CHICAGO GUNMAN FOR SIMPLE LIFE ON COLORADO FARM DENVER, Feb. 16. - "Diamond Jack," Alterie, noted Chicago underworld leader and reputed "gunman," is tiring of the hectic life of the big city and wants to live peacefully on a Colorado ranch.

Alterie, participant in many gun battles around Chicago and pal of Dean O'Bannon, victim of an underworld feud, who was assassinated in his Chicago florist shop has already invested in extensive acreage in the vicinity of Jarr Canon in Douglas County, twenty-five miles south of Denver, and he plans to renew the life of his youth as a cowboy and rancher.

Louie ("Diamond Jack") Alterie, or Leland Varian - his correct name, he says - has spent the past few months in and around Denver and declares he is converted to the "simple life."

While Chicago police were broadcasting a description of the alleged "gunman" and asking for his arrest on numerous charges Alterie appeared in Denver, garbed in the height of fashion, bedecked with huge diamonds and looking anything but the desperate criminal tales from Chicago had led the public to believe him.

Alterie, six feet tall, with massive shoulders, resented the appellation of "tough guy." "I am not a 'tough guy,'" he declared to interviewers; "nor do I hold the title of 'gang leader.'"

"I'm tired of dogging it around Chicago, with fifteen or twenty of my friends flitting around me, constantly warning me that I'm likely to be shot in the back. That constant vigilance and harrying grows tiresome.

Miss Estelle Gehring, a trained nurse of Chicago, has surrendered letters she alleges were written to her by William D. Shepherd, foster father of the millionaire youth, William McClinton, whose fortune she inherited on the boy's death

Of 632 typewriters imported into Brazil during the single month, 681 were from the United States; of sewing machines 2,150 were from this country, 238 from Germany and eight from England.

BANDITS "NOTCH" STEERING WHEEL IN 100 ROBBERIES

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 16 - Bandits who proclaim their criminal accomplishments by notching the handles of their six-shooters are being superseded by a different type of desperado, who cuts a notch in the steering wheel of his automobile.

And, while the picturesque bad man of the West was supposed to record only killings, the modern bandit takes note of each felonious "job" by adding a notch to the wheel.

This was the discovery of local police who recently apprehended a trio of motor-car bandits and found the steering wheel adorned by nearly a hundred such notches.

One of the three was comely May Conrad, twenty-one-year-old bobbed-haired handmaiden and the mother of two children. She was arrested acting as "lookout" for Charles and George Maggard, twenty-two and nineteen, respectively, while they looted a house.

All were arraigned before Criminal Court Judge Collins and sentenced to from two to fifteen years imprisonment. They admitted, according to police, that they had staged nearly a hundred robberies in eight States. Notches on the steering wheel of the car they used bore mute evidence of the fact.

When Judge Collins pronounced sentence upon her, the girl-bandit burst into tears. "I want my babies!" she cried. It was the first indication that the nerves of steel which had withstood the strain of the many "jobs" in which she confessed taking part, had given way.

"I'll promise never to go wrong again!" she sobbed; but Judge Collins refused to modify the sentence. Mrs. Conrad said she was the mother of a girl, eighteen months old, and a boy four years. The children, she said, are being cared for by her mother in River-view, Pa.

Evil influence, rather than a quest for thrills, was responsible for her starting upon a life of crime when she was twenty, the girl told police.

No Doubt About It Major: "Would you run if you saw ten Germans coming after you?" Private: "You're darned Teuton!"

Now I've bought 4,000 acres over in Douglas County, and I'm planning to enjoy the climate and scenery of Colorado the remainder of my days.

Alterie said he planned to open a rodeo and moving picture camp on his property. He admitted however, that his "peaceful days" in Colorado would not begin immediately, as he has a "little business" back in Chicago.

"I don't have to steal. My income is more than I'll ever need and, besides, I hold the position of president of the Janitors' Union in Chicago. I'll stay in Chicago until I get ready to leave. I'll not shake hands with anyone except my trusted friends; for no enemy will ever hold me by one hand and shoot me with the other. That was the trouble with O'Bannon. He was too trustful.

"I'm tiring of that life, though and I want to come back here to Colorado," Alterie concluded. "I'm sick of paying lawyers' fees and weary of picking up the papers to read such headlines as 'Alterie Hunted in $50,000 property is located amid surroundings of scenic

PNEUMONIA USUALLY STARTS FROM COLDS

Physicians warn against neglecting coughs and colds and tell of the serious lung complications that may result. Leading physicians now prescribe BALSAMEA for all bronchial affections. BALSAMEA is a pure vegetable preparation made from a newly discovered plant...

Toward the end of the influenza epidemic a government physician noticed that a tribe of Indians in Nevada, by the use of oils from a native plant were immune from the ravages of influenza.

BALSAMEA has now been standardized and gives uniformly marvellous results in four ways: 1. It soothes the inflamed membranes and relieves irritation.

Do not confuse it with ordinary balsam cough syrups that are only soothing syrups and do not go to the base of the trouble. Unlike other cough remedies BALSAMEA is free from coal tar and other harmful narcotics.
