MORE PRODUCE IS NEEDED FOR DISTRICT SHOW

Vegetables Called For to be Used in Talent District Booth at State Fair

FITTINGER IN CHARGE

Exhibit Attracts Much Attention at Jackson County Fair, To be Held at Portland

"We need all the fresh vegetables we can get in order to keep our exhibit in first class condition for the state fair," declared J. B. Fittinger, one of the men in charge of the Talent Irrigation District display at the Jackson county fair.

Fittinger's department, the one in which was displayed the vegetables and garden truck raised in the Talent Irrigation District, is the only department which will need a great deal of replenishing for the State Fair and the Portland International Livestock show, it is said.

In the other departments, the agricultural, the horticultural and the home and vacation departments, the articles used for the displays are not perishable, and can be used at the other fairs.

"We need good cabbage, pop corn, high colored apples of any variety and sweet corn, if anyone has any left," Fittinger said.

Anyone having any of these products, is asked to call Fittinger, at 406 North Main street. He will call for the vegetables, and place them in cold storage until the time arrives when they will be put on exhibit at the state fair.

The Talent Irrigation District display attracted world-wide attention at the Jackson county fair, and was considered by many to be the finest display among the many fine ones at that show.

Occupying almost the entire side of the Horticulture Building, the display was made up of the many products of the land embraced by the Talent Irrigation District.

In addition, one section of the display was given over to the vacation possibilities of Southern Oregon. A model camp was arranged, set in a clump of fir boughs, and on all sides were placed mounted specimens of the various kinds of game which may be hunted for in this section.

At the other end of the display was a model farm kitchen, electrical in every detail. Information was given that the Talent Irrigation District has more homes electrically equipped than any district, of equal size, in the state.

There is a possibility that the display, which attracted so much attention at the Jackson county fair, may be taken to Los Angeles, for the land show there, following its showing at the Portland International Livestock exhibition late this fall.

Recognizes Stolen Jewel, Now on Hunt for Thief

KLAMATH FALLS, Sept. 21.—Arrest of Leo Popovich, for an alleged hold-up in Oakland, October 1, last, was sought today by Paul Boszome, who told Deputy District Attorney Wiest that a diamond stickpin lost by him in a street hold-up in the southern city was found on Popovich, in this city several days ago.

While seeking Popovich's arrest on the criminal charge, Boszome was preparing to take civil action in court, through replevin action filed Saturday by his attorney, David R. Vanderburg.

Last October, according to Boszome's story, he was invited to accompany two friends to an apartment. Enroute, he says, he was held up and relieved of $32 in cash, a gold watch and a diamond stickpin.

He had given up all hope, he says, of recovering the missing jewelry until several days ago when a friend, Emil Yoja, came to him and said he had seen a man wearing the diamond stickpin in a gambling house on Klamath avenue.

AIR SERVICE IS INADEQUATE IS WORD OF DAVIS

Economy of Coolidge Ruins Chances for Up-to-Date Air Department

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—(U. P.)—The army air service equipment is far from adequate in number of planes, and the part of it built during the war, is in very unsatisfactory condition, Acting Secretary of War Davis told the President's national aircraft commission at the opening session here today.

Lack of funds, due to the economy of the administration, is the cause of the condition, which can be remedied only by money, Davis said.

"I believe that our personnel is at least equal in skill, hardihood and bravery to that of any other nation, but they are held back by lack of adequate equipment," Davis asserted.

Rosendahl, one of the surviving officers, which was ready before the naval court of inquiry here today.

MAN STABBED RESULT FIGHT OVER WOMAN

Hyman Huntley Held in Co. Jail as Result of Killing

QUARREL OVER WIFE

Victim Broke up Home Declares Knife Wielder, Men Were Brothers-in-Law

MEDFORD, Sept. 21.—Jesse James Gibbs is in the morgue here this morning, dead as the result of 13 wounds in his chest and abdomen, and his brother-in-law, Hyman Huntley, is in the county jail, awaiting his preliminary hearing, as the result of a knife fight at the Huntley home on West Second street early Friday morning.

According to the local police, the fight took place over Huntley's wife.

Gibbs, his wife and three children were visiting the Huntley home yesterday, when the two men became engaged in an altercation over what Huntley called were undue attentions being shown his wife by Gibbs.

According to members of the family, the two men quarreled all morning, their words finally leading to the knife play.

