CLEAVER AND HERWIG SHOULD GO

No dishonesty has been proved against Cleaver at the legislative hearing, but none was charged at the outset or at all, except incidentally by a few witnesses. What was mainly charged was that Cleaver's whole conduct of the offices of state prohibition commissioner has been bunglesome and incompetent.

The most sinister facts uncovered at the hearing concern the relationship of W. J. Herwig, of the Oregon anti-saloon league, with the state prohibition department. Cleaver charges that Herwig with approval of the governor has been allowed to direct Cleaver's conduct of his office, and that state moneys, in one instance the sum of $1500, have been given to Herwig, who allowed male and female rounders to expend them in carousals whose purpose was the obtaining of evidence of liquor law violations.

These disclosures discredit Herwig as well as Cleaver, and their general effect upon the cause of prohibition enforcement is undeniably bad. The anti-saloon league need to purge itself of Herwig no less than the state needs to purge itself of Cleaver.

FORESTRY—WHAT IS IT?

Forestry is not some vague theory; it is not "Wood-our civilization. It has been variously defined as a policy, man Spare That Tree" oratory. Forestry is the basis of a science, an art and a business. It is all of these.

Briefly, forestry is the growing and wise use of trees for lumber. It means the growing of timber on land unsuited for other uses. It keeps such land busy continuously producing timber and other forest products for the benefit of mankind. It treats the forests as a series of agricultural crops, to be grown, cared for and harvested in uninterrupted succession. A forest is not a mine, to be worked out and abandoned. Forestry seeks to make the land yield just as much in the way of forest products as is possible.

Foresters recognize their crop as a necessity in industry and in the life of every civilized man, but before they can apply fully the science and art of forestry to make the forests of this country yield the greatest good to mankind, certain things are necessary. Laws must be revised, policies worked out, money made available, and man-caused fires prevented. Citizens must know what forestry is and what its benefits are before they will want to have forestry practised.

OLD FIGHT OPENS

Echoes of the Jacksonville-Medford fight for the location of the county seat of Jackson county were heard in the house in HB No. 214, introduced by Representative Carlin by request of the Jackson County Bar association. So far efforts upon the part of Medford and the remainder of Jackson county to move the court house from Jacksonville to Medford have proven fruitless.

The measure provides that upon petition signed by one-fifth of the votes cast at the previous general election may be sufficient to force the county court to call a special election within 90 days. Prior to this time the petition was available only upon the signatures of three-fifths of the voters.

A previous bill provided that the place selected by the court must be designated and the offices moved within 90 days. Holding that such a transfer would be an impossibility, the new bill gives one year's time to make the change.

CUTTING DOWN INDUSTRIAL WASTE

Efforts to reduce some of the avoidable wastes prevalent in industry are rapidly expanding, it is reported by the Department of Manufacture of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, through simplification—the elimination of excess variations, duplications and over-diversity from common commodity lines. Experience has shown, the Department finds, that this process of cleaning out items of low or special demand has the effect, of stimulating, rather than stifling, inventive genius and individuality.

Two of the most recent simplification programs developed were for steel reinforcing bars and cotton duck. In the first line 11 sizes of bars to be available in 3 grades of steel were established as the recognized schedule. In the opinion of the producers, distributors and consumers these 33 possible varieties are sufficient for all ordinary purposes and were adopted in place of 51 sizes previously made.

The range of diversity was even greater in the case of cotton duck. Here there were some 432 varieties of a special character were listed and will be obtainable upon quantity orders but will not be carried as regular stock goods.

These simplified schedules became effective January 1, 1925, and November 1, 1924, respectively, and remain operative for a period of one year, at which time they are subject to revision.

Both of these programs were carried out under the procedure developed by the Division of Simplified Practice of the Department of Commerce and the Department of Manufacture of the United States Chamber of Commerce. These two bodies have directed their efforts in the co-ordination and centralization of this work for a period of several years and already a large number of industries have availed themselves of this service.

TEACHING RESPONSIBILITY

School savings bank balances increased from $11,807,000 to $20,435,000 during the year ending June 30, says an American Bankers' Association report. The number of savings bank pupils increased 328,475 or almost 17 per cent. In one group of 400 districts the total number of pupils increased 4 per cent, pupil bank participation 8 per cent, collections 23 per cent and bank balances 44 per cent. With the growing sense of responsibility, school honor rolls have grown from less than 30 per cent to more than 33 per cent.

Many an irresponsible man has been cured by giving him something to do. Many a "bad" boy, many a rebellious girl, can be started on the safe road by the responsibility of a bank account. No child was ever helped by being robbed of the privilege of property; the two dangerous extremes of society are the submerged few who have been so robbed, and the exotic few who have so much that things have no intrinsic meaning or value. This school bank account idea beats all the languages, dead or alive, for developing character and social stamina. Let's have more of it; not for the riches themselves—we're rich enough, as a nation—but for what it will do in teaching responsibility.

At any rate quotations from the modern language Bible won't be credited to Shakespeare.

Reputation by any other name makes it just as difficult to get money out of France.

Hell will have few terrors for the man whose love letters have been read in court.
