present, plans were started for the reorganisation of the Southern Oregon Chautaugus Associa tion into an active organiz at the meeting of the associ chargers of the City Hall.

At the present time, the majority of the association members are life members, and with the existing membership fee held by the body, no new members ar being brought in.

It is the hope of those fos tering the reorganization move that with the changing of the Many Exhibitors Already by-laws and constitution, and the lowering of the membership fees, new blood will be brought into the organization, which will bring it out of the lethargic condition in which it has remained for several years.

At the present time, a yearly membership is sold for $10, a ten year membership for $25 and a life membership in the association for $100. During the earlier years of the association, has kept the flower gardens in when the organization was very active, putting on a program and that many flower growers of Chautauqua events yearly, these rates were very reasonable. the members claim, but new, with the organization practically The Lithia Springs hotel has inactive, it is felt that the rates offered the use of the lobby of are too high, and are keeping that hostelry for the show, which out members who would aid in will be held on Wednesday, Sep-
