CUT THIS OUT — IT IS WORTH MONEY

Send this ad and ten cents to Foley & Co., 2335 Shegfield Ave., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will receive a sample bottle of FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND for coughs, colds and hoarseness, also sample packages of FOLEY PILLS, a diuretic stimulant for the kidney's and FOLEY CATHARTIC TABLETS for constipation and biliousness. These dependable remedies are free from opiates and have helped millions. Try them! Sold everywhere.

When pain comes, stop it. Be ever ready to stop it quickly, night or day. Don't suffer any pain which a moment of rubbing can stop. These include pains allied to rheumatism, to soreness, to lameness, to chest colds. They can be stopped at once. For 65 years they have been stopped by rubbing with St. Jacobs Oil.

As for curing the cause of the trouble. Nature usually does that. But don't suffer while you wait. St. Jacobs Oil causes counter irritation. Then it draws the blood to the surface to relieve congestion. In a minute or two you feel that the pain has ebbed. You rejoice in relief.

Perhaps there are other ways. But this is the one way that millions have used—have proved it for 65 years. You can rely on it. Your druggist guarantees it. Why take chances when you know that nothing can be better?

Don't wait for an emergency. It may mean a night of pain. Have St. Jacobs Oil ever ready. Apply it as soon as you feel a pain, or a chest cold. Be ready to soothe it, to check it at once. There will never be a better way. Go get it now to be prepared when pain comes. It may save you and yours many unhappy hours.

Entertains With Tea— One of the very delightful teas of the season was the one given yesterday by Mrs. F. G. Swedenburg at her lovely home on the Boulevard honoring Mrs. Brent Page of Sap-and-Salt.

The keynote of the party was the birthdays of the hostess and the honored guest which singularly occurred on the same day. About fifty close friends of the hostess gathered at the home and spent the afternoon doing fancy work and conversing. Mrs. Page was seated in a large arm chair and one guest would sit and chat with her until tagged by some other guest. At four o'clock the guests were escorted by Mrs. V. V. Mills to the dining room, with Mrs. A. E. Woods playing a suitable selection on the piano. The doors were thrown open and the guests received their first inkling of the fact that the affair was celebrating the joint birthdays of Mrs. Swedenburg and Mrs. Page when they were greeted with the two yellow and rose birthday cakes at the table.

The color scheme was carried out in yellow and rose and a large centerpiece of yellow snapdragons, sweet peas and rose carnations formed a delightful part of the setting. Strips of yellow and rose crepe paper were about the table and rose candles adorned the buffet. The mantle was decorated with a bouquet of acacia and yellow candles.

After the guests were seated at the table the cakes were cut, one by Mrs. Page and the other by Mrs. Swedenburg. A dime was hidden in each cake and the one who was fortunate enough to receive it was given a beautiful set of nut cups. Mrs. P. K. Hammond received the prize for finding the dime in the guests cake and Mrs. Royal Bebb was the fortunate winner of the other prize. Mrs. Robinette and Miss Victoria Tavener poured. Receiving at the door were Mesdames Brent Page.

SAFE FOR CHILDREN Mothers everywhere demand a reliable cough remedy free from injurious narcotics. Supplying this demand for fifty years made FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND one of the Largest Selling Cough Medicines in the World. Children like it. "My little boy had a very bad cough, and after he used FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND he got relief at once," writes Mrs. Van Belle, Penroy, Mont. Refuse substitutes. Sold everywhere.

Fraternal Brotherhood— J. A. Batchelor, Supreme President of the Fraternal Brotherhood of Los Angeles will be in Ashland Tuesday evening, February 10 to visit the local organization. A covered dish supper will be served at the Parish House at six-thirty for the members of the lodge and their families.

Members expecting to attend the supper are asked to communicate with Mrs. Mark True who is chairman of the committee in order that a variety of foods will be furnished.

At nine o'clock the group will journey to the Moose Hall where the regular monthly dance will be held. A short program has also been arranged and snappy dance music is promised by the committee in charge.

Standard Bearers— The Standard Bearers had a very interesting and delightful meeting at the home of Virginia Whittle Wednesday evening. The regular missionary lesson was held and a social hour followed. A delicious two-course luncheon was served late in the evening at a table beautifully decorated with pink and white, carrying out the Valentine suggestion. A lovely centerpiece of geraniums decorated the center of the table and candles were placed at intervals, forming a charming picture for the affair.

These meetings are held at the homes of the girl members and are always looked forward to.

Dinner Party — Mrs. H. M. Channel was the hostess at a pleasant dinner party given at the Hotel Ashland Wednesday evening at seven o'clock. The members of the Sunday School class were guests for the evening.

