NEW WAX FIGURES POUT AND FROWN

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 24. (U. P.) — Work hard and eat little if you want to live to be a hundred.

This simple recipe for happiness and longevity comes from Johnathan Foulke, 108-year old champion of aged sprinters.

Foulke beat a score of old-time distance men in a footrace at a labor festival here. None of the runners was younger than 73. Foulke was the oldest—and the fastest.

"How do I do it?" explained Foulke. "I always worked hard. Never did eat much. Only time I ever was filled plumb was once when we had fried coon. Work hard and eat little—that's the secret of living a long time."

LIPSTICK RESTORES OLD TIME GALLANTRY

CLEVELAND, Sept. 25—(U. P.)—Kissing the lady's hand, a gallant form of greeting belonging to the days of courtesy, is coming back.

Authority for the announcement of its recurrence, Cleveland Health Commissioner Rockwell, explained that the occasion had nothing to do with sanitation. The secret is the lipstick.

"Girls are getting tired of having to fix up their lips every time they are kissed," the commissioner pointed out. "Likewise their suitors fear the betraying red imprints scattered over their faces. So the style now is for the fair lady to be kissed on the hand."

The reason they bring us their clothes—

We take out the odor, as everyone knows.
