NAVY REPLIES TO MITCHELL CHARGES

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—The navy today replied to General William Mitchell's charges of inefficiency in handling war time aviation plans in one word. It was "bunk". Climaxing a heated session of the special house committee investigating aircraft conditions, Captain Johnson, assistant chief of the naval air service denied Mitchell's charges, and denied Mitchell was qualified to speak as he did.

PHROPHETESS FAILS TO GUESS END OF WORLD

(Continued from page 1.) of the world. Dr. B. Fuller, leader of the reformed Adventists here declared to newspapermen today that the faith of Mrs. Rowan's followers would not be shaken by the failure of the earth to come to an end on scheduled time, and that they would still continue to believe that the "second coming of Christ" is not far distant. Mrs. Rowan refused to make a statement when her scheduled "end of the world" failed to appear, and she instructed her followers to refuse to talk when approached by interviewers.
