

ASHLAND DAILY TIDINGS

The Tidings Has Been Ashland's Leading Newspaper For Nearly Fifty Years
(United Press Wire Service)

ASHLAND, OREGON, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1925

Grand Opening

McGee's

NEW STORE

Friday Evening and Saturday

Millinery Opening

Mrs. J. H. Sugg, on the front mezzanine

Friday Evening and Saturday

Giving Ashland As Good As There Is

AND WHY NOT, WHEN ONE IS PLANNING TO SERVE, FOR YEARS TO COME, SUCH A CLASS OF PATRONS AS WILL NATURALLY SEEK SO BEAUTIFUL A SPOT AS ASHLAND FOR A HOME TOWN, GIVE THEM AS GOOD AS THEY CAN GET ANYWHERE. THIS SPLENDID STORE HOME HAS BEEN PLANNED FOR YOU, A PLACE WHERE ASHLAND WOMEN CAN SHOP COMFORTABLY, CONVENIENTLY AND CONSERVATIVELY.

A Dream That Came True

For fifteen years, since we first began business in Ashland, we have hoped to have just the kind of a store we had dreamed of. Like the new hotel that did not come to Ashland until she built it herself, our hopes rose and died until finally we did as Ashland did—built it ourselves. And we hope you will like it as well as we all like our new hotel.

Style Show

Friday Evening

7:30 to 8:30
P. M.

Music
Souvenirs

Accept This Announcement

As your personal invitation to attend our formal opening Friday evening and Saturday and decide for yourself if good lighting, more roomy aisles, better display of goods and more convenient arrangements of stock will not all tend to make this your favorite shopping place. You will need to feel no obligation to buy. Feel free to look us over.

TO SEE OUR COMPREHENSIVE COLLECTIONS OF AUTUMN STYLES IS TO KNOW THE MODES THAT FASHION APPROVES AS WELL AS KNOWING THAT THIS STORE HAS SELECTED TYPES WHICH ARE THE PERFECT EMBODIMENT OF REFINEMENT AND GOOD TASTE, AT PRICES AS LOW AS GOOD QUALITY WILL PERMIT.

McGee's

McGee's

