WORLD SERIES TO OPEN OCTOBER 7

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 12—(U. P.)—The world series will open Wednesday, October 7, in the city that wins the National League pennant, it was announced today, following a conference of the leading club officials of both leagues, with Commissioner Landis.

CONGRESS TO PROBE AIR CONDITIONS

DETROIT, Sept. 12—(U. P.)—A congressional investigation to determine whether unified or dual control of the army and navy air services is desirable, is the logical way out of the air controversy, Senator James Couzens of Michigan believes. "There is apparently considerable public belief in the charges of Colonel Mitchell, and in justice to all concerned, Congress should go to the bottom of the matter," he said.

NICARAGUA HEAD WANTS U. S. SHIPS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12—(U. P.)—At the request of President Solarez of Nicaragua, the American gunboats, Tulsa and Denver are enroute from Panama to Bluefields and Carinto, with 300 United States marines aboard, the state department announced today.

Fearing an uprising, Solarez requested the return of the marines, who were withdrawn from the country only a few weeks ago.

INCREASE NOT ENOUGH SAYS RAIL OFFICIALS

an eleven per cent increase and later, all but the St. Paul modified this to five per cent. "We are not satisfied," he said, "with the answers to the questions as to why this last minute change of front was made."

It is reported that a new plan is in progress. That is presents many intricacies is shown by the questioning of T. A. Hamilton, former president of the International and Great Northern railroad by Chairman Atchinson. Mr. Hamilton, who appears for the bond holders, related how the St. Paul had broken down under inadequate freight rates. He said that in the four years since the termination of federal control the four main northwestern roads had saved $28,000 by new economies and efficiency, but in this same period their gross revenue shrank $64,000,000.
