Chappel, Emma Jenkins, Dorothy Chappel, Ruth Osman, Clara Blumenhauer and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Blumenhauer.

Turkey Dinner— A delightful dinner party honoring the birthday of Mrs. C. H. Pierce and Charles Thomas Harrison was given at the Pierce home Sunday evening. A delicious turkey dinner was served and the evening spent in pleasant conversation. The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Harrison, Charles Thomas Harrison and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Pierce.

Ashland Music Study Club— In spite of the downpour, a fair representation of the membership of the Club was present to enjoy the treat in store in the splendid review of the "Evolution of Church Music" by Humphreys, given by Mrs. John H. Fuller assisted by Mrs. E. O. Smith and with musical numbers, illustrative by Mrs. E. A. Woods.

In the absence of the secretary, Miss Estelle Jones, for whom deep sympathy was expressed, the minutes were not given and only necessary business taken care of at this time. An appreciative letter was read from the Near East Relief, telling the Club that the money given by them would care for a child one month. The president Mrs. John H. Fuller, announced that the Club would be subject to a called meeting to perfect arrangements for the program that it will present the 16th of March at the Civic Club.

The study of the evening was then presented by Mrs. Fuller, who told something of the author's life and attainments, and surveyed the book, in the large, then taking up in detail the subdivisions as he gave them. First the origin and emotional significance of Music; the development of the music of the early Christian Church; the time from Palestrina to the Choral and early English school; some uses and abuses of Hymn Music, past and present; American Church Music, its development and limitations. In discussing these distinct phases in the study, Mrs. Fuller presented the author's view point and data, adding illuminating side lights from her own study and experience. She dwelt at length on the first three subdivisions, tracing the development from the earliest form, and instruments used; the power of Music; its rhythm, the evolution of the present scale; antiphonal singing; the work of Ambrose, Gregory, Guido, Bach, Palestrina and Luther were all touched upon, closed her address with a tribute to Palestrina as the greatest of church composers.

At intervals, Mrs. Woods had pleasingly interpreted a number of the compositions.
Mrs. E. O. Smith had prepared a comprehensive review of the last two subdivisions of the book, taking first, the uses and some of the abuses of Hymn Music that obtained in the past, and that are apparent now; the ritualistic and Paritan forms were discussed, and the kinds of choirs, the quartet, the chorus choir and congregational singing came in for a share of attention. In dealing with the last part of the subject, American Church music, the speaker gave excerpts from the author's own words, with pertinent comment.

To those present was given the opportunity to have traced a development that was intensely interesting and worthwhile whether, a devotee or not of Music; and which was presented in such clear fashion that the listeners could gain a clear conception of that development.

The roll call brought out some unusual facts and events in the musical world.
Reported by Mrs. Andrews, publicity chairman.

Surprise Party— A delightful surprise party was given last Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Everett Smith for Mrs. W. B. Smith at the home of the latter on Hargadine street. When Mrs. Smith returned home from visiting a neighbor she found her dearest friends gathered in the living rooms.

The affair was given in honor of Mrs. Smith who celebrated her 77th birthday anniversary on that date. She was the recipient of many lovely birthday remembrances. The afternoon was spent in conversation.

Delicious refreshments were served at a beautifully decorated table. Decorations were carried out in pink and white and a large pink and white birthday cake made a beautiful centerpiece.

Those present were Mesdames E. A. Eliason, J. R. Wick, Robertson, E. E. Phipps, Genea Allen, Edith Antilla, W. B. Smith and Master Mark Smith.

Sunday School Class— The Bethany Sunday School class of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet at the home of Mrs. C. H. Hatch at 355 Almond street next Friday afternoon at two o'clock. All the members are asked to be present as the teacher, Mrs. Allen, has a message for them.

Health Hints

BERNARD MACFADDEN

If baby has the food which Nature has provided for him, there is rarely any necessity for special care of the mouth. Yet it is a wise plan, for the first few days, or if he is ill, to wipe out the mouth with a piece of linen dipped in some boric-acid solution each time that he is nursed. This tends to keep the mouth sweet.

Many baby specialists prefer common salt (chloride of sodium) to borax or boric-acid as a mouth disinfectant, for the very sound reason that salt is one of the main elements of the normal secretions of the mouth. A teaspoonful of table salt to a large glass of water will prove a splendid mouth wash, with nothing but a benign action on the tissues and secretions of the mouth. Again, salt has no action on the fats of the milk, and does not promote curdling. In teething, it is very soothing to the gums. Artificial food not infrequently disagrees with the child, and there is scouring or regurgitating. With the precaution of cleansing the mouth after each feeding, there is less chance of it becoming coated, and ultimately sore.