Suddenly, in the midst of the quarrel, Huntley whipped out his knife and stabbed Gibbs several times in the abdomen and chest. Gibbs fell to the floor, and Huntley continued his attack, ceasing only when he believed the victim to be dead.

However, badly wounded, Gibbs arose and walked out into the back yard of the home, where he died, almost immediately.

The stabbing was done with a pocket knife, which had a five inch blade.

Huntley immediately gave himself up to Night Officer J. O. Cave, declaring that he had stabbed his brother-in-law after he had given him repeated warnings to remaining away from his (Huntley's) wife.

However, when he gave himself up, Huntley did not know that Gibbs had died. When he was informed that his brother-in-law had died as the result of the wounds he had inflicted, Gibbs said: "Well, he broke up my home."

An inquest will be held either this afternoon or tomorrow morning, over the body of the dead man. In the meanwhile, Huntley is being held in the county jail, without bond, with the knowledge that a murder charge is certain to be lodged against him.

JOY SELECTED AS OBSERVER FOR JOURNAL

Crop Conditions to be Reported Upon by Index by Local Man

Appointment of A. C. Joy, of Ashland, as crop observer in Jackson county for the Sears-Roebuck Agricultural Foundation Index, is announced from Chicago by P. V. Ewing, director of research for the Foundation and editor of the Index. He will form a link in the nation-wide chain of county agricultural observers elected because of his first-hand knowledge of farming conditions and his ability to observe these and intelligently interpret them.

The Index, to which the observer from this county will contribute, is a compilation of the monthly reports of 3,650 observers in every section of the country, and this number is being added to steadily. All the observers are practical, thinking, farm-minded men, each chosen because of the opportunities he has to observe the needs of agriculture in his own locality and for his ability to apply economic principles to current farm problems.

As a group, they represent a cross-section of the thoughts that the man in the furrow is thinking, and their joint analysis of existing agricultural conditions, as expressed in the Index, is considered a forward step in helping agriculture help itself.

Noted Weather Man Declares Winter to be Very Rainy

SANTA CLARA, Cal., Sept. 21.—(U. P.)—The coming winter will be very, very wet, but not exceedingly cold.

This is the promise of Father J. S. Ricard, professor of astronomy at Santa Clara university.

"We shall have a fairly early winter," he said. "It will be extremely wet, but only moderately cold in California and across the United States. There will be more snow on the mountains, and precipitation will be considerable heavier in the West than last year."

Father Ricard has earned a reputation for correct weather prophecies by the large number of his forecasts that have come true on the Pacific coast. Many place more faith in him than in the official weather man.

The Ricard predictions are based on a study of sun spots. The theory has just received the cooperation of Dr. Charles G. Abbott, director of the Astrophysical Observatory at the Smithsonian Institute.

JONES IS TO BE PROSECUTOR IN ELLIOTT CASE

Former Acting District Attorney Will Prosecute Present Office Holder

KLAMATH FALLS, Sept. 21.—Caleb Jones, former acting district attorney, has been appointed by Judge A. L. Leavitt as special prosecutor in the case of State of Oregon vs. E. L. Elliott, charged with malfeasance in public office.

Announcement of the appointment was made Saturday and was confirmed by Mr. Jones. The case will come up for hearing on motions the morning of September 25, before Judge Percy R. Kelley, of Salem, who will preside throughout the case.

Mr. Jones was acting district attorney just prior to the appointment of Mr. Elliott, and was instrumental in bringing the evidence before the grand jury that led to the indictment of the district attorney.

"I feel no hesitancy in accepting the appointment," Mr. Jones said today. "There is absolutely nothing personal in it as far as I am concerned. I was appointed by the court, I suppose, because I am conversant with the facts in the case. I was instrumental in bringing forth the evidence before the grand jury that indicted Mr. Elliott. I can see no reason why I should not handle the case."

