Calendar Of Events
The Ashland Study club will hold the first meeting of the year Monday afternoon October 5, at the home of Mrs. G. G.
Bubanks, with the following program:
Roll call—vacation experiences.
Selected subject—Mrs. Fred Engle.
Review of "Behind the Range"—Anne Channon.
Monroe—Mrs. H. H. Elhart.
Mrs. O. A. Paulsen
Entertainers—
One of the delightful parties opening the coming season occurred Thursday afternoon when Mrs. O. A. Paulsen entertained a number of friends at an early autumn tea, honoring Mrs. C.
Ellison Shinn.
Autumn leaves and late flowers formed the decorative motif, while the hostess was assisted by Mrs. H. K. Tomlinson and Mrs. Andrew McCallen, with Mrs. Domino Provost, Mrs. J. E.
Enders, and Mrs. Andrew McGee presiding over the tea table.
Dr. and Mrs. Shinn expect to make Ashland their future home.

Surprise Party
A surprise party was given Mary S. Dutton by the Macabee ladies Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Dutton's daughter, Mrs. C. I. J. Porter, on North Main.
A very delightful evening was spent with games and music.
At a late hour refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.
Mrs. Dutton will leave soon for her home in Spokane, after a visit of several months in Ashland.

Delphian Meeting
A special board meeting of the Delphians was called Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clyde Malone in order to meet with Mrs. James Goble, the national organizer. The interest in the Delphian movement was made stronger than when the club was first organized.
The fact that Klamath Falls now has an enthusiastic chapter as well as Medford makes far more interest locally.
Some who were asked in the spring and could not join have asked to come in now so they might start the year's work and not lose any of the foundation study. The board decided that for a few days the membership would be open so Delphians are asked to submit names of friends they are anxious to have join to the supervisor, Mrs. Victor Mills at the earliest possible date. The membership will then be closed and meetings begin.
The first board meeting is scheduled for Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs.
Clyde Malone.