After the little teeth come in, these may be cleaned with non-absorbent cotton twisted around a firm tooth-pick or wooden applicator. This may be dipped in boric-acid solution, or better in salt solution. Regular polishers for the teeth can be secured in some localities and are better than brushes, though the latter may be used if the bristles are fairly soft.

A small amount of lemon juice on a cotton applicator is good to remove spots, stains, or tartar from the little teeth, but this should be used only at long intervals, and may be slightly diluted, as the acid is somewhat inclined to injure the delicate enamel of the newly formed teeth.

Mention may be made here of the unfortunate habit people have of kissing a baby on the mouth. It is a custom that should be strongly condemned. It is unsanitary, say the least and yet the poor, helpless baby has to submit being unable to make any effective protest.

BARRED BY U S LAW
700 LOST SOULS ARE EXILED IN ENGLAND
SOUTHAMPTON, Eng., Jan. 27 —Atlantic Park Hostel, the British equivalent of Ellis Island, is today the home of 700 lost souls as a result of the recent stringent immigration laws laid down by the United States.
Situating on the outskirts of the Hampshire village of Eastleigh, and within easy distance of Southampton, the main port of embarkation for America, the hostel is seen as a range of low-lying buildings maintained by the big British steamship companies to provide temporary accommodation for immigrants waiting to enter the United States.
Due to the new immigration laws, however, many of the foreign immigrants housed in the hostel have to wait weeks, and sometimes, months, before they can expect to gain admittance, and it is no uncommon thing for more than 3,000 such immigrants to be housed in the hostel at one time.

Of these, perhaps, the plight of 700 prospective Russian immigrants is by far the worst. They have been in the hostel for more than a year, and, not daring to return to their own country and not being able to get into the United States, they are at present without either home or country.
The deadly monotony of waiting, without knowing what their fate is to be, is beginning to tell upon them, and they are beginning to show signs of restiveness which has not been allayed by the announcement that they are likely to remain at the hostel for many months yet.
Recently several score of them went on a so-called "hunger strike" to draw attention to their plight and to the fact that their food had to much sameness about it, and that sometimes it was hardly fit to eat. The "strike" was short-lived, however, the authorities assuring the strikers that the bad food had been served quite unintentionally, and that it would not happen again.
On the whole, the immigrants staying at the hostel are well cared for in scrupulously clean surroundings, and, considering that all they pay is about fifty cents a day for their board and lodging—some of them do not pay anything at all—the food is good.
The food bill of the hostel is colossal. Ten thousand eggs alone a week are used, and the monthly bill for eggs is about $4000.

DOCTORS SAY; DON'T NEGLECT COUGH OR COLD
Physicians warn against neglecting coughs and colds and tell of the serious lung complications that may result. Leading physicians now prescribe BALSAMEA for all bronchial affections. BALSAMEA is a pure vegetable preparation made from a newly discovered plant. Dr. Benj. F. Crabtree, Anderson, Mo., writes: "I use it exclusively for my practice and my family. It is quick, sure and safe in its action like nothing else."
Toward the end of the influenza epidemic a government physician noticed that a tribe of Indians in Nevada, by the use of oils from a native plant were immune from the ravages of influenza. He used these oils among his white patients and then in a hospital overflowing with "death" cases. News of the results swept the world and for some time it was not possible to supply the demand.
BALSAMEA has now been standardized and gives uniformly miraculous results in four ways: 1. It soothes the inflamed membranes and relieves irritation. 2. It increases secretion of mucus and permits easy expectoration. 3. It stimulates pores of the skin in throwing off body poisons and 4. It strikes at the cause, checking germ action immediately.
Do not confuse it with ordinary balsam cough syrups that are only soothing syrups and do not go to the base of the trouble. Unlike other cough remedies BALSAMEA is free from coal tar and other harmful narcotics. Pleasant to take and absolutely safe to give to children.
Be sure you get BAL-SA-ME-A with the picture of the Indian on the package. Guaranteed to relieve any cough, no matter from what cause, or your money back. All druggists sell BALSAMEA. In Ashland buy it from Eastside Pharmacy.
