LET FARMERS ALONE

Roundly scoring the "legislative mania which has turned our heads and depleted out pocketbooks," in a message to visitors to the grange community exhibit re cently held at Snohomish, Wash., Governor Roland H. Hartley declared that the greatest favor the state can bestow upon the farmer is to "get off of his back and leave him free to go about his business unhampered by an army of regulators, investigators, inspectors, advisors and dic- at you make a bone of your tators."

The farmer, Governor Hartley declared, is no differ ent in his relation to the state than any other citizen, since the state is the product of the cooperative effort of all citizens, regardless of vocation or profession. He deplored any tendency toward "group government." Participation in government affairs is as much the business of the farmer as his purely agricultural pursuits, Governor Hartley pointed out, as all government activity vitally affects the farmer.

LOOK BEFORE YOU CROSS

Drivers of automobiles should be doubly cautious in crossing railroad tracks where the highway parallels the

No railroad crossing should be crossed without looking in both directions and it is particularly necessary to safety that this be done when crossing where railroad and highway parallel each other.

Carelessness on the part of the driver at such crossings is attended by great danger.

Bear in mind that gears should not be shifted on or near the track. Many machines stall when shifting gears If necessary to shift gears do so not less than 75 feet from track, then look in both directions before crossing.