The indictment of Mr. Elliott, which was made two months ago, is in connection with alleged malfeasance of office during the month of January, 1924. The indictment charges Mr. Elliott was taking possession of

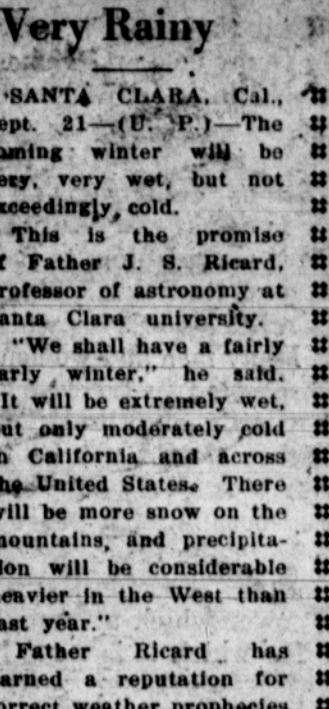

MINISTER IS A VICTIM OF CAR ACCIDENT

Car Turned Over by Crash on Crater Lake Highway No One Hurt

Rev. W. H. Amos of Ashland, Sunday school missionary for the Presbyterian church in Southern Oregon, came near having a very serious accident Thursday afternoon on the Crater Lake highway. While returning from Prospect, about four miles from Medford, he met a Mr. Hollenbeck of Prospect, returning home from Medford. Mr. Hollenbeck had gotten off into the loose gravel on the side of the road and was trying his best to get his car out of the loose gravel onto the solid road bed, when suddenly just as Mr. Amos came opposite him, his car took a sudden spurt, crossing the road and smashed directly into Mr. Amos' car—wrecking the front wheel and fender, running board and upsetting the car into the ditch with Mr. Amos underneath.

Fortunately Mr. Amos was not pinned in any way and quickly extricated himself from his perilous position with only a few bruises about the lower limbs. His engine and four wheels were still running although upside down. The top was smashed, the fenders and frame were also smashed in the upset, making the car practically a complete wreck. Mr. Hollenbeck's car also suffered considerable damage. Mr. Hollenbeck assumed responsibility for the accident although it was not due to any careless driving.

LAST DAY OF BIG FAIR ATTRACTS A CAPACITY CROWD

Best Program of Week is Presented at Fair Grounds Yesterday. Warm Sunshine Brings Out Many Who Had Not Yet Attended County Fair.

With the sun shining brightly, in contrast with the four dark, rainy days of Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the regular scheduled days, the Jackson county fair for 1925 was brought to a close yesterday afternoon, the extra day of the big show.

A special program consisting of three motorcycle races, three automobile races, horse races, motorcycle exhibitions, exhibitions by McCleaves trained horses and rodeo features were presented yesterday in the biggest program offered during the fair.

An almost capacity crowd, brought out by the warm weather and the special events, witnessed the program. During the first two days of the fair, the crowds were very small, the expense mounting far above the gate receipts. On Friday, Ashland Day, more than 7,000 paid admissions were received at the gate, and with school children being admitted free, it was estimated that more than 10,000 persons attended the fair. However, Saturday, rain again fell, and the program was called off. For a time it was believed the big sham battle, scheduled for Saturday night, would be held, but at the last minute, this event was also called off. However it may be held sometime in the near future, since all the equipment is still on hand.

OPENING OF NEW HOTEL IS TO BE MONDAY

Many Hotel Men to Attend Formal Opening of Hotel Here

One week from today, the Lithia Springs hotel will be formally opened, in the presence of the owners and managers of the leading hotels on the Pacific Coast, according to an announcement made this morning by R. W. Price, lessee of the newly completed hostelry here.

A pretentious program has been arranged for the opening night, and in addition local people are preparing additional features which will be presented at that time.

The Lithia Springs hotel was opened first on July 1 of this year. At that time but a few of the lower floor rooms were ready for occupancy, but Price insisted that he be allowed to open, in order that the fame of the hotel might be spread at once. In this way, next season will see the greatest influx of tourists stopping here that Ashland has ever experienced.

Workmen continued to carry out the construction work on the hotel until two weeks ago, at which time the directors of the Lithia Hotel corporation accepted the building as substantially completed. However, the outside of the structure is to be repainted, the architect declaring that he was not satisfied with the work done.

California Bars Texas Livestock Claim Epizootic

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 21.—(U. P.)—Gov. Friend W. Richardson late Friday signed a quarantine order which prohibits the shipment of Texas cattle, hogs and sheep into the state of California.

The action was taken as a preventative measure against the possible spread of the foot and mouth disease.

The governor's order was issued on the strength of information furnished by Dr. John R. Mohler, chief of the division of animal industry of the United States department of agriculture, and upon the recommendation of Dr. J. P. Iverson, chief of the state department of animal industry.

Mohler advised the California department of agriculture that injunctive had been obtained to prevent federal and state authorities from taking measures to stamp out the disease now prevalent among Texas livestock.
