "tonic" that can't be beaten. Everyone who tries it finds that "A bath-a-day keeps you fit in every way."

A DOUBLE SERVICE YOU CAN GET

You avail yourself of two kinds of valuable service when you insure with this agency.

The first is the obvious service—full indemnity from the Hartford Fire Insurance Company in case you suffer loss.

The second is equally important—helping you to avoid loss and the consequent inconvenience for which insurance cannot pay.

Call on us for this double service of protection.
