W. Hatcher, constable of the Ashland District, at my ranch about 60 yards North of the Cemetery, on the 23d day of January, 1925, at 2:30 P. A COUGH REMEDY WITHOUT OPIATES
Many cough preparations contain one or more harmful drugs which are added to take the place of opiates. None of these narcotic substitutes have ever been used in FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND. The name of every ingredient is plainly printed on every carton. You know what you are taking when you take Foley's. It clings to the throat. Good for old and young. You have a cough, why not try it. Refuse substitutes.
Estimates show that $30,000,000 pounds of dried prunes will approximate the 1924 crop for Oregon and for Clark county, Washington. About 40 per cent of crop already sold.

NIGHTFALL—SLIGO
(By Geoffrey Pibbs)

Landward the seagulls fly,
Black silhouettes against the fading light
Of the pale, blue-green, after-sunset sky,
And past the dark wood, wavering, shadowy-white,
And round behind the trees, and out of sight
With one long-drawn-out-sky.

Then to the sleepy music of the sea—
A slight, monotonous tune—
Like some strange flower, the moon
Breaks from the topmost branches of a tree.
—From the Literary Digest.

Tomorrow, Sunday, Jan. 18 is "Share With Others Day"
Sunday is the day of rest—the day of worship.
But it is not enough to go to church on Sunday and feel your day has been well spent, and that you have done all that is necessary.
Sunday and prayer are also meant to teach us to be helpful to our neighbors—to share with those who need our help.
Every Sunday a small amount (if you cannot afford more) should be given to the Church. In this way you share the fruits of your labors with the Church and with others. You help the Church to support itself and also to carry on the necessary charitable work.
Tomorrow, Give Freely—Attend Church and give with all your might. For "The Gift Without the Giver is Bare."