Those present were Janie Walker, Mildred Elder, Lola Gilmore, Sylvora Hach, Margaret Miller, Gladys Lyman, Elizabeth Payne, Jessie Baker, Celia Reinhart, Janet Wilson and Linda Oeder.

Board Meeting of S. Ore. District Federation. — Mrs. Arthur Earhart of Rogue River, president of Southern Ore. District Federation of Women's Clubs, has already started work on this year's meeting which will be held at Rogue River, the last Saturday in April, the Rogue River Woman's Civic Club doing the entertaining.

A "no hostess" luncheon at Hotel Holland, Tuesday, was attended by officers and chairman of committees of this organization, and following this, a business meeting was held in the parlor of the hotel. Much important business was attended to and the following chairmen appointed: Music, Mrs. C. D. Fies, Grants Pass; Literature and Art, Mrs. Robinson, Medford; Civics, Mrs. Harrison, Klamath Falls; Education, Mrs. Susanne Homes-Carter; Press and Publicity, Mrs. Grace E. Andrews, Ashland; Program, Mrs. Arthur Earhart, Rogue River.

Mrs. Barnes of Merlin not being able to go on with the work as organizer, Mrs. G. R. Satchwell of Medford was appointed in her place.

This district extends from Roseburg to Klamath Falls and there are at present sixteen clubs which are members of this Federation, which is the only District Federation in Oregon. It is expected that many others will join this year.

Those present at the board meeting and luncheon were: Mrs. Arthur Earhart and Mrs. Clark, Rogue River; Mrs. C. H. Woodward and Mrs. C. D. Fies, Grants Pass; Mrs. Gordon MacCracken, Ashland; Mrs. Long, Talent; Mrs. Campbell, Eagle Point; Mrs. J. A. Gammill, Phoenix; Mrs. Harrison, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Satchwell, Mrs. Smith, and Mrs. Scheffelin of Medford.

Reported by Mrs. Gordon MacCracken, member of Publicity committee of Civic Club.

A Correction— In some way a mistake crept in, in the Civic Club report published Wednesday. The word "illiterates" was interchanged with the words "foreign born" in one instance which changed the meaning very considerably. There are 9000 illiterates and 100,000 foreign born in the state of Oregon and 1000 foreign born in Jackson county. Perhaps few noticed the error but it was thought best to give the statement as noted from the address given.

ENGLAND FACES RECRUDESCENCE OF OLD PAGANISM

LONDON, Feb. 6. — England is faced with a recrudescence of paganism, in the opinion of the Right Rev. Guy F. Warman, Bishop of Chelmsford and noted writer.

In an address to a recent clerical congress here, the bishop averred that the country, in addition to being faced with an era of paganism, was also faced to some extent with the failure of its Church.

"The World War," he told his audience, "has changed the whole situation in England. Although it is possible to exaggerate the extent of this change, we know that there has settled on the community a profound discontent with things as they are at present and a restless, inchoate longing to put them right."

"The great mass of the people of England," he continued, "have either considered and found no use for religion or they have accepted the opinion of others that it is useless. From what they have seen of the churches, they are indisposed to think that the help they need is to be found there. The reason for this is to be seen partly in the failure and incapacity of the Church and partly in the materialistic methods in the life of the world."

"Individuality and collectively, men and women of the world at present seem to be living on the edge of a precipice. A great political laughs at ideals. A sudden strike or lookout upsets an industry. Young people commit suicide after attending dances. All these things are a part of the so-called intricate situation."

"Marriage is a problem—or is postponed. Money is scarce. Unemployment seems to have become permanent. The struggle for existence is fiercer than ever, and the result is immorality, immersion in pleasures and callous materialism."

"The pagan gods are fighting for their own again, and they seem to be fighting with the odds in their favor."

Other speakers at the congress testified in support of the bishop's avowals.

One prominent London preacher declared that, in the diocese of London alone, 440,000 communicants — mainly young people — lapsed in one year.

Prophecy

THERE were few who shared the faith of the pioneers who undertook the development of the telephone.

With an infant art to nourish constantly by new discovery and invention, and handicapped by scanty capital and public apathy, they held to their vision of a nation-wide service.

Nearly two score years ago, when the telephones of the United States were fewer than those of a single New York borough today, the business was organized essentially like the Bell System of the present. That is: a central advisory staff, a central scientific organization devoted to development and research, a central department to promote progress in operating technique, a central source of supply of standardized material, local operating companies familiar with local needs, and a national net-work of lines interconnecting these companies.

Telephone pioneers planned this organization structure, believing it necessary for efficient and economical national service. The nation's experience has proved the clearness of their vision.
