Calendar Of Events

The W. R. C. club will meet with Mrs. Mills, 315 Almond street at 2:00 o'clock Monday afternoon.

The Ashland music study club will meet Tuesday evening, September 25 instead of the regular date, Monday, September 24, in the library.

Epworth League Meeting—A delightful evening was spent last evening with the Epworth League of the Methodist church entertaining in the church parlors. The social was held in honor of the new students and teachers.

A delicious cafeteria luncheon was served, after which games were enjoyed. The object of the meeting was for every one to get acquainted.

Who Do Class Meeting—The Who Do class of the Methodist church held their regular business meeting and social with Mrs. Clinton Baughman yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Charles H. Martin assisted Mrs.

Basquias in moving refreshments. After the business meeting the afternoon was spent with fancy work and conversation. Next month the club will meet with Mrs. G. M. Nelson.

Baptist Sunday School Social—At 6:00 o'clock last evening in the church parlors of the Baptist church the Baptist Sunday school held a covered dish luncheon. The long tables were beautifully decorated with daffodils.

Mr. G. N. Gilmore presided during an impromptu program. The superintendent of each department of the Sunday school explained the work and what has been planned in the Sunday school.

Special entertainment was provided for the children. This social is held annually preceding Rally Day which is to be held Sunday.

E. Y. P. U. at 8 o'clock. Preaching at 7:30. We hope to have Dr. Milliken remain over for the evening services.

Trinity Episcopal Church. Vicar, the Rev. P. K. Hammond. Holy Communion at 8 a. m.; church school at 9:45; morning service and sermon at 11; evening service at 7:30. Everyone cordially welcome.

Church Of Christ. V. K. Allison, Minister. The Sunday school will present a program to the public on Rally Day, Oct. 4. The program in detail will be published later. Our goal in numbers is 300, our goal from standpoint of service is "Every Member of the Church a Member of the Bible School." Every Member of the Bible School a Member of the Church. A telegram has been received from Sime and Ma Sledge saying they will be present. A basket dinner will be enjoyed in the new dining room at noon and also on Oct. 4. Next Lord's Day services as usual. Bible school at 9:45 a. m. The new annex is now in use throughout and the A. K. I. A. class of men have their room ready for use. Morning sermon at 11:15 a. m. subject, "More Than Conquerors." Christian Endeavor service at 6:30 p. m. Preaching

The First Baptist Church (Incorporated) B. C. Miller, Pastor. "What Saith The Scriptures?" In which will be a study of some thing that will be helpful to those who wish to take the Word of God alone as their only rule of faith and practice. The subject for the evening service will be "A Great Salvation." Don't forget the little brown bungalow at the edge of the park. Those who come say: "Behold God is in this place." Don't miss the evening service. You will be glad if you come. Bible school 9:45 a. m. Stories have been placed in the building to keep it warm for the children in their different departments. The Young people meet at 8:30. This is interesting and instructive. Last Friday night at the young people's rally, Miss Hazel Neece brought a message that was more helpful and inspiring than many we hear from the pulpit on Sunday. God is calling and encourage them.

The Stone Church. Corner of Fifth and East Main. Evangelist A. S. Maljory and his wife are with us from Bakersfield, California. He will preach for us Sunday morning and Sunday evening. His subject will be, "If The Lord Will." The close of the Gentle Dispassionate announcements of other subjects on prophecy will be made later. Sunday school at ten a. m. S. F. Starr, super-
